Six More Shop Committeemen Take Oath of Office at Union Hall

Electrician News

May 29, 1947

Six More Shop Committeemen Take Oath of Office at Union Hall

George Walker, guide, with back to camera, sworn in as Shop Committeeman, is joined by W. H. Boyd, T. H. Taylor, R. E. Van Arnum, and R. E. Drennan. (Bldg. 64, Cc 47, Cc 48, Cc 49, Cc 50, Cc 55, Cc 58, Cc 59, Cc 60.)

Timing Rate Case Sent to Howell

Local 411 also was sent to Works Manager J. M. Howell to find out when the contract provision under which the shop rates were based upon four machines per hour (3000 hours) would go into effect. The contract provision was from 4 to 4 1/2 cents on each additional hour. It was to be paid in 1948.

The provision reads: "No overtime pay will be available for the balance of the established shop rate plan for insuring work." A member of the committee who found that his department's old contract clause, from 3 to 4 cents below the current rates, has been approved by the company, was notified by W. H. Boyd, T. H. Taylor, R. E. Van Arnum, and R. E. Drennan.

672 New Members Join Racket

Consent of executive secretary to the new contract was also secured by the local. The new contract was signed by W. H. Boyd, T. H. Taylor, R. E. Van Arnum, and R. E. Drennan.

672 New Members Join Racket

Willis Stewart, chairman of the Organizing Committee, reported that 672 new members enrolled at Local 411 during the month of May. Stewart asked for the authorization of the executive committee to order the new members to present themselves at the shop for the purpose of organizing.

3rd Shift Group Asks Quick Action

A group of over 100 3rd shift workers met at a meeting in the 3rd shift building to discuss the situation at the plant. The group asked the company to take immediate action on the grievances of the 3rd shift workers, including five days of rest per week.

IL & AU Strike - 3rd Shift workers met to discuss the situation at the plant. The group asked the company to take immediate action on the grievances of the 3rd shift workers, including five days of rest per week.

Denounces Anti-Labor Bill

The Local 411 Council, of the American Federation of Labor, presented a resolution to the Amalgamated Association of Iron and Steel Workers, denouncing the Anti-Labor Bill (H.R. 1494) as being in violation of American principles of labor-management agreements. The resolution was adopted unanimously.

Ask Truman Veto Taft-Hartley Bill

Labor Department Names Conciliator To UE-GE Dispute

BULLETIN: About 366 workers in Bldg. 41 left their jobs at 3 p.m. Wednesday (as this week's issue of UE News went to press). The stoppage was in protest against 366 workers who frequently refuse to arbitrate grievances. Only five six people stayed in the shop. They were offered overtime, free shifts, and a job at a higher rate.

IL & AU Strike - About 366 workers in Bldg. 41 left their jobs at 3 p.m. Wednesday (as this week's issue of UE News went to press). The stoppage was in protest against 366 workers who frequently refuse to arbitrate grievances. Only five six people stayed in the shop. They were offered overtime, free shifts, and a job at a higher rate.

Money for Strikers

The UE-GE membership met on May 31 voted a $200 donation for the UE-GE workers on strike against J. R. Reynolds Tobacco Co. in Winston-Salem, N. C. The funds were raised through a special meeting of the members and the proceeds were turned over to the UE-GE workers on strike.

Man Without a Union

The United Mine Workers, CIO, has refused to make any contract with the 366 workers who have been on strike against J. R. Reynolds Tobacco Co. in Winston-Salem, N. C. The company has not offered to make any contract with the 366 workers who have been on strike against J. R. Reynolds Tobacco Co. in Winston-Salem, N. C. The company has not offered to make any contract.

Copies of Contract for All

The UE-GE membership met on May 31 and voted to distribute 300 copies of the GE contract, in order to have a supply available for all members who wish to take advantage of the contract.

Reynolds is III

George Reynolds, second shift steward in Bldg. 41, will serve on May 23rd at 2 p.m. He will be at the office.

Deadline Near, Write Kearney, Ives and Taylor

Only a few days are left in which to see President Truman in person. The leaders of the Taft-Hartley Bill are expected to meet with President Truman and the Senate leadership. The bill may be decided by a floor vote in the House of Representatives.

Deadline Near, Write Kearney, Ives and Taylor

Only a few days are left in which to see President Truman in person. The leaders of the Taft-Hartley Bill are expected to meet with President Truman and the Senate leadership. The bill may be decided by a floor vote in the House of Representatives.
Members Approve Changes in Constitution; Simplify System of Nominating 301 Officers

Several changes to the Local 301 constitution recommended by the Constitution Committee were voted by the combined membership and stewards meeting May 28.

Important alterations were made in rules for nominating officers and in sections covering shop stewards, in addition to changes in various other parts of the constitution.

Nominations for officers will be made from the floor of the November membership meeting and will not be limited to members. The old provision was that nominations be made at a constitution meeting in November and submitted to a membership meeting that month for approval or change. Nominations will be held by signed roll of their nomination and voted on at the meeting.

Members of the local with at least five years' attendance will be elected from the floor at the December general membership meeting to elect the officers.

These changes to simplify the election machinery follow the CB model constitution for locals, the Constitution Committee pointed out. The constitution includes Edward Wallington, chairman; Richard Brown, secretary; Frank Bonomi, George Walker and Roy Lash, acting in consultation with Leo Landers, bargaining agent.

It's Officially "Shop Steward" Now.

"Shop representative" and "shop representative" are out-of-date terms now. The Constitution Committee is now authorized to use the title "shop steward" for the official.

The new title is intended to provide that any shop steward who is absent in excess of general meetings of shop stewards will be automatically discharged as a steward, unless excused by vote of the executive board.

Statements to the Press

In connection with members' dissatisfaction in the matter of the press, the constitution states: "If any member or members make statements through the press affecting other members, he or she shall be subjected to discipline by the executive board, in accordance with the constitution provisions of the CEU branch.

Statements to the Press

In connection with members' dissatisfaction in the matter of the press, the constitution states: "If any member or members make statements through the press affecting other members, he or she shall be subjected to discipline by the executive board, in accordance with the constitution provisions of the CEU branch.

Scripner Will Speak at Yeto Day Meeting

As part of the state CIO Yeto Day activities a draftee meeting of CIO members will take place at 9 a.m. at the union hall, 130 E. 11th St. to urge President Truman to veto the Taft-Hartley Act.

Principal speakers will be Dr. David Boulding, general counsel; the international president of the Transportation Workers Union of America, and Leon Pancoast, general president of the American Federation of Labor and Congress of Industrial Organizations.

At the Yeto Day meeting the assembly will be organized by the CIO coordinating committee and the political director of the CIO.

A joint CIO-AFL protest meeting against the Taft-Hartley Act is scheduled for 7 p.m. Tuesday at the Berkeley Hotel.

Community Group to Hear Facts in Union-GE Dispute

Local 601 has invited a group of industrial managers, professional people, shop stewards and civic leaders to a meeting at 7 p.m. Monday in the union hall, 10 W. 11th St., to discuss the charges by the union.

Labor Department Names Conciliator

How to Kill Unions

Here are a few of the worst features of the Taft-Hartley Act. It prohibits the closed shop. It makes it difficult for a union to win an election for maintenance of membership, or even for any form of union security. It makes it easy for employers to break up unions during bargaining drives. It makes employers tell employees what union they should join, and even in some cases to prevent unionism.

The Taft-Hartley Act is a series of schemes designed to break up unions.

GE Found Unfair

To UE Strikers

A National Labor Relations Board trial examiner has found the General Electric Co. guilty of unfair labor practices in discriminating against workers who took part in the 1947 strike. A guarantee against discrimination was one of the conditions on which the strike was settled.

In spite of this agreement, GE has instituted suits against the strikers from the service records of the returned employees. This deprived the strikers of all security rights and affected pensions, vacations and other matters. GE employs about 150000 workers who were on strike nine months last year.

The decision of Indiana Supreme Court examiner, subject to approval by the NLRB, is important because of the issues involved in the case. It affects the security rights and financial status of the workers who were on strike.

John Boyle Suspended

A suspension was recommended by state shop steward John Boyle, 105 W. 11th St., to the executive board.

How to Kill Unions

Here are a few of the worst features of the Taft-Hartley Act. It prohibits the closed shop. It makes it difficult for a union to win an election for maintenance of membership, or even for any form of union security. It makes it easy for employers to break up unions during bargaining drives. It makes employers tell employees what union they should join, and even in some cases to prevent unionism.

The Taft-Hartley Act is a series of schemes designed to break up unions.

GE Found Unfair

To UE Strikers

A National Labor Relations Board trial examiner has found the General Electric Co. guilty of unfair labor practices in discriminating against workers who took part in the 1947 strike. A guarantee against discrimination was one of the conditions on which the strike was settled.

In spite of this agreement, GE has instituted suits against the strikers from the service records of the returned employees. This deprived the strikers of all security rights and affected pensions, vacations and other matters. GE employs about 150000 workers who were on strike nine months last year.

The decision of Indiana Supreme Court examiner, subject to approval by the NLRB, is important because of the issues involved in the case. It affects the security rights and financial status of the workers who were on strike.

John Boyle Suspended

A suspension was recommended by state shop steward John Boyle, 105 W. 11th St., to the executive board.

How to Kill Unions

Here are a few of the worst features of the Taft-Hartley Act. It prohibits the closed shop. It makes it difficult for a union to win an election for maintenance of membership, or even for any form of union security. It makes it easy for employers to break up unions during bargaining drives. It makes employers tell employees what union they should join, and even in some cases to prevent unionism.

The Taft-Hartley Act is a series of schemes designed to break up unions.

GE Found Unfair

To UE Strikers

A National Labor Relations Board trial examiner has found the General Electric Co. guilty of unfair labor practices in discriminating against workers who took part in the 1947 strike. A guarantee against discrimination was one of the conditions on which the strike was settled.

In spite of this agreement, GE has instituted suits against the strikers from the service records of the returned employees. This deprived the strikers of all security rights and affected pensions, vacations and other matters. GE employs about 150000 workers who were on strike nine months last year.

The decision of Indiana Supreme Court examiner, subject to approval by the NLRB, is important because of the issues involved in the case. It affects the security rights and financial status of the workers who were on strike.

John Boyle Suspended

A suspension was recommended by state shop steward John Boyle, 105 W. 11th St., to the executive board.

How to Kill Unions

Here are a few of the worst features of the Taft-Hartley Act. It prohibits the closed shop. It makes it difficult for a union to win an election for maintenance of membership, or even for any form of union security. It makes it easy for employers to break up unions during bargaining drives. It makes employers tell employees what union they should join, and even in some cases to prevent unionism.

The Taft-Hartley Act is a series of schemes designed to break up unions.

GE Found Unfair

To UE Strikers

A National Labor Relations Board trial examiner has found the General Electric Co. guilty of unfair labor practices in discriminating against workers who took part in the 1947 strike. A guarantee against discrimination was one of the conditions on which the strike was settled.

In spite of this agreement, GE has instituted suits against the strikers from the service records of the returned employees. This deprived the strikers of all security rights and affected pensions, vacations and other matters. GE employs about 150000 workers who were on strike nine months last year.

The decision of Indiana Supreme Court examiner, subject to approval by the NLRB, is important because of the issues involved in the case. It affects the security rights and financial status of the workers who were on strike.

John Boyle Suspended

A suspension was recommended by state shop steward John Boyle, 105 W. 11th St., to the executive board.

How to Kill Unions

Here are a few of the worst features of the Taft-Hartley Act. It prohibits the closed shop. It makes it difficult for a union to win an election for maintenance of membership, or even for any form of union security. It makes it easy for employers to break up unions during bargaining drives. It makes employers tell employees what union they should join, and even in some cases to prevent unionism.

The Taft-Hartley Act is a series of schemes designed to break up unions.

GE Found Unfair

To UE Strikers

A National Labor Relations Board trial examiner has found the General Electric Co. guilty of unfair labor practices in discriminating against workers who took part in the 1947 strike. A guarantee against discrimination was one of the conditions on which the strike was settled.

In spite of this agreement, GE has instituted suits against the strikers from the service records of the returned employees. This deprived the strikers of all security rights and affected pensions, vacations and other matters. GE employs about 150000 workers who were on strike nine months last year.

The decision of Indiana Supreme Court examiner, subject to approval by the NLRB, is important because of the issues involved in the case. It affects the security rights and financial status of the workers who were on strike.