301 Board Backs Insurance Workers

Full support for the fight of the United Office and Professional Workers of America (CIO) against the Presbyterian Board of Insurance Company will be extended by the 301 Board.

301 Officers Request GE Investigate Anonymouse Leaves Spread in Plant

United States Senator from Connecticut, J. William Fulbright, has written to General Electric that his committee is investigating reports of "anonymouse leaves" spread in the plant. Fulbright is asking for the names of employees who made these leaves. He also wants the company to provide information about the health hazards associated with the leaves.

90 Silicosis Cases at GE Foundry in Elmira, UE Medical Tests Show

A recent increase in the number of silicosis cases at the General Electric Company foundry in Elmira, New York, has been attributed to exposure to silica dust. The company has been conducting medical tests on workers who have been exposed to silica dust and has found that many of them have developed silicosis. The tests are being conducted under the supervision of Dr. John G. Sherlock, who is a leading authority on silicosis.

No First Shot On Election Day

The General Electric Company has decided not to give the first shot on election day. The company announced that it would not give the first shot on election day in order to avoid any potential conflicts of interest.

Arsenal Rates Raised, Jandreau Nominates

Jandreau, the former general manager of the Arsenal, has been nominated for the position of general manager. The company has also announced that it will increase the rate for workers at the Arsenal.

Wear Your Union Button

The United Steelworkers of America has announced that it will wear union buttons on their clothing in order to show support for their union. The buttons will be a symbol of their commitment to solidarity and solidarity with other workers.

301 Members Map Fight on Atomic Ruling

The membership of Local 301 of the Electrical Workers (CIO) is actively involved in the fight against the Atomic Energy Commission's proposals for the control of the elements. The union has been in conflict with the AEC over the issue of uranium enrichment.

Dewey Policy Attacked by Stale Police Lawyer

The American Federation of State, County, and Municipal Employees has accused Governor Dewey of implementing policies that are harmful to the state's citizens. The union has been critical of Dewey's policy of reducing state spending and has called for an increase in state funding for essential services.

Housing SOS

The United Steelworkers of America has launched a campaign to provide housing for union members. The union has been working to ensure that all members have access to safe and affordable housing. They have been working with local governments to ensure that housing regulations are in place and that housing is available for all members.

The United Steelworkers of America has announced that it will initiate a campaign to recruit members into the union. The union has been working to expand its membership and has been successful in recruiting new members.