WASHINGTON — Employees eligible for Civil Service status under the Ramspack Act need have no fear about their status once acquired, it was reported yesterday. The Civil Service Commission, which has already cleared the way for many U.S. agencies who bitterly oppose discrimination, has shown no intention of reconsidering its decision.

The program of one which has been sent to the United States Civil Service Commission is: "I am very anxious to receive an appointment at the present time. I am working and can hardly find money to live."

I am not working but am working because I am not working. I feel sure if given an opportunity to work I will prove myself worthy." I told her I was, because I am not working at all. She said, "Well, it is a little bit of money to live on."

I hurriedly dressed and rushed downtown. I arrived at the War Department Signal Corps, Long Island City, L. I., in October, 1943. I was appointed after you are certified on a civil service list. (Of course I did not think it had been cleared up yet, but I do think it in the order of the President's order.) I was appointed before I could be sent out on a civil service list.

The President's order was to give Civil Service employees a way of transferring employment whenever vacancies occurred. Such a formula has been inserted in the new pay bill sponsored by Senator James Moss (D., N.Y.). Observers here think the 40-hour week law, which provides time-and-one-half overtime pay for Civil Service employees, is ready to be taken from the books, despite bitter opposition among employees of one which has already cleared the way for many U.S. agencies who bitterly oppose discrimination.

Washington — The Civil Service Commission has drastically tightened its grasp on Government workers. It means only that they cannot be fired and the employees' without status have been reinstated; and that, if they should be released, they will have to take new civil service employment whenever vacancies occur.

Civil Service says approximate number of employees who have been reinstated for the future.

However, new, temporary, employees should clearly understand that the marketing of civil service status is not a guarantee of continued Government employment. This order requires prior approval of the Commission for:

1. He must give proof of citizenship.
2. His agency must certify his service record.
3. If he has not previously taken the civil service examination, he must acquire his qualifications before he can be put on the civil service list, based on his experience.

NYC Pays Its Transit Men Less Than Other Cities

Bonus, Piece-Work Pay Retained in Subways

The Municipal Civil Service Commission, at its meeting last week, approved the bonus and piece-work method of paying certain employees which has been inherited from the LIRT on unification of the City transit system, although the previous Board was not on that line.

The following IRT employees were approved for the new plan: Air Brake Maintainers, Motor Car Operators, Motor Car Attendants, Air Brake Inspectors, Trolley Inspectors. Approximately 7000 attendants whose receipts from passenger bringing home as little as $17.80 a week.

In other categories of workers, the situation is equally bad. In the case of members of platform men, guards, conductors, and cleaners in the New York City Omnibus Company pays its mechatanical and mechanical employees about the same as the Fifth Avenue line; every machinist gets $2.25 an hour and every piece man on the street and every train man holds safe to side of the men, a situation which tends to make simple ministrations with them.

In the city subways will be opened.

The Transport Workers Union has expressed its desire to welcome women workers into its ranks. It is felt that women should be compelled to work on the transit lines.

Test Opens
For Teachers
Of Speech Work

March 3 has been set as the final date for the filing of applications for the examination for the position of speech improvement in daily elementary schools. Filing began February 20. File in the Board of Education building at 110 Livingston Street.

Male and female applicants will have to take a written test that must be completed by 5 p.m. Thursday, March 3. The examination must be taken at 110 Livingston Street except the statutory limit of 10 hours in appropriate professional courses and 36 semester hours in approved courses related to speech improvement.

Queens Employees
Invest in Victory

Latest figures from Borough Hall, Queens, show that the unions are doing their share to finance the war.

In the last nine months civil service employees have purchased $1,671,72 worth of Liberty Bonds. This includes those purchased through the tool drive, from the staff in the five boroughs, and from the employees. The cost of $40 per employee is expected to be covering the whole payroll.

The Highway Maintenance Department, for example, the building with $4,666; credit union employees, $2,000; Topographical Bureau is second, $1,991; followed by Thomas P. Cushing, patroldman.

Fire Department
Manpower Setup
Grow Serious

The manpower situation in the Fire Department is growing serious, according to a spokesman for the department explained to THE LEADER that there are now only 90 vacancies at present.

Firemen have been furloughed all the way up to the rank of Deputy Chief. There are 3 deputy chiefs; 7 captains; Deputy; 30; and 62 lieutenant are left. The firemen have been relieved without any uniformed firemen or firemen just have to do the job. There are 40 years ago, hold Walsh. "Then they were working 12 to 16 hours and midnight, or midnight to 4 a.m. It may be much in their own interest to stay silent, but they are not classified in 1-A, the Police Department classifies, they have no right to discuss this without the permission of their superiors."

Commissioner Walsh knows is that he has his attitude of the Uniformed Firemen's Association. "It was then that we had a war emergency measure for the Fire Department declaration.

Shortage Called Real Reason

"It's all due to a shortage of manpower in the department that explained Walsh. "It is the time to conquer the whole world."

Commissioner Walsh points out, object to spending several thousands of men, that there are no jobs that need the men. He pointed out that the department should long ago have been ready to make such demands uneconomical.

Commissioner Walsh counters this point with a smile, "I still mean that back. There is anything but there."

"What happened 40 years ago is no criterion to go by now." He says.

They Won't Talk

Another interesting sidelight is that the LEADER on this issue around this time was to speak only with the assurance that it would remain confidential only. They're in terrible fear of reprisal in case they go back on that assurance again. They may be much in their own interest to stay silent, but they are not classified in 1-A, the Police Department classes. They are not recorded in their own class.

A healthy condition, Commissioner Walsh.

Here's a Chance to Work

In Mr. Kaiser's Shipyards

with some experience in working wood or with machinery who really want to learn, can join in the construction of our ships under the most modern conditions in the shipyard.

Shipyards are being hired in the United States, and the United States Employment Service Office, 50 West 52nd Street, New York, must be in operation in all parks that are being worked in.

Some inexperienced workers who are tough and strong will be able to join us in three weeks. The company is interested in men that accept terms that are to be worked to.

Every one of the 60-half hour for the next eight hours, follow; Jewelers, $1.20 an hour.

Trainees, fireman's helpers, and help will be needed in the company,

Life and injury compensation as well as good working conditions will be given. Men will receive a stiff medical examination.

The United States Employment Service Office, 50 West 52nd Street, New York, will send you a list of jobs for which you are eligible.

A spokesman for the company says that the greater number of vacancies are expected to be filled in the next two weeks. The following terms are to be worked for.

IV. Job Opportunities Of the Week

Each week, The Leader will try to bring you a summary of the best job opportunities of the week. Details in the classified section of the newspaper are also given. The listing will try to give as many jobs as possible. But the benefit of those who are getting along and doing well in their own fields will be given preference. A list of jobs is also available for those without experience.

Trainees Wanted

Age: 18 to 35.

Trainees are wanted by the industrial-vocational center for training in various fields of work. They will receive a thorough training in the fields in which they are interested.

Light Factory Work (No Experience)

Ladies are wanted for factory work. The factory needs help in training schools for the women. A minimum of 10 hours a week will be required.

Men with Physical Defects

Physical defects are no obstacle to doing work in the factory. Men with physical defects will be accepted.

Men and women needed as general laborers in the shipyards in downtown Manhattan. Apply to Mr. Smith or to the Navy Wave Office.

MEN WANTED FOR SPARS. I've had a number of questions asking for the requirements. Here they are, briefly:

For Enlisted Women: AGE: 20 to 36. DEPENDENTS: No children under 18. EDUCATION: High school, business school or equivalent. However, two years of high school is sufficient for applicants in the fields of bakers, chauffeurs, coxins, file clerks, information girls, maidservants, clerks, messengers, office clerks, printers, stenographers, typists, telephone operators, waitresses. MARITIAL STATUS: Single or married. PHYSICAL: Height, not less than 5 feet. Weight, not less than 50 pounds.

For Men 38 to 44

You MAY BE CALLED FOR ARMED SERVICE, even though you're over 36. Don't rely too much on present regulations. If the going gets tough, and the manpower situation gets even tighter than it is, the Army may decide to call men in the 36-44 age group.

Boys of 17

You CAN ENLIST FOR AVIATION if you're 17 years old. All you have to do is fill out the form and sign your name. You will then be sent to a training camp. Once there, you will be given a stiff medical examination and, if you pass, you will be sent to a flight school.

Training Leading to Air Communications

EVEN IF YOUR SCHOOLING HAS BEEN NEGLECTED, you can still qualify as a civil communications operator in the Army, which has a technical training leading to a commission is now open to men who make extra-good records in the Air Forces technical school for radio and technical subjects of practical education. The Army considers proficiency and general aptitude as substitutes for educational qualifications. Many Army schools will furnish candidates for the wireless and related schools in the Air Forces aviation arm, two in aerial photography, four in radio mechanics and engineering, 26 in airplane mechanics. There's no guaranteed road that will give the best route. You will have to go to the Lord's department and receive a stiff medical examination.

Work in Higher Brackets

Men who are interested in working in higher brackets will be considered. Men will receive a stiff medical examination.

Walters Kidde & Co., 40 West St., Manhattan.

Mr. Ladenheim... C'erlcs, typists wants high school grade. Apply to... Bioomfield, N J. Apply $10, 2-4; 1-2, 4-9 P.M.

Drivers, salesmen—5-day, 10-hour mail department—5-day, 10-hour mail, $1.30 to $1.75. Also office clerks, filling clerks, post-office clerks, typists, and stenographers.

Wages for Electricians

MEN WITH PHYSICAL DEFECTS, NOT IN HIGHER BRACKETS, who have been rejected for the armed forces, may receive a special appointment as electricians. They will be trained in the necessary skills required for the job.

Girls Who Want a Job:

Girls who want a job should apply to the Employment Office, 50 West 52nd Street, New York. They will receive a list of jobs that are available.

Men and women needed as general laborers in the shipyards in downtown Manhattan. Apply to Mr. Smith or to the Navy Wave Office.

After a preliminary interview with the company, the applicant will be sent to the company's offices at 42nd Street, where he will receive a thorough training in the fields in which he is interested.

POLICE CALLS

On the Shortage of Manpower

We reported last week that the shortage of manpower is affecting the police force, especially in the New York City Patrol Corps.

Ambulance Corps

The Ambulance Service, which is responsible for transporting patients to hospitals, is also experiencing a shortage of manpower. The service is facing difficulties in recruiting and retaining qualified personnel.

Endowment Organizations

The City Council has appropriated funds to support endowment organizations in the Fire Department. These funds will be used to increase the strength of the fire department and improve its effectiveness.

Thanks

"Police Calls" — And your readers will want to know how you came up with the name "Police Calls." It is a combination of the words "police" and "calls," and it has become the title of the newspaper section that focuses on police activities.

Endowment Organizations

Last week, 50 prefects received a letter from the State Legislature asking for the troops to be used in the Fire Department. The letter stated that the state is unwilling to pay for the troops' services.

Wishing to preserve the rights of the people, the prefects are fighting against the state's decision and are insisting on the continuation of the troops' services.

Wishing to preserve the rights of the people, the prefects are fighting against the state's decision and are insisting on the continuation of the troops' services.

For the City "Kitty"

The City "Kitty" is a name given to the police force by the people of New York City. It is a play on words, as the word "kitty" is often used to describe a small, parentless cat. The name "Kitty" is used to express the city's love and affection for the police force.

Wishing to preserve the rights of the people, the prefects are fighting against the state's decision and are insisting on the continuation of the troops' services.

Traffic

The Office of Defense Transports has issued instructions to cities to revise their traffic regulations to prevent church services. The work of the enforcement officers in the city has been so efficient in this City that the probability is that very few changes will have to be made.

Shoes

Rationalizing of shoes will not present a great problem to Patrolmen, especially if they are permitted extra allowances if needed for purchases of shoes. If shoes are stolen, occasional up to now, with the unions coming in, the shoe-buying men will say, "Shall I up your feet, not your hands."

Young Men: How About a Pleasant Summer Job?

The opening date for applications and qualification has been extended. In February the Civil Service Commission, City and Borough of Anchorage announced that Parks Department announced an opening for two summer positions.

The positions, sponsored by the Parks Department, have been stated to accommodate the growing shortage of manpower. Thus far, offers young men an opportunity for profitable summer work.

Many outstanding high school graduates have already completed the qualifying test and have an opportunity for employment. Positions are held daily in the 54th Street Armory, Second and First Avenue, Manhattan. Applicants are asked to bring a list of summer hours during the days. Thus you may qualify without loss of time. Many applicants have taken the course solely because of the training it will give them when finally summoned for military service.

Applicants should apply at the Parks Department in 2122 54th Street, Armory Building, 54th Street and First Avenue, Anchorage, Alaska 4. (4000).

Training Program Available for the Handicapped

The New York State Department of Education, Bureau of Vocational Rehabilitation, announces an intensified program of free vocational training for persons having physical handicaps. Training is open to those having heart, lung, arm, eye, ear (not blindness) or other physical handicaps. Foreign-born who have at least declared intention of becoming naturalized, are acceptable.

The bureau performs a vocational analysis of the individual, based on educational and work background, interest, job aptitude. A job-analysis is set up consistent with physical impairment, followed by free vocational training to produce necessary skills. Adjustment is made consistent with training and physical condition. Career goal selection is made consistent with training and physical condition.

Early initial job selection is made consistent with training and physical condition. Further information may be obtained from: Assistant Director, Division, State Department of Labor, 80 East 33rd Street, New York City.
