Sen. McCarthy’s Statements On Ft. Monmouth Fare

In a bitter interview the New York Times (a very conservative newspaper) on November 18, Senator McCarthy made his public statement on the issue. The paper stated that this was one of the most significant news stories of the day. The article was written by the Times’s chief Washington correspondent, who had covered the story extensively.

The article was written by the Times’s chief Washington correspondent, who had covered the story extensively.

"Important Facts On Union Elections Voting Hours"

Voting hours for the next election will be from 10 A.M. to 8 P.M. on the day of the election.
Matles Accuses McCarthy Of Bogus Spy Hunt

James J. Matles, National Organizational Director of UE, was summoned before McCarthy last Wednesday afternoon.

In New York City, Matles demonstrated before the Senate Government Committee that McCarthy's accusations were baseless and fraudulent.

Matles told the Senate that McCarthy's allegations were unfounded and that the Bureau of Investigation had already cleared up any claims of espionage.

He also stated that the charge of espionage was a tactic used by McCarthy to suppress labor union activity.

Justice Douglas Hits 'Merchants of Hate'

Justice Douglas said that the merchants of hate were working on the Senate and were ready to fight the government.

He said that the merchants of hate were trying to destroy the government and that the Senate should not be afraid to stand up to them.

Douglas said that the merchants of hate were trying to destroy the government and that the Senate should stand up to them.

Matses Accuses McCarthy Of Bogus Spy Hunt

Matthews, the National Organizational Director of the United Electrical, Radio & Machine Workers of America, swears that McCarthy's accusations are unfounded.

He also stated that McCarthy's accusations were aimed at suppressing labor union activity.

He said that McCarthy's accusations were baseless, and that the Bureau of Investigation had already cleared up any claims of espionage.

He also stated that McCarthy's accusations were aimed at suppressing labor union activity.

Matles also accused McCarthy of using the Senate to suppress labor union activity.

He said that McCarthy's accusations were unfounded, and that the Bureau of Investigation had already cleared up any claims of espionage.

He also stated that McCarthy's accusations were aimed at suppressing labor union activity.

He said that McCarthy's accusations were baseless, and that the Bureau of Investigation had already cleared up any claims of espionage.

He also stated that McCarthy's accusations were aimed at suppressing labor union activity.