SAC LOOKS UP; JOBS, ORDERS, RISE

While other departments in the Schwab's plant are down in the dumps, there is a glimmer of hope in the SAC Department, where the workload continues to rise. This week before last, the order rate for Building 85 went to 8000 orders. This was due in part to the building having been closed for 10 days last winter. The building had been running at 8000 orders a week. But, the increase in orders has been spread evenly in 8000 orders a week.

The order rate is now 8500. This is due to the building being closed for 10 days last winter. The building has been running at 8500 orders a week. The order rate has been spread evenly in 8500 orders a week.

The order rate is now 8500. This is due to the building being closed for 10 days last winter. The building has been running at 8500 orders a week. The order rate has been spread evenly in 8500 orders a week.

The order rate is now 8500. This is due to the building being closed for 10 days last winter. The building has been running at 8500 orders a week. The order rate has been spread evenly in 8500 orders a week.

The order rate is now 8500. This is due to the building being closed for 10 days last winter. The building has been running at 8500 orders a week. The order rate has been spread evenly in 8500 orders a week.

The order rate is now 8500. This is due to the building being closed for 10 days last winter. The building has been running at 8500 orders a week. The order rate has been spread evenly in 8500 orders a week.

The order rate is now 8500. This is due to the building being closed for 10 days last winter. The building has been running at 8500 orders a week. The order rate has been spread evenly in 8500 orders a week.

The order rate is now 8500. This is due to the building being closed for 10 days last winter. The building has been running at 8500 orders a week. The order rate has been spread evenly in 8500 orders a week.

The order rate is now 8500. This is due to the building being closed for 10 days last winter. The building has been running at 8500 orders a week. The order rate has been spread evenly in 8500 orders a week.