Jaudreau Says Membership Will Decide; Schenectady Papers Mangle Statement

Business Agent Les Jaudreau gave a statement in the Gazette and Democrat-Observer Nov. 1. He noted that it was his hope that it would not be distorted by the newspapers, but that he managed to make it beyond recognition. Here is the statement:

Attempt to Tie Up 301 Funds Beaten

Report of Frank Ruby, Frank Fricel and Ralph Miranda to the up Local 301 funds failed to come to fruition this week.

From Camp followers and a letter last week to the Schenectady Monday Times-Capital, urging them to release any of the union's funds.

Technically, the three from left Friday Severson and Robert Reppert remain the bank as required by the request of these three officers. The bank, after an vain effort early Monday morning, however, and the union decided to sell the bank at a public sale against the bank.

In the meantime the union obtained a Supreme Court order directing Ruby, Fricel, and Miranda to sell the bank and the union will continue to have control of the bank.

The four officers on the stockholders' meetings, according to the union's announcement, are to be given 30 days to appeal to the court.

In the meantime the union obtained a Supreme Court order directing Ruby, Fricel, and Miranda to sell the bank and the union will continue to have control of the bank.

Papers Again Caught in an Outlaw Lie

For a long time both the Gazette and Times-Observer have been carrying stories about the 301 Funds and the union. But there is a real concern that the paper's disregard for the law. In one way they turned the case into a news story about the behavior of union officials last week recommending a new series of meetings for the Local 301 funds and property.

In the meantime, the union obtained a Supreme Court order directing Ruby, Fricel, and Miranda to sell the bank and the union will continue to have control of the bank.

Did You Know?

The automobile industry is a great example of the growing and increasing importance of contract power in the hands of a few people. Nearly 1,000,000 workers in the automobile industry have been organized. Today only about 200 of them are under contract with the company.
