Cops and Firemen Get Instruction Kit
Full of Ideas on How to Approach Public

The Fire and Police Conferences Committee has issued a 16-page kit, full of helpful ideas on how to approach the public, including everything from the manner in which to open the conversation to the manner in which to close it.

The kit includes sample statements and scripts for various situations, such as how to approach a parent whose child has been caught breaking a traffic law, how to approach a potential voter, and how to approach a resident who may be opposed to a proposed increase in property taxes.

The kit is designed to help firefighters and police officers communicate more effectively with the public, and to help them build trust and rapport with the community they serve.

The Borough President's Office, in cooperation with the Department of Personnel, is now handling personel at the Borough President's Office, 40 Centre St., for civil service work in New York City during the war effort, and offers plenty of work around the ships when a person signs. And the final word is to the person who has signed.

Here's an example of the detailed instructions which tells how to approach the public further.

Parsons, 23, a teller at the bank, explains that he is trying to organize a campaign of public relations to explain to the public the true meaning of the war. He says that the bonus is only for those who sign the petition, but should allow the person to do so.

The bonus is paid quarterly, with no effect on the person's regular pay. If a person signs, but should allow the person to do so, the bonus to last for the duration and six months, to the member receiving the extra pay.

The first petition began to appear around the city at the end of last week, and the men hope to have the entire five boroughs by May 18. As they expect the referendum to sign.

City employees have been fighting for the right to get leaves from absence from their municipal job to enter war industry. Earlier this month, more than 1,000 other cities have provided that their employees who enter production plants re- turn to their city service status by continuing their pension payments for the duration, and are liable for loss of their jobs after victory.

A bill which would grant City employees this right (provided they have not been laid off) has been introduced by City Councilman Walter R. Hart. This bill provides for a committee to be appointed by the Mayor’s Civil Service Committee on Civil Employees and other employees of the City whose work is essential to the war effort. The committee is authorized to grant leaves of absence for the duration for those who made application before the end of February, but no action has been taken on it.

Deewy Allows Workers to Sue State for Overtime Pay Due

ALBANY—Declaring "this is no precedent for the future," Governor Dewey has signed into law the Sollmeyer bill permitting almost 350 employees of the State School of Industry to sue the State for overtime pay.

Workers claimed they were over-worked and required to work more than four hours a day for 90 days after a law requiring a 40-hour week was enacted in 1934 limiting the workday for employees in State institutions.

The new law permits them to bring the matter before courts and to present their cases in the Court of Claims for overtime pay. The measure includes a provision permitting the claim to be filed on the basis of prevailing rates of pay rather than for straight overtime, which is allowed under the present law, a considerable increase in the aggregate of the compensation. The total of the claims may aggregate as much as $100,000.

Here is What Governor Dewey Said in His Message Approving the Bill:

"It is only because service in addition to the four hours foreseen by statute on the part of the employees is required to maintain order in this institution and to promote the welfare of the students that we have taken a step which they prefer to receive in compensation for their additional hours of service, and to enable them to file one action in behalf of all of them in the Court of Claims for overtime pay. The measure includes a provision permitting the claim to be filed on the basis of prevailing rates of pay rather than for straight overtime, which is allowed by the court now under the present law, a considerable increase in the aggregate of the compensation. The total of the claims may aggregate as much as $100,000.

"No Precedent?"

Actually, under State law no attempt is made for more than 90 days, and the hiring of men on a part-time basis for six months at $9.75 a week and $112 a month for 20 hours a week can be made without the approval of the permanent appointment from the President of the State Board.

A provisional appointment was not considered an entitlement to wages which the person in question had been frequently reappointed, each such reappointment could have been construed as less than six months.

Department Head Can Say Who

The one of the things the new interpretation as set forth in the bill, that this bill is justified, "is no precedent for the future," it had to say.

State allows outside jobs to employees. Dewey has signed into law the Sollmeyer bill permitting almost 350 employees of the State School of Industry to sue the State for overtime pay. The measure includes a provision permitting the claim to be filed on the basis of prevailing rates of pay rather than for straight overtime, which is allowed under the present law, a considerable increase in the aggregate of the compensation. State Allows Outside Jobs To Employees and here are some high-light of the law:

1. The Civil Service Law does not preclude the employment outside of the regular hours of the department provided that such employment be made without inter­

2. Special restrictions on em­ employees and members of the Civil Service Board provide that they shall not engage in any business or professional activity which would give rise to the appearance or other professional employed by the State, or do anything to assist or practice their profession in their own time.

Discharged Men

Men discharged from service in this war will not be banded as homeless, but will be turned out. A post-war program has been set up by a number of Federal agencies to help the released man get off to a fresh start. The Armed Services, Veterans' Bureau, U.S. Public Health Service, War Manpower Commission, the President's Committee on Educational Reconstructions are all working together on plans both for mass demobilization after the war, and to meet the needs of returning casualties.

Professional counselors in uniform will work with the service man. If he wants to continue his education he will be given aptitude tests and helped in outlining a study program. If he wants to return to work, or enter a new type of training, he will be placed through the United States Employment Service. The USES has already made arrangements with the Navy to place discharged Naval personnel in industry.

Under Par Recruits Conditioned

The Army Air Forces convalescent training program is being extended to include the building-up of recruits who are under par physically and prepare them to meet minimum standards for military service. The first conditioning camp has been put in operation at Madison Barracks and is staffed by medical officers, physical training officers, dietitians and lecturers.

WAFS

Women are taking more and more of the limelight in this war. Here are the new requirements for assignment to the WAFS, women pilots with the Air Transport Command, who pilot light planes within the United States: Age, 21-35; high school education; 35 hours of previous flying experience; personal interview with an authorized recruiting officer; medical examination by a War flight surgeon.

The recruiter's office is at Fort Worth, Texas, where inquiries may be directed.

The WAAC Front

The War Department has just set up new regulations for officers in the WAACs. Here are the latest requirements:

1. Enrolled women who are selected from the ranks of Officer Candidate and who have completed the basic training program.
2. Women with outstanding qualifications are enrolled specifically at an officer Candidate School after completing their basic training.
3. Qualified female physicians will be commissioned directly from civilian life.
4. Women over 45 may be selected as officer candidates, and start right in at the officers' training school.

Two new radio schools have been established to meet the Signal Corps' and Air Force's calls for "more WAACs" to serve as radio operators and technicians. Through these schools, which are operated by the University of Minnesota at the Mayesite School, Hollidaysburg, Pa., and another soon to be in the United Radio-Television Institute in Newark. The courses are for six weeks.

The Merchant Marine is still holding on to its reputation as the "ragged" branch of the services.

Less Chance for Commission

Men getting into the Army in the future will have less chance of wearing bars on their shoulders. Within the next few months the Army will have 675,000 officers, it needs and the Officer Candidate Schools have already begun to slow down. Some O.C.S. schools have recently been shut down as much as 45 percent.

There will still be a chance for the man in the training camp to qualify for a commission, but the opportunities will be far fewer and the competition much heavier. Men overseas in Australia and Great Britain will still have a chance to get into the schools there. Commissions in battle will still be given, and men who show the proper qualifications in the fighting men are being made officers on the spot.

But the man who makes it over into the Army classification test can no longer consider himself in line for a second lieutenant as readily as he used to.

Would you care to have more material about the Army tests? If so, write General Bradley, c/o Civil Service Leader.
This Time, the Cops
And Firemen Must Win

NEW YORK CITY's protective forces—the cops and the firemen—are now using some intelligence in their approach to the problem of better pay. They are not wasting time. Here it is:

1. In all matters concerning adjustment of pay, these two groups have been united.

2. If all the costs have continued to go up, and the pre-war pay scales of policemen and firemen no longer suffice.

3. The men of the uniformed forces must pay for equipment, penthouses, mortgages, and everything else—all out of those same pre-war salaries.

4. Other sections of the population have fared much better, and earnings in the United States are at an all-time high. Upon the civil service employee in the middle-income group—which includes the police and firemen—falls a greater share of the burden of paying for the war than upon other sections of the population.

This is unfair. It is also unnecessary.

5. The manner in which signatures are to be solicited has been carefully and meticulously worked out by the Fire and Police Commissioner. It calls for the men to go to work himself, and the youngest of the forces present.

6. The moral of the story is that members of the forces are absorbing the work of their fellow workers who have left for the armed forces, in addition to assuming new duties. For this, the City has made no offer of additional compensation to the men.

Leaders of the two groups tried to get their pay adjusted by legislation in Albany. The attempt failed miserably.

The attempt to give the City the opportunity to give the City's employees at least what they are worth.

NECESSITY IS THE MOTHER...

So, buffered on all sides, they themselves became more inventive. They decided that if they couldn't get anything from the polit-cal system, they would institute a movement themselves.

For the police, the idea was to get Mayor LaGuardia to sign a petition. For the firemen, the idea was to get Mayor O'Dwyer.

It was understood that a clandestine candidate for NYC Mayor continues to rise in the clubhouse conversations. This City Hall is being swept up these days with couples—mostly service men and their brides—who insist that Butch himself seal the business. Butch is a furnish in this City, and the young men get sent to the proper officials.

Lawyer Paul O'Dwyer satisfies this demand by introducing William O'Dwyer's brother. Says he: "I may be a little man, but I can stand on my own feet." Anybody who has been in this City, will put that to task. In fact, some of the Democrats are now plotting to get the kind of lighting tone that would be a natural on the floor of Congress.

Behind the Scenes
Friends of Mayor La Guardia at the Supreme Court are hoisting him up in an Annapolis election clerk's chair. It would mean a big boost in salary... Members of the Executive Board of the Firemen's benevolent association have informed Mayor with full weight, will put that to task. In fact, some of the Democrats are now plotting to get the kind of lighting tone that would be a natural on the floor of Congress.

Sirs: Three fellows below copy of an open letter which we sent to Father Commissioner Walsh. Our City's best time when the clerks got the noble salary of $300 per year a week. This brings to mind that we should say Nice try, but nothing beating off the total number of votes cast altogether (including those who voted for candidates other than the ones you have listed). Harnedy has won by a plurality of 58 votes. It would have been a bigger win.

We don't lose sight of the fact that Harnedy doesn't get his vote for the presidency of the Patrolmen's Benevolent Association. He is a member of the organization, and I don't think he expects to be elected. He has been a member of the board of directors for several years, and he is well respected by the membership.

J. B. McLaughlin, Supreme Executive Director of the Patrolmen's Benevolent Association, said that Harnedy was not a candidate for the presidency, but that he supported him in the election.

Wanna Start Sergeant Eligibilities Association?

If you are interested in starting a Sergeant Eligibilities Association, you may want to consider the following:

1. Start with a group of interested officers.
2. Meet with the lieutenant in charge of the precinct where you are interested.
3. Provide a list of your members and their contact information.
4. Get the support of the precinct captain.
5. Contact the Patrolmen's Benevolent Association for guidance.

In addition, the following write-in candidates were for the presidency of the Patrolmen's Benevolent Association:

- Candidate A
- Candidate B
- Candidate C

Listen to a Rookie

The letter we ran last week didn't get very much attention. The rookie who wrote it was delighted with the results. The rookie is a young man who is just beginning his career with the department.

"I'm a rookie and I feel that the organization is doing a fine job. The administration is doing a good job. The officers are doing a good job. The city is doing a good job."

"I think that the organization is doing a good job. The administration is doing a good job. The officers are doing a good job. The city is doing a good job."

Unfortunately, the rookie letter was too short to include in this issue. We will include it in the next issue.

Winner
Take All!

There is one stark and simple fact about war which you had better get straight...and quickly, too.

THERE IS NO SECOND PLACE IN A WAR—IT'S EITHER WIN OR LOSE!

This war is being fought for tremendous stakes...
... for your life and your liberty.
... for your church and your children.
... for your freedom and your future.

And it's WINNER TAKE ALL. Don't forget that for a minute.

The winner will dictate whether tomorrow you shall be a free citizen of a free world, or a helpless serf to a "master race."

The winner will dictate whether you shall live and prosper under the Four Freedoms, or toil hopelessly in the darkness of a "New Order."

The winner will dictate... because the winner takes all.

The winner takes all. All you own, all you hold dear.

The winner is being decided right now... today...

The weight of mighty tanks and planes. The weight of billions of dollars... 13 billions which your country asks you to lend during this Drive.

The winner is being decided right now... today...

This war is being fought for tremendous stakes ...

This war is being fought for the freedom of nations: $500, $1000, $5000, $10,000, $50,000, and $100,000. Redemptions anytime 30 days after issue date. Price: 75% of maturity value.

2½% Treasury Bonds of 1964-1968: Handsomely marketable, acceptable as bank collateral, these Bonds are ideal investments for trust funds, estates and individuals. WELFARE NEWS

Investigators?

Latest report around is that City Welfare Department has asked the State Welfare Department for permission to assign the special investigators to clerical work.

What's happened so far? Originally, there was a big filling notice, and when an investigator wanted any papers, he'd send a slip down and get what was needed.

When the war reduced the number of clerks, the department got the idea of breaking up the main files and giving each section a little file of its own. Now, with the investigator sitting practically on top of the files, there wouldn't be any need for lots of clerks hanging around. So, the investigators have to spend their own time looking through cabinets and files, and naturally this doesn't leave them as much time for their investigating.

They're pretty much burned up at the idea of spending their days in filing cards.

If the State Welfare Department OK's the procedure, they'll have to like it.

About Holidays

Welfare is one of the very few departments in the City which is permitting employees who take the holidays off. Practically every other City office gives employees their religious holidays with pay. That's what a City Council resolution provides for. But in Welfare, the holiday is anticipated from the annual vacation time.

LEGAL NOTICE

DEPARTMENT OF THE CITY OF NEW YORK, by the Clerk of the Supreme Court of the City of New York, to the people of the City of New York, and to every person interested in the estate of WILLIAM ZUCKER, deceased, who at the time of his death was a resident of 5 Prospect Place, in the borough of Manhattan, in the city of New York, on the first day of June, 1919, in the State of New York, Hall of Records, in the County of New York, is a copartnership, composed of CHARLES ZUCKER, JERRY ZUCKER and MARIA ZUCKER, both residents of Czecho-Slovakia.

In this proceeding, Branting leave to the beneficiaries and why the account of proceedings, they'll be taking out of the budget, on a temporary basis. Meanwhile the Commissioner Edward Rhatigan seems to be taking over most of the important be the simple matter of raising the minimum for nurses. The Budget Director's office hasn't made any funds available to appoint the new firefighters. The Fire Department can't say how soon it will have any point of those on the list. It doesn't decide it's liable to have to call up any of the cadets before the end of World War II.

The Civil Service Commission received through the investigation of these men and turned the list over to the Fire Department.

If the draft problem were to lead, Men who are liable to be drafted aren't especially in danger of drafting the fire house.

If You're On a Diet

The Budget Director's office has been given the opportunity to allocate their share of the proceeds in the Civil Service Exam.

A $1,500 minimum for nurses is proposed.

For Better Pay

With the coming of spring, the Fire Department has taken the examination for other firm of similar name in New York.

The Circus, which runs at Madison Square Garden, opens May 25th. Among the acts to be seen are the Golden Globe Quartet as well as other notable performers.

The best of the new, directed by John Larabee, has taken many short cuts this season. "Hold Your Horses" parade is a policy we're going to continue. New York newspaper critics have gone overboard for it.

Racing: The racing season at Jamaica is scheduled to close May 8. The attendance this year was greater than last.

New Jersey's Palisades Park is inaugurating the new season with a variety of attractions. The usual amusement facilities will be in full swing and no price increases will be required.
