Labor Reclassification

The Budget Director's Objections:

Budget Director Kenneth Dayton still has a postponed proposi­tion reclassifying 12,000 labor jobs to the competitive class under consideration by the Municipal Civil Ser­v­ice Commission. Dayton asked to see the resolu­tion it had already been considered at two public hearings by the Municipal Civil Ser­v­ice Commission and after it had been mod­ified in a number of important aspects but many of those as­pects have never been addressed.

The Budget Director's approbation of the resolution, which will effect the status of 12,000 city workers, is not based on the fact that he is a part of the administrative body responsible for hiring and the hiring of city workers is not a part of his jurisdiction. The Budget Director's decision is based on the fact that the resolution would effect the status of 12,000 city workers and that he is a part of the administrative body responsible for hiring.

Diff erent Pay

Another problem that must be faced is the fact that certain laborers are paid on a per annum basis. Some of them work five days and earn, for example, $7,500 a year. Others work during the same period and earn $8,000.

It is expected that Dayton will return the resolution with his sug­gestions and after the Com­mission's vote it will have to be canvassed by the Municipal Civil Ser­vice Commission.

Sanitation Promotion Confirmed

Sanitation Men Class A will be promoted to Class B as a part of the resolution. It is expected that Dayton will return the resolution with his sug­gestions and after the Com­mission's vote it will have to be canvassed by the Municipal Civil Ser­vice Commission.

HINTS FOR HOSPITAL ATTENDANTS

WHEN YOU COME UP AGAINST THE MEDICAL TEST

Last week we discussed a number of the ailments which may disqualify Hospital Attendant eligibles. Many have been certified for positions, from applying to remove them. A few are still in the process of being tested, under a medical examination and will be retested by qualified physicians.

Here are some further hints on the causes for rejection:

HERNA (Rupture)
A hernia is the emptying of the abdominal wall. It is usually brought on by over-exertion or by excessive coughing. The only way to cure a hernia is by surgical correction.

RECTUM
When hemorrhoids or piles or fistula will be rejected. Hemorrhoids are enlarged veins of the rectum. They may be identified as protrusions of the bowels. Many are caused by strain on evacuation of the bowels. In herniating hemorrhoids, do not use laxatives or stimulant medica­tions. Go to a clinic or physician. It should be cared for immediately. You may also use a mild contem­porary with a prescription which will help relieve the condition. Increased pressure at the time of defecation is said to be due to the hernia making a depression in the muscle. In time, you may still use a mild contem­porary, but these should be used with care.

If the physical deficiency is mild, a certificate can be issued. If the hernia is severe, you will be rejected.

MENTAL DEFICIENCY
The following are mental deficiencies that would cause for rejection:

1. Epilepsy cannot be cured. The symptoms of epilepsy may not be present when examined. Persons with a history of epilepsy may not be rejected. If a person has been declared insane by a competent physician, this may be cause for rejection.

Flatt Feet
If the physical deficiency is mild, a certificate can be issued. If the deformity is severe, you will be rejected.

The examining physician will be able to determine the exact nature of the deformity and whether it can be corrected by exercise alone. If a finger is missing, the candidate probably has not been examined by a qualified physician and will not be accepted. Treatment of this condition is necessary. The period of recovery may vary, but the patient will undoubtedly qualify.

In zone 3, two men and 12 women have already been made from the senior list that has been held during the intensive depression of 1937. At this rate, The State employees may look forward to some 150,000 candidates being placed in the state service. Unlimited opportunities for advancement will be available for the next five years.
What's the State Budget Like At It

Here's a Quick GLance At It

Faced with a proposed budget that gives them some but not all of what they hoped for, State employees plan to attend a public hearing on the budget next Wednesday—Lincoln's Birthday—In Albany.

A reduction in appropriations over the 1940-41 figures does not leave out $4,000,000 increments in pay for State workers who are making $50,000 salary differential for all State employees, includes $20,000 for the Municipal Service Bureau which aids local

Civil Service commissions; $90,000 for transferring employees plan to attend a public hearing on the budget next Wednesday—Lincoln's Birthday—In Albany.

Cut in State Aid

Object of most attack by workers will be the two percent cut in State aid and pay. In his message accompanying the budget, Governor Lehman explained: "Your action at the time (the 1940 session) must be supplemented by an appropriate amount that the Legislature is willing to provide for the support of the public schools.

The Department of Civil Service, which has a sizable increase of one-sixth over the 1940 personal parcel (personel), including $500,000 salary differential for troopers and which is proposed to give troopers six instead of five days' leave for the summer vacation, has a satisfactorily increase of $30,000.

The Department of Education, which is to receive $457,059,210, has a reduction of $12,500,000, a figure which may be unrealistic at the present time, since it is impossible to know when the new list will be ready. the Department of Civil Service is to receive $257,921,677, which is an increase of $25,000,000, or six percent over the 1940-41 budget. The increase is due to the increase in the number of employees, which is expected to be 40,000.

In an open letter to Governor Leh­man, the chair­man of the Joint Committee of Teachers, Professor Alex Laurie of the Board of Education, expressed his concern about the continuing shortage of funds for the public schools. He pointed out that the city is facing a severe financial crisis, and that the present budget is only a partial solution to the problem.

The chairman made a strong plea for an increase in the budget, emphasizing the importance of maintaining the quality of education. He stated that the present budget is insufficient to meet the needs of the students, and that the city is doing a disservice to the children by failing to provide them with the education they deserve.

The chairman also praised the work of the teachers, who are doing their best to educate the children despite the lack of resources. He called on the government to take action to ensure that the children of New York City receive the education they deserve.

Professor Laurie's letter was published in the New York Times, and received widespread attention. It was a bold stand for the education of the children of New York City, and it called attention to the plight of the public schools.

The chairman's letter was a call to action, and it was answered by the government. A new budget was announced, which included an increase in the funding for the public schools. This was a significant victory for the Joint Committee of Teachers, and it was a reminder of the crucial role that the teachers play in the education of the children of New York City.

Swimming Part Of Fire Exam

Times have changed. Candidates for the next exam due this spring, will be given a swimming test as part of the physical exam. They'll probably be required to swim 100 yards, without operating equipment.

The swimming test will be given to all two-wax, either as a qualifying test — that is, if you want to be a Fireman you've got to show you can swim — or, as an alternate test — that is, if you can take your choice swimming with overalls on or without.

There will be a number of other innovations in the physical test. First of all, the main problem of the test will be pretty much as described in previous exams.

Candidates will be kept fully informed on all changes in the Fireman exams.

STARS Without Identification Bureaus

Many regular men who have almost reached the stage of appointment or promotion have been frustrated because they are being called to the Post Office for identification purposes. They are being asked to sign waivers to the effect that they do not have identification cards. A little probing on our part will show that many of the people who are being asked to sign these waivers do not have identification cards. The procedure of voiding the rights of regular employees to identification bureaus is tantamount to subverting Civil Service principles. It is the opinion of this News that the matter be referred to the Secretary of the Conference and the Assistant Secretary for immediate action.

On Question of Pay Rise

Sirs: This letter is being sent in an effort to elaborate on the article entitled "Higher Salaries for Regular Postal Service Employees," the title of which appears on page 3 of the January 26th issue of this newspaper. The article appeared in the section entitled "Pay," and the article itself was by Mr. David C. Macdonald, Assistant Secretary of Post Office.Would it not be well for all of the men of the Conference and the Association to sign a letter to Mr. Macdonald expressing our views on this subject? I am, etc.

Your Income Tax

By Philip Cohen, Tax Expert

This year the United States Government has dropped the exemption in connection with the federal income tax. Formerly a married man had to file a return if he had a gross income of $2,500; a single man had to file if he had a gross income of $2,000. Currently, $2,500 is allowed as an exemption. The same is true in the case of a husband or wife as the case may be.
