Local Dues Payments Pass 6,000 Mark

Collection is Heaviest On Monday

Payment of April dues passed the 6,000 mark early this week.

The largest single day's collection ever made by the UUE-61 shop steward was made Friday, following the first pay day of the month at the local. The money was dropped off Tuesday.

Shop stewards reported that because of better expense control among the members and the shop, the dues collected have been increasing each week.

UE-301 Expels

Edward Cassidy

Edward Cassidy, the UE-301 president, announced that the union has expelled an unknown number of its members. The union has also expelled a number of other unions from the area.

The union's decision to expel these unions was based on their refusal to recognize the UE as the bargaining agent for the workers. The UE has been trying to negotiate a contract with the company for several months, but the company has refused to meet with the union.

AER Increases Wages

On 3 Machines

The company announced an increase in wages for all employees on the 3 machines where the strike has been ongoing. The increase is effective retroactive to May 1.

The company said the increase is being made to recognize the workers' contributions to the company's success. The workers have been working long hours and under difficult conditions, and the company wants to show its appreciation for their efforts.
