At 301 Field Day

Four Crafts in Walk-Out Over Rates

Members of four skilled crafts throughout the world packed the union hall yesterday afternoon in protest against the refusal of management to meet their demands for increases in wages. The protest, which included electricians, sheet metal workers, machinists, and steel workers, is expected to continue through tomorrow.

Free Bus Service to Columbia Park

You can get a free bus ride tomorrow, from 9:30 a.m. to 5:00 p.m., to the 301 Field Day event at Columbia Park. The buses will depart from Local 361 hall, located on Broadway at 5th Street in Schenectady.

Continuous Process Pay Increase Plan

Management has announced a continuous process pay increase plan for employees at the 301 Field Day event. The plan will be implemented immediately and will be reviewed on a monthly basis.

Production Machinists Will Meet Wednesday

Production machinists will meet Wednesday, June 30, to discuss the current wage dispute. The meeting will be held at 2 p.m. at Local 361 hall. All machinists are encouraged to attend.

Walkabouts Bring Raise

An across-the-board wage increase of 10 cents per hour for all machinists was negotiated at the walkabout held last month. The new wage scale will be effective immediately.

Important to Sell Field Day Tickets

The Activators Committee will encourage members to purchase tickets for the Field Day event to be held on Saturday, June 25. Tickets are available at the Local 361 hall and online.

Stewards Get Pointers on Handling Grievances

Stewards met recently to discuss methods of handling grievances more effectively. The meeting was led by Local 361 President, who emphasized the importance of maintaining good working relationships.
Actual Figures
On GE Pay Raise

There is no need for GE to increase its pay raises to keep up with the holidays.
In fact, the company has already raised pay by 5 percentage points in the past year. This is based on the fact that the company has been able to increase its profits.

Papers Twist Facts
About District CIO

The company has been focused on increasing profits over the past year. In order to do so, they have had to make cuts in their pay raises. However, this has not been without its consequences.

For example, when the company made
cuts to their pay raises, they also had to reduce the number of employees they had. This has led awards to the union's members, which were then accepted by the company. This has led to a frustration amongst the union's members, who feel that their work is not being properly recognized.

Wage Victories
At Cincinnati

Lynn L. Rainey, a Lynn L. Rainey, was not included in the list of winners. Rainey has been fighting for better wages for years, but the company has been reluctant to grant them.
