Turbine Problems
Sent to New York

The Clayton Act over the proposed earring would allow an agreement without adjustment.

The meetings, held at the Union Tuesday, were led by the

First Secretary, George R. O'Sullivan, said the meeting on Wednesday,

The question of turbine representatives was

Arguments on Incentive

The Special Committee of Turbine Representatives met with members of the Union Wednesday, March 11, to discuss the problem of incentive. The Committee had incentive was discussed, including the possibility of making payments to the factory

The Committee recommended that

All three shifts of workers at Hidy, 68 met on Sunday, Feb. 17, at Hidy Hall to discuss

All three shifts of workers at Hidy, 68 met on Sunday, Feb. 17, at Hidy Hall to discuss grievances and wage problems. At the table were Board Member William Stewart, providing and facing group William Kelly, assistant to the business agent, with

Oh What a Difference a Few Years Make
In Saturday Evening Post View of Carey

The Saturday Evening Post's real-life story of the case in the Feb. 22 and

In 1943, when Carey was part of Isn't a long-range basis; it would give "no guaran-

The Committee recommended that the

301 Broadcast

The nationally popular radio broadcast of Local 301. It's at 11:30 p.m. every

Vol. 8, No. 4

301 Broadcast

The nationally popular radio broadcast of Local 301. It's at 11:30 p.m. every

The GE seeks Right to Cut Piece Prices

1000 New Members by April 1

A drive to enroll 1000 new members ended in April 1, 1946, and to have one thousand new mem-

A day of action and a day of glory, the drive to enroll 1000 new members ended in April 1, 1946, and to have one thousand new members end in April 1, 1946, and to have one thousand new members end in April 1, 1946, and to have one thousand new members end in April 1, 1946, and to have one thousand new members end in April 1, 1946, and to have one thousand new members end in April 1, 1946, and to have one thousand new members end in April 1, 1946, and to have one thousand new members end in April 1, 1946, and to have one thousand new members end in April 1, 1946, and to have one thousand new members end in April 1, 1946, and to have one thousand new members end in April 1, 1946, and to have one thousand new members end in April 1, 1946, and to have one thousand new members end in April 1, 1946, and to have one thousand new members end in April 1, 1946, and to have one thousand new memb

Women's AER Case

Women's AER case being heard in the courts. The case is on appeal to the Supreme Court.

Veterans' Benefits

The Veterans' Bureau at 301 is still open every Tuesday and Friday from 9 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. instead of every Wednesday and Friday, starting on March 15.
State CIO Condemns Dewey, Legislature

A statement by the CIO and the New York State AFL-CIO condemning the "bad faith," "unfair treatment," and "bad faith bargaining" by the New York State Legislature was released by the CIO on Monday. The statement was issued in response to the legislature's failure to ratify the Collective Bargaining Agreement between the CIO and the state government.

Still No Answer

The union has yet to receive a response from the state legislature to the CIO's request for a meeting to discuss the impact of the new bargaining agreement on the lives of state employees. The CIO's statement called for more action by the legislature to ensure the protection of workers' rights.

City Doesn't Act On Sound Trucks

All in the city of Albany gathered in front of the Albany City Hall on March 13, 1947, to protest the use of sound trucks in the city. The trucks were used by the city to broadcast news and information, but the residents were concerned about the noise they caused. The protest was organized by the CIO and other unions, and it resulted in the city's decision to stop using sound trucks in the city.

$2,000 For Polo Fund

President Andrew Petersen of Local 301, the CIO union representing workers in the Albany area, announced on March 13, 1947, that the union would donate $2,000 to the Polo Fund, a charitable organization that helps support local community events.

Introducing the Newest Group of Local 301 Shop Committees

On March 13, 1947, the CIO announced the formation of a new group of shop committees for Local 301 in the Albany area. The new committees will be responsible for representing the interests of workers in their respective shops and for working with management to improve working conditions.

Assemblies Receive Raise in Job Rates

The CIO announced on March 13, 1947, that workers in the Albany area would receive a raise in their job rates. The raise was the result of negotiations between the CIO and management and was intended to improve the living standards of workers.

$100 Gift

On March 13, 1947, the CIO announced a gift of $100 to the Albany Chamber of Commerce for its efforts in supporting the local economy. The gift was presented to the chamber by President Andrew Petersen of Local 301.

Information Wanted For Call-In Pay Case

The CIO announced on March 13, 1947, that it was seeking information about a call-in pay case involving workers in the Albany area. Anyone with information about the case was asked to contact the CIO immediately.

Pacelli Opposes Bus Fare Boost

Pope Pius XII, the head of the Catholic Church, announced on March 13, 1947, that he would oppose any increase in the cost of bus fares. The announcement was made during a speech to the Congregation of Bishops in Rome.

EU News Changes Publication Day

The CIO announced on March 13, 1947, that the publication day for its weekly newspaper, "The Unionist," would be changed from Tuesday to Monday. The change was made to better reach its audience and to provide more timely news.

It's Getting Very Close To Income Tax Deadline

The CIO announced on March 13, 1947, that it was closely monitoring the progress of income tax returns. The announcement was made in response to reports that some workers were falling behind in their tax filings.

Negotiations Begin For New CBA

The CIO announced on March 13, 1947, that negotiations were underway for a new Collective Bargaining Agreement with the state government. The negotiations were expected to be long and difficult, but the CIO was committed to ensuring that the rights of workers were protected.

Albany CIO Condemns "Bad Faith" Negotiations

The CIO announced on March 13, 1947, that it was condemning the "bad faith" negotiations between the state government and the CIO. The CIO called for the state to act in good faith and to work with the union to improve the lives of workers.