No, the life of a letter carrier in the big city is not a dream job. The man no one ever thinks about except when a letter that was expected doesn’t arrive leads a hard life. Somewhere about 4:30 in the morning, when most of us are still in deep slumber, the poor post man begins to stir because his alarm starts to ring at the station at 8 a.m.

A lot of people aren’t aware of the fact that the first 14 minutes of the day are the fact that the first 14 minutes of the day are the best early in the morning out of people. And he may lose some of his letters. He has to go to the mail room, get his first set of keys, then leave them in the mail room. He gets the mail in the mail room, the mail bag is full of letters, and he has to go to the proper place to put the mail in the proper place. He has to go to the apartment building, open the door, and go in and out of the building. And he has to get the keys.

And while he’s doing that, people are just beginning to get up. He’s going to have to make sure that he has the right place and that he’s going to have to make sure that he has the right address and the right number. And he’s going to have to make sure that he has the right amount of money and that he has the right amount of time.

But whatever the trials and tribulations of the regular letter carriers may be, the substitutes feel that their lot in life is far worse. Organizations in the Postal Field are campaigning for abolition of the entire substitute system in the Post Office, and the following letter to The Leader from one "sub" gives a graphic picture of their existence:

"In the interest of everything that is decent and just, I appeal to you to publicize the abominable system of substitute letter carriers.

"Substitute carriers are sometimes required to be on duty as much as 18 hours in one day. They may only go to the bathroom during their time off and get up just for the time they put in.

"A substitute tours of duty no to 6 a.m. and leaves at 10:30 p.m. day in and day out, holidays and Sundays until he has reached the limit of his endurance, and is no longer able to meet schedules.

"Finally he is so tired that he cannot appear for work. His superiors are not interested in the fact that he has worked so many hours and is too exhausted to carry on.

WASHINGTON -- A slash of almost 15 percent in the personal income of War Department personnel next week was last week by high government officials.

At present, War -- the bureau in government -- has approximately 3,100,000 employees, of which 1,000,000 are in the War Department. Before the Ramsepek Investigating Committee, Under -- Secretary Robert P. Patterson said he expected the total to be reduced in the next few months to approximately 100,000.

As far as many persons write brokers, it is not quite true that they can get the mail before they leave, and having an office on the second floor they want, and in doing this effort they must be sure that they have all messed up and have to reorganize the floor.

And many persons who write brokers are often left without a minute of their time for anything else. They have to go up and answer questions at the street. Other brokers often have a combination of Chinese and English in their offices and have to be quite a bit of a pain to address their mail to.

"Subs," as we call them, are between 12 until 2, and the carrier can enjoy his leisure. He will then, most likely, pick up a new batch of mail, start out again, and work until 4.

In the Suburbs

In the suburban areas there are special areas of dogs which enjoy walking bitches. When they stand in front of the house waiting for the mail carrier, they can get the mail from their mail box, and if they have any mail they will be interested in the proper order. Their owners will remember where the apartment is and send them home, and the Brown’s live, and where they are.

Shortly after 7 o’clock, when people are just beginning to get up, the poor carrier has to make sure that he has the right place and that he has the right address, and of course, he doesn’t have any time to go to the bathroom in the morning.

The Washington area is denoted for the delivery of mail, the assistant supervisor in each station. There have been many complaints that some mail does not get a fair break in the mail bag. The assistant in each station is in charge of the mail bag, and he is responsible for seeing that the mail is delivered correctly and in time.

One of the duties of the poor mail carrier is to figure out where his one of a dozen Jones’ would be likely to be called "Shoys" or his friends. Then somehow between 12 until 2, the carrier can enjoy his leisure. He will then, most likely, pick up a new batch of mail, start out again, and work until 4.

War Dept. to Pay Employees Up to $250 for Suggestions

ANNOUNCEMENT of the creation of the new agency in Washington was made last week by Secretary of Labor. Mr. Doak added that suggestions had been invited by the government immediately. There are some kinds of suggestions which must be divided into the following categories:

1. Suggestions that conserve manpower, material, time, or office space.
2. Suggestions that eliminate unnecessary procedures or records, or improve existing methods.
3. Suggestions that improve conditions affecting safety and health.
4. Suggestions that increase productivity.
5. Suggestions that eliminate excess tooling and equipment or improve existing tooling and equipment.
6. Suggestions that improve morale.
7. Inventions.
8. Suggestions which conserve critical material, or utilize material previously scrapped.

Goft. Probes Abseetnism Among Employees

WASHINGTON -- The Ramsepek Investigating Committee has been set up to probe the question of absenteeism among Federal workers.

The committee clearly recognizes that the law makes Government employees to specified amounts of money for each day of absence from work in the same year. And in that mind, it has asked the agencies to answer the complaint.

"Paraphrase they so like this: "First—What is the present rate of absenteeism in your agency?"

Second—What are you doing to reduce it?

"Navy Plan"

Meantime, Navy Department is getting excellent results with a "presentation" program shown as the Post-Star Incentive Program. Each employee is graded daily on four points: 1. Punctuality, 2. Attendance, 3. Diligence, 4. Efficiency. For every day that he gets a perfect score on all four points, the status point in his name on a large card in the office. There are various awards for outstanding workers. When the plan, which adopted, has worked wonderfully well.
City Budget Cuts May Sock-Ranking Soldier

Last week, the City Council was able to impress quite a few people by $1,000,000 out of the City's budget, by cutting the pay of some of its employees. Here's how these cuts affect you if you're a city employee.

If you enter military service, you might come back and find yourself out of a job, even though you think that the City protected the jobs of those who go to war. Here's how it works: The Mayor included in your salaries of those people who had entered the armed forces, even though the racket hadn't been filled. The City Council, however, slashed these salaries down to a book-value of

By law, a person on military leave is entitled to his job when he returns. While no funds are allocated in the budget to pay the salaries of returning soldiers and sailors, the department can

How Your Paycheck Is Going to Look When the New P. T. Tax Grabs a Piece

New York City is all prepared to log a larger tax from your July 15 paycheck. Most city employees have already been notified of their increases. Here are some pertinent facts for you to remember.

First, the withholding tax is not a new tax—it is simply a new way of paying your regular income tax. In 1941, you could lose or four hours a week, or 600 a year. For many employees, this tax is $624 a year. A married person receives an exemption of $1,048, with an additional $312 for each dependent.

From your salary above this amount, your department deducts 30 percent which goes to the Government.

You get an exemption, then 20 percent of the rate of your salary gets paid out of your department, which would enter this Tink Tax Department. You also get a rebate of this year's income tax, depending on how much you owe the Internal Revenue Bureau, and you can pay your own in two installments, in addition to your pay-by-month contribution.

The LEADER On Tuesday,

Councilman Joseph Sharkey ...

He got the last laugh, takes funds from other appropriations and use that money to meet the salary of the returning service man. But, if no funds are available—and this happens with limited departmental expense accounts—then another employee will be laid off to make a salary available. Therefore, there is the loophole which can be used to keep the ex-service man from his position. If the job formerly held has been declared unnecessary and abolished, then there is no legal obligation to find work for him. And if you should be a soldier returned near the tail-end of the budget year, when a department's funds are low, a low-income earner could well put you on the spot of being out of a job.

Beyond this, changes made in the budget, during the first week of the current fiscal year, changes the Council, the Mayor, and the Board of Estimate which affect the salary conditions of City employees:

The $8,000,000 which was in the Treasury at the beginning of the year has increased by $2,000,000. The money to hire duration patroons and firemen is there. Funds have been allotted to meet salary increments during the current fiscal year. A very small number of filled jobs have been eliminated. A 15 percent increase in the area already allotted a budget, and it is believed that some peculiarities of City offices have been nixed out.

Here's how these cuts affect you might come back and find yourself out of a job, even

The recent increase in the salary of the returning service man would eliminate the need for a number of departmental employees. Here are the pertinent facts to keep in mind:

If you are a married person with no dependents, the tax on your salary above $960, the amount of tax from this tax is $624 a year. A married person receives an exemption of $1,048, with an additional $312 for each dependent.

From your salary above this amount, your department deducts 30 percent which goes to the Government.

NOBODY UNDER 18 WORKS FOR STATE HOSPITALS

ALBANY—Greatly regretting the necessity of enjoining authority General Goldenstein has just issued an opinion on the Mental Hygiene Department, forbidding the use of "student nurses" under 18 in state mental hospitals.

The Legislature specifically prohibited last year the employment of persons under 18 in correction and mental hygienic institutions. A drive was then on to permit youths of 16 and older to be employed because of the labor shortage.

Large Filing For Clerk Examinations

Those employees who are ambitious to advance in the New York City Department of Motor Vehicles should take advantage of the current examination cycle. The written tests will be given in the early part of November, then it will probably take several months until the tests are graded and the second part given. After that comes the second part, and more time while results are figured out. Then after the list is finally promulgated, there will still be some time remaining.

In the department's interest--widespread bitterness over the two-part examination system that opened up the contest to all applicants has been removed. This has cut drastically the number of those filing.

What It Means When City Tries to Change Your Title

The Civil Service Commission in its annual report for 1933, held public hearings last week in the same place in the classified service as in previous years. Following the preliminary announcement of its decision.

State Commission for approval.

3. The City has given it the right to decide if its interpretation of the law agrees with that of the State Commission. The City says it will give the matter another look and report to the Board of Estimate and Appropriation.

4.-Legal action was brought, and the Supreme Court of the State Commission, says the State Commission, has the chance to make the changes.

5.-Nothing further has been done to make necessary changes in the setup, but the Supreme Court has followed the new procedure.

6.-The temporary appointment of the new classification list which it has been the subject of considerable discussion.

The Commission has that it is "making no incremental changes," which it technically correct, but in the view of those following such action.

The Supreme Court of the State Commission seeks to slide in those who are already in the service which have never been legalised.

The Civil Service Commission has been given legal authority to make necessary changes in the old classification. Among the changes proposed will be to increase the number of those who are employed in the lower grades. A new classification list which it has been the subject of considerable discussion.

The Commission seeks to be beyond its powers and do not serve any useful purpose. If the change cannot be legalized in the capacity of "reclassification," it is calling it "a reclassification."

The courses are tuition-free and provides Junior Engineer training requiring but three months for completion of the elementary section and three months for the technical section. Those who wish may take both in sequence.

The Army Quartermaster Corps is opening for women in Jersey City. The work is fairly heavy, loading freight cars and trucks, and the pay is $18.20 a week. No experience is needed, but applicants must be able to read and write and be citizens, and not 18 nor 45.

A medical examination will be given to all applicants, and the jobs will be civil service positions for the duration.

General Bradley's Column

By Brigadier General John J. Bradley (Ret.)

Preparing to Become an Officer

You'll have to prove that you're considerably better officer material than 90 percent of your fellow-inductees, if you expect to find a job in the Army of the United States. That is the indication given by the growing competition and smaller enrollments in Officer Candidate Schools.

Here is a list of Officer Candidate Schools and what they look in candidates' experience, education and background:

Adjutant General, O.C.S. (Fl. Washington, D.C.)

For administration course. Office management, business management, business experience, executive experience.

Classification course.—Psychology, personnel management.

Anti Aircraft Artillery, O.C.S. (Camp Davis, N.C.)

For credit in mathematics covering algebra, through simple equations with one unknown quantity, trigonometry through functions of angles, logarithms through applications, arithmetic, and algebra.

Armored Force, O.C.S. (Fort Knox, Ky.)

Organizational subjects such as leadership, drill and command, police training, personnel matters, and laws of war.

Anti Aircraft Artillery, O.C.S. (Camp Powell, Utah)

For general scientific and mechanical background, and physical fitness as prime factors.

Army Administration, O.C.S. (Branches 1, 2, 3 and 4)

Army Administration, O.C.S. (Transportation, Branch 4)

Army Air Forces, O.C.S. (Miami Beach, Fla.)

General scientific and mechanical background, and physical fitness as prime factors.

Cavalry, O.C.S. (Fort Riley, Kans.)

Mechanical Cavalry course covers weapons, tactics, mechanics, and pyramid, including horse training, horse care, and horsemanship, in addition. Books on both subjects are required.

Coast Artillery, O.C.S. (Fort Monroe, Va.)

Mathematics is important. The more you have, the better.

Field Artillery, O.C.S. (Fort Sill, Okla.)

Mathematics, tactics, communications, motor transport, gunnery.

Finance Department, O.C.S. (Duke University, N. C.)

For credit in mathematics covering algebra, through simple equations with one unknown quantity, trigonometry through functions of angles, logarithms through applications, arithmetic, and algebra.

Military Administration, O.C.S. (Camp Barkeley, Tex.)

One year of college, experience in handling men, (chiefly handling trained radio—coax crew), experience in hospital management, medical supply accounts, institutional mess management, pharmaceutical grounding.

Military Police, O.C.S. (Fort Custer, Mich.)

Ordnance, O.C.S. (Aberdeen Proving Ground, Md.)

For credit in mathematics covering algebra, through simple equations with one unknown quantity, trigonometry through functions of angles, logarithms through applications, arithmetic, and algebra.

Physiological training is a great advantage.

Photography, O.C.S. (Fort Lee, Va.)

A wide variety of specialists are needed in this department and specialized training is helpful. Basic military training and physical fitness are extremely important.

Signal Corps, O.C.S. (Fort Monmouth, N.J.)

Practical experience in radio, wire communications, and electronics.

Traffic Engineering, O.C.S. (Fort Hood, Tex.)

Knowledge of motors, communications, tactics, and weapons.

Answers to last week's Aviation Cadet test questions: 1; E; 2; S; 3; C; 4; H; 5; N; 6; D; 7; B; 8; R; 9; E.

T HE WAR DEPARTMENT will pay its employees for suggestions. Ideas that will improve the quality of work, save manpower or office space, cut paperwork, increase safety, make better use of materials— for such ideas the War Department will pay its employees from $5 to $250.

We recently heard a plan. We'd like to see it copied by other agencies— New York City, New York, as well as Federal.

RECENTLY, Police Commissioner Valentine disciplined an employee who had sent him anonymous letters regarding police policy. He was, in effect, telling us that if policemen, and government employees generally, weren't in fear of their department heads, letters wouldn't be anonymous— and mutual trust would be furthered. We're not in a position of initiative in this way helps the Police Department. Men generally say what they think. It is better if they say it like men, rather than secretly, furtively, in the cloak of anonymity.

AFTER LOOKING INTO all the pros and cons, we come to the conclusion that there isn't any valid reason why New York City clerks should have to remain in their positions for two years before being permitted to apply for promotion. This requirement just knocks out the stuffing out of the idea that he knows he's good but isn't permitted to advance. And it doesn't appear to us to be in the interest of the merit system, which calls for advancement of the better qualified. We don't do it here— we don't want competent persons doing work below their highest skills, and we don't want supervisors using the more capable employee to do higher-grade work at the pay of the lower title.

If the Municipal Civil Service Commission has qualms about reducing the requirements out of deference to the better-qualified, the Commission should assert its own authority on the principle.

To the Commission: Won't you reconsider the 2-year requirement? There's still time.

Are We Getting Swell?

In a case where the company is a club to handle the business of placing packages into the building, the search for the missing packages can shine or be by the counter or the doorman, and be over the freight entrance to keep the cases from the front of the Jupin is celebrating.

Notes

Hear that a girl set a new record the other day . . . three in a row in the Broadway entrance to the elevators, and no one bother. It would be a good idea to remember that the Grover record of 2.7 seconds was set before you open it, it goes squeak. A few days ago one young Vet was waiting for his $1,000 a day, all ready for the cleaners when something got back behind one . . . One Chief of a different bank in Chicago was putting an advertisement for Weigle’s Gum. She read a little about gum chewing makes people so very congenial and easy to work with doesn’t seem to apply too well. Seems in this case, there’s no need of such an advertisement.

It must be spring that brings out the beauties of the Vets. Here’s an

Warning

From what we hear around 346, there seem to be a couple of people not in the office. The inspection says to be sure you are getting the right thing. Have you taken your walk today? A thousand and one more.

A Nice Little Tale

There’s a story going around about the little girl in Preliminary who has only 10 times, so she got the bullet, but she was not a good girl: so she was leaving, one of the expressors told her to drop in at his brother’s office where they were being made. Now she’s making his model, dough than she ever did at Veas.

No second chance...no other choice

For those who fall and freeze on the lime-covered floors of the cattle cars that carry them to German labor camps—there is no other choice.

For the little children of Tepelini and Salonika and Athens who wait with swollen stomachs for the food ship that never arrives, there is nothing else to do—but wait.

For the Russian peasant with no choice but to burn his home before the Nazis reached it; for the Chinese of Nanking who suffered the terrorism of the Jap; for all of those in nameless graves and numberless cells—for all of them—there was no second chance, no other choice.

But for you—a choice still remains. For you—among all the peoples of the world, the road to freedom is still clear.

Never before have we been able to measure the price of freedom for ourselves and our children in such tangible terms. Will you help to keep the road to freedom open? Will you invest—all you can—in War Bonds?

It's not so much to ask. Many of us are making more money than we have for years. The things we'd like to buy with that money are scarce—or unavailable. So, we're asked to loan money at good interest—$4 for every $3 when the Bonds mature. Money to help pay for the war—keep prices down—provide peacetime jobs and peacetime goods and a generally decent world for all of us when the war is won.

Chances are you're already in the Payroll Savings Plan—buying War Bonds—doing your bit. But don't stop there. Raise your sights! Do your best!

You've done your bit—now do your best!

REAL ESTATE NOTES

New Yorkers are at last learning they don’t have to learn the hard way about the first steps in the business of real property. The New York State Department of Real Estate is making every effort to help them. The department has announced that it is planning a series of educational programs to inform prospective buyers of the current real estate market and the regulations that govern it.

Bank Properties Scarce

1,200 Clerks, 1,000 Typists Needed For Work in Metropolitan Area

The once humble clerk and typist is now queen bee at the Federal Civil Service Commission which is trying to fill hundreds of jobs right here around New York City, nearby Jersey City, and Newark, a clean record.

One opportunity now available is for the post of Junior Clerk. The job pays $1,140 a year, but junior examiners are on their way to $2,000 with overtime. Your duties will vary from handling applications and office workers. In fact, you'll be working as an assistant office manager.

And right now, there are 1,200 opportunities that are unreserved, and there are even more to fill hundreds of jobs right here. A Civil Service office is now in New York City, at 414 Washington Street, New York City, the office of the New York State Civil Service Commission; and they're so eager to help you land your Government job that the office is open from 9 to 5:30 on Sundays, too.

Three appointments are for the duration of the war plus six months. In addition to the usual qualifications, applicants have a chance to get experience that will be valuable for you after the war, and will work in modern offices equipped with the latest standard working conditions.

If you're interested, bring in lists of 1,000 typists are needed to fill a vacancy. You can walk into the Civil Service office at 414 Washington Street on 9 to 1 p.m., or 1 p.m. to 4:30 p.m. where the office is located. For every 60 words a minute—average for typists, pay is 50 cents an hour. The job pays $34.4 a week. Those jobs are all listed in the official civil service examiner, and you know shorthand, you can take the test for stenographer, and start at 99 a week and up.

Johannes Steel to Speak At Grover Cleveland Club

Mr. Johannes Steel, noted radio commentator, will appear at a forum of the Grover Cleveland Club, 14 East 49th Street, New York, on Thursday, June 17, at 7 p.m. The forum's topic will be "Democratic Tensions in the New Administration."

Mr. Steel is an international well-known radio commentator, and the forum will be followed by a banquet and dance. It will be sponsored by the American Assocation of Democrats, and is open to the public.

U. S. Official Urges Faster Promotion

WASHINGTON—Faster promotions for Government employees are recommended before this war ends by Mr. William H. Kuchinsky, civil service personnel director.

Mr. Kuchinsky said he thought the Civil Service Commission's recent salary law was a failure in many cases because it completely regulated the step within-grade raise every 18 months instead of making the salary increases based on the principles of $2,500 and every 30 months for those above $2,500.

The law carries a provision that the law should be extended to the duration of the war. But it is not being extended because of the secondment of the law.

Another proposal by Mr. Kuchinsky is that the law be extended to the duration of the war as well as the duration of the secondment of the law. In addition, a time limit of 18 months is set for promotions, and a minimum of 30 months for promotions above $2,500.

The bill was passed by the House on Tuesday, June 17, and is pending before the Senate. It is expected to be passed by the Senate and sent to the President for his signature.

Meanwhile, several other proposals have been introduced in Congress, including one by Rep. Robert H. Robarts, chairman of the committee. Congress, however, has not yet acted on these proposals.
