All that honest labor is due to America. No line can be drawn between these two. If any man pities and you love America, yet hate labor, he is a liar. If any man tells you that he trusts a man without labor, and to divorce the city is to rob the other. — ABRAHAM LINCOLN.
President's Seven-Point Program Sabotaged

(From LOCATED NEWS by Lee McEwan)

Some months ago a national committee of UMW officials publicly sold the daily paper to public the advantages of their candidate and the advantages of the miners' cooperative program. They have been successful in their efforts to promote public interest and enthusiasm in the cooperative program. They have carried this program into the fields and have made a large number of speeches throughout the state. In Appreciation of Our Union Committee

We want to bring a little about our union and the work of our union committee. Our union committee has been very active in promoting the cooperative program throughout the state. They have made a number of speeches and have distributed literature throughout the state. The miners have been very successful in their efforts to promote public interest and enthusiasm in the cooperative program.

The miner to whom the benefit of a cooperative program is really going to mean the difference between success and failure will have the opportunity to outline his program and to explain his ideas to the public.

Lately, I have been reading a lot of books about labor and the working class. One of the things that I have noticed is that the working class is facing a lot of challenges. The unions are struggling to maintain their members and to organize new members. The companies are using various tactics to undermine the power of the unions.

One of our Union members—Mr. K. from our headquarters—wrote me a letter recently. He explained that the company has been using a variety of tactics to undermine the power of the union. He said that the company has been using a tactic called the "economic warfare." This tactic involves the company trying to reduce the quality and the quantity of the work that the members are performing.

The company is also trying to reduce the number of union members by making it difficult for new members to enroll.

Have You Contributed Your 10% This Week?

Our local union committee has been very active in promoting our membership drive. We have been using a variety of tactics to encourage our members to contribute 10% of their wages to the union. The union is facing a lot of challenges, and we need the support of our members to continue our work.
