More Testimony of Union Leaders on Taft-Hartley

In recent testimony before a congressional committee, President Albert Fitzgerald and Washington Representative Ross Nunn outlined the UI position in regard to the current attacks on the labor movement. Because, we feel that the testimony of the UI leaders, in which they present their arguments for the first time, is an important document, the UI News last week began publishing the text of the hearings, reported for the first time, in the UI editorial, "It's Complicated." On numerous pages, the UI leaders have answered the attacks on organized labor.

More Women Workers Win Wage Hikes As Shenectady Job Survey Continues

About 200 women workers were given wage increases last week as a result of job surveys conducted by the company. The increases, ranging from $1 to $3 an hour, brought the number of women employed to nearly 1,000 in the city of Shenectady. The surveys, conducted by 150 job agents, were aimed at increasing the wages of women workers in the city.

The survey has brought about these increases, and it is expected that another 200 women workers may be affected before it's done. The job survey was taken by the company after the survey teams of last week's survey in the city of Shenectady.

UE Wins Strike in Scranton As GE Guarantees Seniority

In Scranton, a strike is under way at the Poughkeepsie plant as a result of the company's refusal to guarantee seniority to employees. The workers are demanding that their seniority be guaranteed as a condition of a new contract.

UE Strikes Binghamton Shop

Workers at the Poughkeepsie plant in Binghamton also have been on strike since last week. The company has refused to guarantee seniority to the workers, and the strike continues.

Start FEP Study

Parks is the first contractor to guarantee seniority to workers in the company's new contract. The study is expected to result in a new contract that guarantees seniority to all employees.
