Unemployment Insurance Rights of Laid-Off Workers

With an increasing number of women and children being laid off, the unemployment insurance system is being tested. The system is under pressure to provide benefits to more people than ever before. In some cases, the system is unable to keep up with the demand for benefits.

Another Foreman in Contest

The outcome of the contest will determine the eligibility of both candidates. One candidate is known for his strong stand on the need for improved working conditions, while the other candidate is known for his willingness to cut corners to meet production quotas.

McCarthy Interested in Spies—Why U.E. Local 301

McCarthy has shown interest in the matter of spies in the United States. His interest is likely due to his previous work in espionage for the Soviet Union.

Decentralization Hits Building Trade Groups

As a result of the Court's decision, the trade groups are now decentralized. This has led to a decrease in efficiency and an increase in costs for the trade groups.

Veterans' Rights—GI Loans

World War II veterans and veterans of earlier wars have the right to a GI loan to help them buy a home, farm, land and equipment, or to start a business or rehabilitate a business. If your GI loan application is approved, the loan officer will explain to you the terms of your loan.

NAM Leader Urges Support For Butler Labor Bill Proposal

Support for the key provision of the Butler bill, which has been described as the most dangerous to organized labor since passage of the Taft-Hartley act, was voiced by President of the American Federation of Labor, Arthur A. and James R. Butler, a close associate of Butler.

McCarthy Member Elected to Council

John O. O'Neill, member of U.E. Local 11, served a second term in the City Council of New York City. O'Neill was re-elected to his position.

Guess Who Said This:

"Peace comes to nations when people begin to think of the good of mankind, and to do what is right and just."

Microsoft Corporation

The Microsoft Corporation's first quarter earnings report was released on October 27. The report showed a sharp increase in profits for the company.

Doctors Agree to Lossen Tight Closed Shop

Doctors in Maine have agreed to loosen the closed shop arrangement with the hospital. The doctors will now be able to negotiate their terms and conditions of employment.

Electrical Union News

The Electrical Union News is a publication of the United Electrical, Radio, and Machine Workers of America, Local 301.