CSEA Repeats Demands for $1,200 State Salary Increase

CSEA Charges "Bad Faith" On Trans. Dept. Lunch Cut

ALBANY—Cutting off luncheon allowances to field employees of the State Department of Transportation while State contract negotiations were in progress has brought charges of bargaining in bad faith from the Civil Service Employees Assn.

The protest is the latest round in a strong CSEA reaction triggered by a DOT ruling of last Oct. 7 revoking a long-standing department practice of reimbursing employees for noontime meals taken within 35 miles of their home or official work in Albany.

The new CSEA protest to Gov. Rockefeller follows an earlier demand that he rescind the ruling on the grounds that it constituted a change in the conditions of employment which the affected employees were hired and that such changes are properly subject to bilateral negotiations.

At the time of CSEA's first

CSEA Correction Group To Meet

ALBANY—Members of the Special Correction Department Committee of the Civil Service Employees Assn. will meet at the DeWitt Clinton Hotel at 11 a.m. this Thursday with Correction Commissioner Paul D. McGinnis and members of his staff.

Richard J. Corcoran, chairman of the committee, sent McGinnis his tentative agenda of departmental problems to be discussed. A pre-meeting conference will take place the night before at 7:00 p.m. at CSEA headquarters at 35 Ela St., to finalize the agenda.

Members of the committee are Margaret Anastasia, John McChesney, Dennis Heachar, Donald W. Wurtzel, T. Deitman, Leonard Wood, John Bailey, George Fress, Dorothy Ashley, and Joseph Troccia.

Also, Arthur Parry, Cornelius Bush, Donald Ter Bush, Nicholas J. Ferrone, Paul Sullivan, Irwin Cameron, David Harris, and Maynard Cardiner.

State Backs CSEA On Illegal Mental Hygiene Solicitations

ALBANY—The Civil Service Employees Assn. has received an explanation from Mental Hygiene Personnel Director John Laggett for the actions of a former Manhattan State Hospital employee who solicited membership for Council 50 while on paid sick leave.

In a letter to Joseph D. Loch­ner, CSEA Executive Director, Laggett wrote: "Our investigation into this matter verifies the correctness of your allegation that ex-Manhattan attendant Alex Shaw was organizing for Council 50 on hospital grounds while properly on sick leave and brought to light certain irregularities in the administration of the attendance rules which have been the subject of corrective action by the management of Manhattan State Hospital."

Laggett added Shaw resigned his position at the hospital on Oct. 22.

CSEA had protested the illegal solicitations by Shaw several times in the Fall, accusing the Mental Hygiene Department of violating Council 50 favorable treatment.

Laggett also stressed that the department would see to it that all State mental institutions "maintain absolute impartiality and neutrality in dealing with employee organizations."

Lochert said "it's about time the department recognized the intolerable situation at Manhattan State, but the damage has already been done. It is most evident that Council 50 is winding up the 'sweetheart' of the department."

Urges Action On All Negotiated Benefits

ALBANY—Governor Nelson A. Rockefeller opened the 1969 session of the State Legislature last week with the message that the State's budget would be cut over and any five percent and economies would be affected in all departments and agencies.

The Civil Service Employees Assn. reacted to the speech by demanding that the Governor include a $1,200 across-the-board raise for State employees.

Dr. Theodore C. Wenzl, CSEA president, declared that "The Civil Service Employees Association is not against government but is dead set against supporting economies out of the public employee's pocket."

Demands on pension improvements and other fringe benefits were also repeated by the CSEA president.

In a letter to Governor Rocke­feller, Dr. Wenzl wrote saying: "We must strongly urge that your executive budget contain appropriations for all of the improvements in salaries, retirement and other terms and conditions of employment that your negotiating committee has won during negotiations between the State and CSEA prior to their being stopped by your acceptance of the order of the Public Employment Relations Board on November 27, 1968.

In addition, we urge you to include an across-the-board salary raise for State employees of $1,200 and a twenty-five year half pay retirement plan.

It is extremely provoking to us members to have negotiations stopped for the second year in a row by PERB, especially in view of the State Court of Appeals decision in March, 1969.

Our members are completely confused by your acceptance of PERB's stay, when the highest court in the State has previously set similar action aside.

As you can imagine, most State employees are very angry. Council 50, APCWME is taking credit in public advertisements for stopping State-CSEA negotiation in order to gain a general strike of certain State mental institutions. They are claiming that their strike was for their members an election to determine the bargaining agent in the five units established by PERB. PERB's participation in "mediation" efforts, the presence of a strike in its order when no demand had been made in its "hearings" (but one of Council 50's strike demands is that of Fowler—PERB member and mediator—had been for a stay), and the timing of PERB's decision all corroborate these employees' views. Huntington Workers To Vote In Representational Election

(Special To The Leader)

HUNTINGTON—Blue-collar employees of the Town of Huntington in a representation election Thursday (Jan. 16) to choose between the Civil Service Employees Assn. and the National Maritime Union. The Teamsters Union last week dropped out of contention.

The vote follows the choice by white-collar employees Dec. 13 of CSEA in a 194-6 vote. Both Teamsters and NMU had withdrawn from that vote.

The vote was called for a full turnout by employees who had been represented by CSEA since 1951. "They represent a deal between the Teamsters and the NMU," asserted Charles B. Smith, CSEA Business Manager in Glen Cove. "It is like selling people like cattle. We would never think of doing such a thing."

CSEA noted that it had not been for the challenges by two New York City unions that "we would have a signed contract right now."

State Pay Raise

GOVERNOR Rockefeller opened the 1969 session of the Legislature with the announcement that he was reducing the State budget by five percent and wanting stringent economies in all State departments and agencies.

An immediate reaction came from the Civil Service Employees Assn. which justifiably declared that economies were not to come out the pockets of State workers.

There has always been a tendency in government to 'bend' or go along with any current, because it is considered 'lightning' when brought up. In this day and age, government needs to hire and retain the best talent available and it is not going to do so by making public employees the goat in a budget squeeze.

The Rockefeller Administration has already negotiated certain wage and retirement proposals with the Civil Service Employees Assn. These proposals deserve not only to be included in the forthcoming State budget—they also deserve to be expanded upon.

L.I. Conference To Hold Luncheon

(Special To The Leader)

BALDWIN—The annual legislative luncheon of the 40,000-member Long Island Conference of the Civil Service Employees Assn. will be held Saturday.

Confirmed speakers include the Attorney General, the State Comptroller and the State Treasurer. They will speak on the field of retirement and workman's compensation. For further information, call 281-0500.

THE PROPER RECLASSIFICATION of non-judicial employees following the direction for court reorganization was the subject of a meeting at an assembly of State CSEA members, held at the Court of Appeals in New York City on December 1, 1969, continues to present legal problems. After a general study and analysis of the duties and titles of such personnel, the Administrative Board of the Judicial Conference put into effect a Classification Plan for Deputies, Court Officers and Special CSEA employees of the Supreme Court, First Judicial Department, covering New York and Bronx Counties, who were Assistant Special Deputy Clerks prior to 1966 were converted to Court Clerk I. Special Deputy Clerks were reclassified as Court Clerk II.

IN MATTER OF AINSBERG V. McCOY (New York Law Journal, December 1, 1968, page 16), seven former Assistant Special Deputy Clerks contended that their reclassification as Court Clerk I was erroneous. They urged that Court Clerk II was their proper title. They based their contention upon the fact conceded by the respondent that the promotion evaluation made by the Administrative Board showed that their duties and responsibilities were those of Court Clerk II. Such duties were the same prior to and subsequent to court reorganization.

THE ADMINISTRATIVE BOARD's refusal to grant the petitioners the title of Court Clerk II was based upon the contention that this title would constitute an illegal promotion in violation of the constitutional requirement that promotions be based upon merit and fitness as determined by competitive examination.

JUSTICE PETER A. QUINN indicated that the constitutionality of the creation of the different level positions from the former title of Assistant Special Deputy Clerk depended upon two factors. The first was whether the new allocation of duties and responsibilities was made to the petitioners prior to reclassification. As previously observed, the petitioners performed the same functions before and after court reorganization. Accordingly, the second issue to be determined was whether the petitioners had been properly assigned to such functions prior to reclassification. If not, they were engaged in out-of-title work which would not support reclassification as Court Clerk II.

HOE RODDY, Assistant Special Deputy Clerks were unrestricted as to salaries or duties. Neither an increased responsibility nor a more responsible work would have constituted a reclassification. The problem was that the petitioners in an unlimited grade was essential so that these skilled employees would be available for performance of the wide range of duties necessary to operation of the Courts.

IN JUSTIFICATION of the conversion of Assistant Special Deputy Clerks to Queens to Court Clerk II, the respondents maintained that the performance of the Clerks of the same grade as always cannot place them in an out-of-grade situation. A similar conversion of Clerks in Kings County was approved.

THE RESPONDENTS ATTEMPTED to justify a different treatment of the Queens Clerks. They maintained that prior to reclassification in Kings, there was only one class of Clerk, and in Queens while there were two classifications, all but one were Assistant Special Deputy Clerks, the exception being three clerks who had a more responsible assignment. Assistant Special Deputy Clerks were in charge of Trial Term Parts for years, thought to be required but had been assigned to Special Deputy Clerks. On the other hand, Special Deputy Clerks assisted other Special Deputy Clerks in special parts of the Court, although this was supposed to be temporary. The plan was described by the respondents as constituting a fuzzy type of non-competitive promotions, Justice Quinn properly held that the petitioners meet the tests entitling them to conversion of their title to Court II.

And so can joy.

In the showroom, a car is a thing of beauty and a joy forever.

But when beauty faces life, and life starts to take its inevitable toll—wrinkled fenders, bumped bumpers, tired glass—then beauty can turn into something else.

And so can joy.

That's why we put our money into service instead of show, into special tools instead of original Tiffany, into parts instead of potted palms, into master workers instead of masterworks.

That's why we go to such great lengths to make sure our back is big enough.

We start by finding out how many cars we have to service. By carefully counting all the Volkswagens in our neighborhood.

Then we find out how many people, places, parts and tools we need to service that many cars. By drawing on the experience of about a thousand Volkswagen dealers. (Volkswagen has a big computer which keeps all that information up-to-date.)

We do a little plan, then we take the answer and build four walls around it.

Oh yes, we do include a place up front to show off our cars. And sell them.

After all, you can't expect walls to support themselves.

Research for Protection
... so more will live.

Cerebral palsy is a condition caused by damage to the human brain, usually at birth. As recently as fifteen years ago, little was being done about brain and nervous system diseases and disorders because they appeared to be hopeless. But recent research have been dramatic and encouraging. Many causes of cerebral palsy have already been discovered, meanwhile, stepped up research in medical centers, supported by private contributions, is wide-ranging in its search for new clues, new techniques and new knowledge. Drugs have been effective in releasing oxygen in newborn animals, opening up this promising possibility for "high risk" babies who suffer from lack of oxygen at birth. Hundreds of such promising leads are being followed in scientific laboratories across the country. There is more hope than ever before that both preventive and curative methods will be found to rid mankind of the tragedy of cerebral palsy.

The United Cerebral Palsy Associations, Inc. conduct a fund raising campaign at the end of January each year. Support your local chapter.

Vehicle Operators Postal Exam Set

Applications for the examination for substitute vehicle operators will be accepted by the Board of U.S. Civil Service Examiners up to Feb. 25. Pay is between $2.95 and $4.01 an hour.

The lists established from the exam will be used to fill vacancies at the Post Office vehicle facilities in the five boroughs of the New York City area.

Applicants must be 18 years old at the time of filing, but there is no residence requirement. Candidates must possess a driver’s license from New York State or the state in which they live, and will be required to pass a civil service road test.

One year of full-time or equivalent experience driving trucks of two and a half tons or over, or buses of 11 passengers or more is required.

The written test will measure ability to understand written instructions and to perform and complete forms. Candidates who pass the written exam will be rated on their ability to drive trucks safely, drive under local driving conditions, dependability and reliability as a vehicle operator, and ability to follow local driving regulations. The test will also include a USPS physical examination to prepare trip and other reports. The written test will be used to rank competitors who have tied on the latter subjects.

Postal employees benefits include up to 26 days of paid vacation and 13 days of sick leave per year, a uniform allowance, low cost group life insurance and health benefits, and retirement benefits with survivor provisions. There is also an incentive award program.

Further information may be obtained from the Board of U.S. Civil Service Examiners, 1900 Broadway, New York 10023; from the Intergency Board of U.S. Civil Service Examiners, 26 Federal Plaza, New York 10007; or at any of the Main Post Offices in the five boroughs of New York City.

Finance Officer

ALBANY—Richard D. Call of Norwich has been promoted to finance officer for the State Public Service Commission. He succeeds Gerald Foley of Cohoes, who retired recently. The job pays $11,985 a year.

Top executives of Terminal Employees Local 832 this week wondered whether the harmony that has existed between management and labor in the City's criminal courts under Assistant Administrative Judge Vincent Malosi and his aide, Captain William Dunn, was being shattered by the court's "straw bosses."

William McDonnell, president of the Uniformed Court Officers Union, an affiliate of Local 832, said that it had been the policy up to now for Captain Dunn to make assignments to the Weekend Court, and this policy had been working to the satisfaction of all concerned.

The union president said that, notwithstanding the specific instructions of Captain Dunn, the court clerks were again usurping Dunn's authority.

A specific illustration of the power that the court clerks were taking upon themselves in defiance of instructions occurred in the Brooklyn Criminal Weekend Court December 26 and 28, when the court clerk in charge reassigned all court officers to clerical duties while several clerks sat around reading newspapers and doing crossword puzzles.

Herbert S. Bauch, president of the local, said that these assignments left the courtrooms virtually unwatched.

Bauch said that it had come to his attention that one court clerk even said that "two men and rail men were just plain nonsense; the court does not need them any more."

The local president urged that Judge Malosi issue strict orders that court officers report to Captain Dunn's orders out to the letter, and praised Judge Malosi for his understanding of the uniformed court officer's problems.

832 Classes For Sr. Clerk March Exam

"Now that applications for the previous examination to senior clerk are being filed, our study classes will go into high gear," said Herbert S. Bauch, president of Terminal Employees Local 832 of New York City. The local is sponsoring a study class for prospective senior clerk every Monday Night from 5:30 P.M. to 7:30 P.M. in its auditorium at 325 Broadway, Manhattan. Any civil service employee may attend.

The classes, called by many the finest of their kind, are free to Local 832 members, while non-members are admitted upon payment of a one-dollar contribution to the Local 832 Pension Fund.

Classes will continue right up to the date of the examination—March 29. Approximately one hundred students are now attending, and Bauch said that twenty more can be accommodated. He urged those who wish to come to telephone to make a reservation, but said that this was not absolutely necessary.

He urged those attending to come as close to 5:30 P.M. as possible, as classes start promptly at that hour.

The examination for senior clerk is to be held on Saturday, March 29, and applications are now being distributed to every member of the Department of Personnel, 49 Thomas Street, New York, and will be until Jan. 26. Applications may be secured from departmental personnel offices also, and must be filed on or postmarked to Jan. 26 with the Department of Personnel either in person or by mail.

Bauch said that applications may also be secured at the offices of Local 832 at 325 Broadway, New York, in Room 505, any day from 9 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. and on Tuesday evenings to 7:30 p.m.
