to modify or change a decision of a department manager, the General Electric Conference Board. The decision of the panel was final, and the parties were bound to accept it. The panel consisted of three managers, and all decisions were made by a majority vote.

AMENDMENT NO. 5—(Forest Preserve)
A "vote" would—(1) Require the State to continue to designate all forest preserves placed on forever wild lands—(2) Leave the administration of the forest policy of the state to the State Conservation Board.

AMENDMENT NO. 6—(Forest Preserve)
A "vote" would require the State to purchase for the people of the state all forest preserves placed on forever wild lands—(2) Leave the administration of the forest policy of the state to the State Conservation Board.

AMENDMENT NO. 7—(Railroad)
A "vote" would—(1) Require the State to purchase all railroads in the state and place them in public ownership—(2) Leave the administration of the railroad policy of the state to the State Railroad Commission.

AMENDMENT NO. 8—(Labor Relations)
A "vote" would—(1) Require the State to purchase all labor relations in the state and place them in public ownership—(2) Leave the administration of the labor relations policy of the state to the State Labor Relations Board.

AMENDMENT NO. 9—(Schools)
A "vote" would—(1) Require the State to purchase all schools in the state and place them in public ownership—(2) Leave the administration of the school policy of the state to the State School Board.

AMENDMENT NO. 10—(Health Care)
A "vote" would—(1) Require the State to purchase all health care in the state and place it in public ownership—(2) Leave the administration of the health care policy of the state to the State Health Care Board.

AMENDMENT NO. 11—(Transportation)
A "vote" would—(1) Require the State to purchase all transportation in the state and place it in public ownership—(2) Leave the administration of the transportation policy of the state to the State Transportation Board.

AMENDMENT NO. 12—(Water)
A "vote" would—(1) Require the State to purchase all water in the state and place it in public ownership—(2) Leave the administration of the water policy of the state to the State Water Board.

AMENDMENT NO. 13—(Energy)
A "vote" would—(1) Require the State to purchase all energy in the state and place it in public ownership—(2) Leave the administration of the energy policy of the state to the State Energy Board.

AMENDMENT NO. 14—(Miscellaneous)
A "vote" would—(1) Require the State to purchase all miscellaneous in the state and place it in public ownership—(2) Leave the administration of the miscellaneous policy of the state to the State Miscellaneous Board.

AMENDMENT NO. 15—(Financial)
A "vote" would—(1) Require the State to purchase all financial in the state and place it in public ownership—(2) Leave the administration of the financial policy of the state to the State Financial Board.

AMENDMENT NO. 16—(Communications)
A "vote" would—(1) Require the State to purchase all communications in the state and place it in public ownership—(2) Leave the administration of the communications policy of the state to the State Communications Board.

AMENDMENT NO. 17—(Public Affairs)
A "vote" would—(1) Require the State to purchase all public affairs in the state and place it in public ownership—(2) Leave the administration of the public affairs policy of the state to the State Public Affairs Board.

AMENDMENT NO. 18—(Public Health)
A "vote" would—(1) Require the State to purchase all public health in the state and place it in public ownership—(2) Leave the administration of the public health policy of the state to the State Public Health Board.

AMENDMENT NO. 19—(Public Safety)
A "vote" would—(1) Require the State to purchase all public safety in the state and place it in public ownership—(2) Leave the administration of the public safety policy of the state to the State Public Safety Board.

AMENDMENT NO. 20—(Public Welfare)
A "vote" would—(1) Require the State to purchase all public welfare in the state and place it in public ownership—(2) Leave the administration of the public welfare policy of the state to the State Public Welfare Board.

AMENDMENT NO. 21—(Public Works)
A "vote" would—(1) Require the State to purchase all public works in the state and place it in public ownership—(2) Leave the administration of the public works policy of the state to the State Public Works Board.

AMENDMENT NO. 22—(Public Utilities)
A "vote" would—(1) Require the State to purchase all public utilities in the state and place it in public ownership—(2) Leave the administration of the public utilities policy of the state to the State Public Utilities Board.

AMENDMENT NO. 23—(Public Education)
A "vote" would—(1) Require the State to purchase all public education in the state and place it in public ownership—(2) Leave the administration of the public education policy of the state to the State Public Education Board.
Report of Constitution Committee

The Constitution Committee of the UAW Local 581 will make a report at the November Membership Meeting on recommendations of the Constitution Committee in UAW Local 581. The members of the Constitution Committee are: William Kelly, Chairman; Carl V. Ewing, Secretary; James D. Page, Assistant Secretary; B. I. Ripley, Business Agent; J. W. Kilpatrick, Business Agent; and Richard C. Smith, Business Agent.

ARTICLE XV

Section A. (Proposed)—If Section 8 of this Constitution be changed, it shall be changed by a vote of the membership at a regular meeting, and the Constitution Committee shall have the power to make any changes necessary to make the Constitution conform to the requirements of the International Union.

Section B. (Proposed)—If Section 9 of this Constitution be changed, it shall be changed by a vote of the membership at a regular meeting, and the Constitution Committee shall have the power to make any changes necessary to make the Constitution conform to the requirements of the International Union.

ARTICLE XVI

Section A. (Proposed)—The Constitution Committee shall have the power to make any changes necessary to make the Constitution conform to the requirements of the International Union.

Section B. (Proposed)—The Constitution Committee shall have the power to make any changes necessary to make the Constitution conform to the requirements of the International Union.

ARTICLE XVII

Section A. (Proposed)—If Article 2 of this Constitution be changed, it shall be changed by a vote of the membership at a regular meeting, and the Constitution Committee shall have the power to make any changes necessary to make the Constitution conform to the requirements of the International Union.

Section B. (Proposed)—If Article 3 of this Constitution be changed, it shall be changed by a vote of the membership at a regular meeting, and the Constitution Committee shall have the power to make any changes necessary to make the Constitution conform to the requirements of the International Union.

ARTICLE XVIII

Section A. (Proposed)—If Article 4 of this Constitution be changed, it shall be changed by a vote of the membership at a regular meeting, and the Constitution Committee shall have the power to make any changes necessary to make the Constitution conform to the requirements of the International Union.

Section B. (Proposed)—If Article 5 of this Constitution be changed, it shall be changed by a vote of the membership at a regular meeting, and the Constitution Committee shall have the power to make any changes necessary to make the Constitution conform to the requirements of the International Union.

ARTICLE XIX

Section A. (Proposed)—If Article 6 of this Constitution be changed, it shall be changed by a vote of the membership at a regular meeting, and the Constitution Committee shall have the power to make any changes necessary to make the Constitution conform to the requirements of the International Union.

Section B. (Proposed)—If Article 7 of this Constitution be changed, it shall be changed by a vote of the membership at a regular meeting, and the Constitution Committee shall have the power to make any changes necessary to make the Constitution conform to the requirements of the International Union.

ARTICLE XX

Section A. (Proposed)—If Article 8 of this Constitution be changed, it shall be changed by a vote of the membership at a regular meeting, and the Constitution Committee shall have the power to make any changes necessary to make the Constitution conform to the requirements of the International Union.

Section B. (Proposed)—If Article 9 of this Constitution be changed, it shall be changed by a vote of the membership at a regular meeting, and the Constitution Committee shall have the power to make any changes necessary to make the Constitution conform to the requirements of the International Union.