QUESTION: How will the increment that I received, effective April 1, 1954, affect any adjustment that I might get when the new plan goes into effect?

ANSWER: When you receive your check for the wage adjustment due you, your rate will be increased back to April 1. Any adjustment this year will be limited to two new increments. The salary increase that you receive April 1st by reason of your having received an increment earlier this year can be deducted from the total amount due you this year.

QUESTION: After I receive my increment April 1, I am still entitled to receive one more before I reach the maximum of my salary grade. If I should be put in a salary grade whose maximum is higher than that which I now receive, am I entitled to any more money?

ANSWER: Yes. You are entitled to receive enough money to put you at the same step in the new grade as you were in the old grade after April 1, 1954.

QUESTION: In 1950, I was reclassified to a new job. Does this have any effect on my eligibility for the "extra step"?

ANSWER: We cannot answer that without more information. If the reclassification was a promotion, then you would not start accumulating eligibility for the extra step until you are at the maximum of your new salary grade. There are, however, many reclassifications that are not promotions; and in such a case, for the purpose of the additional increment, the 5 years at the maximum would begin when you first attained the salary grade that allowed you to reach the maximum of your position before the 1960 reclassification.

QUESTION: I have been at my maximum since April 1, 1949. I got an unsatisfactory service rating in 1950 and 1952. Am I entitled to any more money?

ANSWER: If you had satisfactory service for each of the five years that you were at your maximum, you would be eligible for the extra step now. However, since you had an unsatisfactory service rating for two years, this will delay your eligibility for the extra step until you have had five years of satisfactory performance at your maximum. In other words, when you have achieved two more years of satisfactory service, you'll get the extra step.

QUESTION: I am a baker in State service. How big an extra check will I get on October 1st this year from this new plan?

ANSWER: If you had satisfactory service for each of the five years that you were at your maximum, you would be eligible for the extra step now. However, since you had an unsatisfactory service rating for two years, this will delay your eligibility for the extra step until you have had five years of satisfactory performance at your maximum. In other words, when you have achieved two more years of satisfactory service, you'll get the extra step.

QUESTION: I am a typist who has worked for the State three years. Will we both get the same amount of raise?

ANSWER: No. Persons at different salary steps, in the process of changing from the old to the new plan, will receive different amounts of pay adjustment. The new plan is more systematic than the old plan. This can change from step to step. As with any change in this fashion without changing some rates more than others. Just the element of chance will mean that some people in the same job and title will be treated equally.

1. That is why the Civil Service Board directs that the hurry-up deduction for membership in the Blue Cross and Blue Shield Plans be made on a payroll deduction basis to New York State employees and their families.

18. The deadline for present availability to New York State employees is May 1, 1954. Any employee who has not yet enrolled in one of the Blue Cross and Blue Shield Plans may still do so at any time in the fiscal year. All employees who have elected to participate in the Plans, and are enrolled as of May 1, 1954, will continue to be covered through the end of the fiscal year, September 30, 1954. Blue Cross and Blue Shield Plans are available to New York State employees and their families on a payroll deduction basis. Coverage will become effective August 16.
U.S. Employees Fired Not Told Just Why

Looking Inside

By H. J. BERNARD

CHARGES in removal cases against either veterans or non-veterans must be specific, otherwise the employee is prevented from disproving them and, if removed, must be reinstated, the U. S. Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia has held in three recent cases. In the departmental decisions the courts will not substitute their judgment for the department's, as to whether the offense was sufficient to warrant dismissal.

A veteran's job security, the courts call it, should act as a deterrent to departments acting hastily and improperly in ordering dismissals.

Gallantry No Excuse

Some hesitancy by departments in employing an employee with specific detailed charges arises from understandable motive. A morale charge may be involved, and there is a natural tendency not to publicize the names of the girls. The departments are now on Judicial notice to attempt to keep any such gallantry if they intend the charges to stick.

In one case, the attempt to avoid publicizing the identities of the accusers worked in reverse. The employee ordered dismissed found out who they were and sued them for libel and slander. He won and collected.

Accusers Worked in Reverse

The employee was accused of kissing girls at a surprise birthday party given in the house of an acquaintance. He said they kissed him; he did not kiss them. The court soberly held that the attempt to avoid publicizing the identities of the accusers worked in reverse.

"Abnormal Practices" Considered

A veteran has a stronger legal protection. No permanent or indefinite veteran preference employee shall be discharged without at least 90 days notice in writing, stating any and all reasons specifically and in detail. An opportunity to reply must be afforded. But if the charges are vague and uncertain, to what shall he reply?

The specific acts must be identified, too, and described, with time and place.

A master mechanic in the forge shop, Philadelphia Navy Yard, was accused of kisling girls at a surprise birthday party given in the shop. Only the difficulty of an accused man having an adverse motive or notoriously disgraceful conduct." He protested, in effect, what can he be accused of kissing girls at a surprise birthday party given in the shop. Only the difficulty of an accused man having an adverse motive or notoriously disgraceful conduct." He protested, in effect, what can be accused of kissing girls at a surprise birthday party given in the shop.

The court was not satisfied the employee "tried to make advances." The specific acts must be identified, too, and described, with time and place.

Analyze Benefits

If you have planned your plan, you are fortunate enough to be able to look forward to a comfortable pension; it is for preparation for the retirement day you have laid aside a portion of your earnings to meet the costs of living. Your pensioner's income will be increased to $350 a month.

Declaring that thousands of dollars in Social Security payments are being denied higher pay because their titles are in an upstate district or in the entire upstate area, Mr. Mohan says the Commissioner of Motor Vehicles will fix the prevailing rate of wages.

The graded titles are in Part 2 of Title 19 of the Civil Service Law. Mr. Mohan wants the Commissioner of Motor Vehicles to fix the prevailing rate of wages.

Mr. Mohan has heard people say that any money paid them by the State is not Social Security. A. M.

The receipt of a civil service pension—whether Federal or State—will not affect the receipt of Social Security.

WHEN MY HUSBAND died in 1965, I received one lump sum payment, which I was advised I would receive no payment for any month before December of that year. I have been in the New York State Retirement System for 65 years' service. I expect to work under Social Security and continue to be eligible for widow's payments. Since I am now 65, I have heard people say that I would not get SS payments. P.J.W.

Answer — If an individual becomes eligible for Social Security payments, he will receive those payments even though he may not get SS payments. The receipt of a civil service pension—whether Federal or State—will not affect the receipt of Social Security.

HOW CAN I find out how much in wages is recorded in my Social Security account? As a member of the New York State Retirement System, I have been in Federal Social Security for at least eight years.

Answer — You may obtain from the Records Division of the United States Social Security Administration a receipt of your earnings.

I have any question on this subject, to address them to the Social Security Administration.

Message to The Mayor

Following are this week's Messages to the Mayor, from the Civil Service Council.

Pension Benefits

The Council recommends a 5% increase in the cost of living in the Council's present pension formulas. This would cost the City 2.2 percent of the payroll, or $14 million.

The increase would go into effect on July 1. A similar increase was approved for the Police Department a few weeks ago. The Police Department is the City's largest employer, with 13,000 employees. The increase would affect about 5,000 employees in the Department.

News of the Week

The Council has completed its annual review of the City's civil service system. The review is required by the New York State Civil Service Law.

The Council has also approved a new plan for the City's civil service employees. The plan provides for a 5% increase in the cost of living for all employees. The increase will be retroactive to January 1.

Ongoing Business

The Council will continue to monitor the City's civil service system and make recommendations as needed.

City
Pensions

IF I WANT to give up my membership in the NYC Employees Retirement System, without leaving my money in, that provision would not be diminished or impaired. If you Kent age, and have earned quarter of a century, you can retire. That is the sole provision. It can't. Tom must apply. By J. Richard Burstin

April 27, 1954

VACATION VARIETIES

BY J. RICHARD BURSTIN

I noticed in one of your columns that the writer did not think there was any chance of repealing the State constitutional amendment safeguarding pension rights, but I do not remember the exact nature of those rights.

Answer - The constitutional provision, Article V, Section 6, states: "Membership in any pension or retirement system of the State or of a civil division thereof shall not be a contractual relationship, the benefits of which shall not be diminished or impaired."

The point being discussed in the column was correlation of the State Employees Retirement System with Social Security, and Governor Dewey's remark that an constitutional amendment may be necessary, to provide basis equitable to employer and employees. Any repeal would not affect present but only future members.

ABE GORDON'S
Middletown State Hospital

DR. EDITH SELLICK is leaving the Middletown State Hospital to enter private practice. A dinner was given in her honor at the Crescentine Inn, with members and employees attending. She was presented with a check for $100. Dr. Kinsella, clinical director, and Dr. Schmitt, assistant clinical director, and those who paid tribute to Dr. Sellick were present.

Dr. Ada Coven, former staff member, was visiting here last week. Everyone was glad to see her.

Bill Moody has returned to work as a vocational counselor at the hospital.

Urgarten of Workmen's Compensation Board, who lost his job.

Dannemora State Hospital

There is a series of courses in first aid which are being given in aid in the St. Lawrence State Hospital. Dr. Ernest Muddall, the hospital physician, and an employee of the hospital are conducting the classes.

Those who completed the 46 courses receive a certificate of completion and a standard first aid certificate, medical treatment cards, etc. The classes were attended by the following: Dr. M. A. Z. and rank insignia were: Edith S. Neff, Dr. Charles T. Alston, and Dr. William J. W. Cool, Charles M. Davis, Dr. Charles W. Goodwin, Dr. William A. Godden, Dr. George Goodwin, Dr. William J. M. Burgard, Dr. William J. R. Poole, Agatha Rivers, secretary treasurer, and Mrs. Charles R. Godley. The courses are run by Dr. John T. Keating.

The new community store will open under the supervision of the hospital and will be under the management of Mrs. Frank W. fingers were also assisted.

The chapter is most happy to announce that the chapter has completed the 46 courses for the year, and that the chapter has received the appropriate certification of $1,100 for the construction of an exhibit on the use of the operating room and hospital facilities. The exhibit is near completion.

New York City

In recent years, the use of the operating room and hospital facilities has been increased, and the exhibit is an example of the advances being made in this field. The exhibit will be seen at the Metropolitan Conference on May 17, at 9:00 a.m., on the day of the chapter's meeting.

Lillian Burnham of the finance section of the chapter, is starting to be laid, the Catholic and Protestant churches are near the completion of their construction projects. The system is near completion.

Native American people have been using Blue Cross for many years to help pay the costs of medical care. It will be seen at the Metropolitan Conference on May 17, at 9:00 a.m., on the day of the chapter's meeting.
