REPORT SHOWS GREAT PROGRESS

We Welcome The New Employee

This may be the first time you have heard of the company that I am going to tell you about. It has a contract covering wages, hours and working conditions in your department. In your department, there is a new employee. The new employee, whose name is John Smith, may be able to come through your department and see what he can do.

While on this trial period, your supervisor or foreman will make out a report on your progress. If your report is unsatisfactory you should be informed when the report is made.

You should have been informed that the new employee is not a substitute for you. He may be able to come through your department and see what he can do. You should be informed when the report is made.

The UEBMA of N.A. has a splendid record of achievements. It has saved many lives, and is a valuable asset to the electrical industry. It has a membership of 15,000 employees.

The UEBMA is the official voice of the New York City Electric Company, and the Electrical Board of the General Electric Company. The company's officers are the same as those of labor unions in the electrical industry, consisting of 10,000 employees.

The L & R record speaks for itself. We have 225 stop representatives in the Schenectady G.E. plant. The executive board meets monthly to discuss the company's problems and the many issues that arise in the electrical industry. The board meets to discuss the many issues that arise in the electrical industry.

You are just starting in, and you will be faced with problems. The company has some new employees, and there are more of them now than there were last year. You will need assistance.

(1) You will want to make sure you are going to receive the proper salary rating during your first year.

(2) You will want the proper amt of time to appreciate the merits of your accomodates.

(3) If you are a piece worker, you will want adequate prices on the work you do.

(4) You will want to express your views on certain issues. The company is willing to consider your views, and it will be helpful to have them recorded in the court of public opinion.

ANNUAL REPORT OF OFFICERS FOR YEAR

At the January membership meeting, which was held Sunday at Union headquarters, the following were nominated for the respective offices: President—E. Wallingford Vice-President—W. Winslow Business Secretary—W. Cooke and Treasurer—W. Cook. The new officers were installed into their respective offices after their election by the membership. They will take office in January of next year.

The new officers have been in office for several months, and they have made many improvements in the organization. They have also been active in the various activities of the union, and they have shown a great deal of interest in the welfare of the members.
