EUGENE J. KEOGH

Former Congressman Eugene J. Keogh was born in Brooklyn, New York, on August 30, 1907. He graduated from New York University in 1927 and received his LL.B. from Fordham University in 1930. He worked for the City of New York as a public school teacher and as a clerk from 1927-1930. From 1930-1931 he served as a law clerk. In 1932, he was admitted to the New York State Bar, and has practiced law in New York City since then. He was a member of the New York State Assembly in 1936. He was elected to the United States Congress and served from the 75th to the 89th Congress, most of that time as a member of the Ways and Means Committee (1949-1965). Mr. Keogh is married and the father of two children. His home is in Brooklyn and his office is in New York City.

EUGENE J. KEOGH

Series Description

The papers of Eugene J. Keogh include correspondence, manuscripts, photographs and published material. With the exception of published material this collection has been processed in the same manner in which Rep. Keogh's office had maintained it.

SERIES I

GENERAL FILE

Series I: General File includes biographical material, correspondence, and published material. A considerable amount of the correspondence has published material attached. The material pertains to Rep. Keogh's congressional business other than matters concerning the Ways and Means Committee. The committee materials are arranged in a separate series.

Congressman Keogh arranged the correspondence chronologically by year and, where possible, divided it into three categories: general or miscellaneous, from correspondence in his district, and correspondence from out of his district. The general correspondence is arranged alphabetically by correspondent or subject within each year. The correspondence from in the district is arranged alphabetically by correspondent or subject. The correspondence from out of the district is arranged in the same way.

The remainder of the published material, without attached correspondence, is arranged at the end of each year, in alphabetical order by subject.

Undated material is filed at the end of the series, followed by duplicates.

Dates: 1949-1966

106 Boxes

SERIES II

PERSONAL FILE

Series II: Personal File includes correspondence and published material. The material is arranged alphabetically by subject and includes invitations and programs which are arranged chronologically.

Dates: (1897), 1938-1963
1965-1966

21 Boxes

SERIES III

SPEECHES

Series III: Speeches consists of correspondence, manuscripts and extensive published material. Mr. Keogh's speeches are arranged chronologically. Speeches of others follow and are arranged alphabetically by author and then chronologically. Duplicates are arranged at the end of the series.

Dates: 1937-1951, 1953-1961

9 Boxes

SERIES IV WAYS AND MEANS COMMITTEE

Series IV: Ways and Means Committee includes correspondence, manuscripts, and published materials arranged chronologically by year and alphabetically by subject within each year. Within each year, general material is followed by papers relating to bills and these are arranged consecutively by number. Materials pertaining to Congressman Keogh's Excise Tax Sub-committee follow the bills and are arranged alphabetically by subject.

Dates: 1949-1965

113 Boxes

SERIES V BILLS

Series V: Bills consists of numbered envelopes containing correspondence, manuscripts, and published material relative to numbered House of Representative bills, resolutions, joint resolutions and concurrent resolutions. The bills are arranged chronologically according to congressional session and consecutively according to bill number within each session. Empty numbered envelopes are included. Duplicates of published material are arranged at the end of the series.

Dates: 1939-1964

61 Boxes

SERIES VI ADVISORY COMMISSION ON INTER-GOVERNMENTAL RELATIONS

Series VI: Advisory Commission on Inter-Governmental Relations includes correspondence and published material arranged chronologically. Within each year the correspondence is arranged chronologically and the published material follows in the same arrangement. Duplicates are filed at the end of the series.

Congressman Keogh was a member of this commission, a governmental agency set up to study relationships between local and regional governments.

Dates: 1961-1966

23 Boxes

SERIES VII HERTER COMMITTEE ON FOREIGN AID

Series VII: Herter Committee on Foreign Aid relates to a trip taken by Congressman Keogh and other colleagues to various European countries in 1947, in order to consider the problem of European Foreign Aid. Christian Herter headed the committee.

The series consists of correspondence, subject file, and published material. The correspondence is arranged chronologically. The subject file is arranged alphabetically by subject. The published material is arranged alphabetically by type or subject.

Dates: 1947-1949

6 Boxes

SERIES VIII

SERVICE ACADEMIES

Series VIII: Service Academies contains correspondence, applications, and grade reports, and published material relating to appointments made by Congressman Keogh to the service academies. These are for the Air Force Academy, the Merchant Marine Academy, the Naval Academy and West Point. General material is filed at the beginning of the series. The rest of the series is divided by name of the academy and arranged alphabetically. Within each academy the material is filed chronologically.

Dates: 1949-1962

5 Boxes

SERIES IX

PUBLISHED MATERIAL

Series IX: Published Material consists of articles by and about Keogh, acts, bills, books, brochures, budget material, bulletins, codes, committee prints, issues of Congressional Record, directories and guides, handbooks, hearings, magazines, memorandums, newspapers and clippings, press releases, programs, reports, speeches, statements, statistics, studies and Supreme Court opinions, arranged alphabetically by type. Acts are arranged by number. Bills are arranged by number followed by unnumbered bills and summaries. Books are arranged alphabetically by title. Budget material is arranged chronologically as are issues of Congressional Record. Directories, bulletins, codes and handbooks are arranged alphabetically by title. Hearings on House Resolutions, on Joint House Resolutions and Senate Bills are arranged chronologically, consecutively and numerically. Hearings on more general subjects follow numbered hearings within each year. Transcripts of hearings are arranged chronologically at the end of the section on hearings. Magazines are arranged alphabetically by title. Press releases and programs are arranged chronologically. Reports of cities, U. S. Government agencies, the House of Representatives, the Senate and non-governmental organizations and each arranged alphabetically by subject. Speeches are arranged alphabetically by type. Statements consist largely of testimony given before the House Ways and Means Committee and are arranged chronologically. Statistics and studies are arranged alphabetically by subject. Supreme Court opinions are arranged chronologically. Duplicates of published material are arranged in the same way as published material at the end of this series.
