

International Criminal Justice Sources

Country Information

Europa World Yearbook Dewey Ref JN 1 E85 2007

Portals to the World (Library of Congress)

<http://www.loc.gov/rr/international/portals.html>

includes sites about countries, official country websites

Foreign Government Resources on the Web

<http://www.lib.umich.edu/govdocs/foreignnew.html>

CIA World Fact Book

<https://www.cia.gov/cia/publications/factbook/index.html>

World Criminal Justice Library Network

<http://andromeda.rutgers.edu/~wcjlen/WCJ/index.htm>

(See Criminal Justice Links Annotated, Statistical Sources)

Florida State University – International Criminal Justice Sources

<http://www.criminology.fsu.edu/p/cjl-world.php>

Also intergovernmental organizations, etc.

European Union http://europa.eu/index_en.htm

(choose “Justice, Freedom, and Security”)

Organization of American States <http://www.oas.org/main/english/>

(choose “OAS Sectors and Topics”)

Articles (find these databases in Databases & Indexes at <http://library.albany.edu>)

Criminal Justice Abstracts

Criminal Justice Periodical Index or NCJRS

Be sure to also use variations on country names. For instance, information on Britain might be under Great Britain, United Kingdom, or even Wales, Scotland, Northern Ireland.

MINERVA (Library Catalog) at <http://library.albany.edu>

Some headings to use:

Criminal justice, administration of – country name

Police administration – country name

Corrections – country name

Prisons – country name

Criminal courts – country name

Country name – Politics and government

M.J. Brustman
11/06, rev. 3/08