A Tribute to the Memory of President F. D. Roosevelt

On Sunday, the American people will mark the eightieth anniversary of the death of Franklin D. Roosevelt. When death came to the hero of American democracy on April 12, 1945, the world was plunged into mourning. The news of his passing was reported by radio and newspapers around the globe, and a moment of silence was observed at noon in every city and town across the nation. The American people knew they had lost a true leader, a man who had dedicated his life to the betterment of his country and the world.

FRANKLIN DELANO ROOSEVELT
1882-1945

-ELECTRICAL UNION NEWS-

-VOICE OF THE ELECTRICAL, RADIO & MACHINE WORKERS OF AMERICA-LOCAL 317-

ELECTRICAL UNION NEWS

Vol. XVII - No. 16
SCHENECTADY, NEW YORK
Friday, April 17, 1933

WE MOBILIZE FOR WAGE FIGHT

Lynn Demands United Action
With UE for 53 Bargaining

A new industrial union will be formed by the workers throughout the country who operate in Lynn, Massachusetts. The workers have expressed their desire to form an industrial union in response to the failure of the traditional craft unions to protect their interests. The union will be called Lynn United and will be affiliated with the United Electrical, Radio & Machine Workers of America, Local 317.

Members Urge United Fight

Lynn union leaders are calling for a nationwide campaign to support Lynn United. They are urging workers in other cities to join the fight for fair wages and working conditions. The union leaders are also calling for a nationwide boycott of employers who refuse to negotiate with the union.

Carl Collin, the head of Lynn United, said, "The workers in Lynn are tired of being exploited by their employers. They want a fair wage and better working conditions. We are Grosvenor and trying to organize in Lynn, and we will not stop until we have won."

301 Warns GE on Jobs

On Shores of Strike

The GE workers in Lynn are preparing to strike for fair wages and working conditions. The union has sent a letter to General Electric demanding that the company negotiate in good faith. The GE management has rejected the letter and has threatened to lock out the workers if they go on strike.

The GE workers in Lynn are determined to win their demands. They are confident that they will be able to negotiate a fair contract and that the strike will be a success.

Wages and benefits are critical issues for the workers in Lynn. They want a fair wage and better working conditions. The union is prepared to fight for their demands and will not back down until they have won.

301, a local of the United Electrical, Radio & Machine Workers of America, Local 317, is leading the workers in their fight. They are determined to win a fair contract and are ready to strike if necessary.

Don't Miss Another Issue of "ELECTRICAL UNION NEWS"

Please subscribe to "ELECTRICAL UNION NEWS" to receive the latest news and updates on the struggles of workers across the country. You can subscribe online at the website for the United Electrical, Radio & Machine Workers of America, Local 317.

"ELECTRICAL UNION NEWS" is a publication of the United Electrical, Radio & Machine Workers of America, Local 317. It is published weekly to inform and educate workers on the latest developments in the labor movement.