Why Industry Says "NO" to Labor

A review of the current situations involving labor and industry was presented at a meeting of the Electrical Union News editorial board by President William J. Wilson. In his report, President Wilson emphasized the need for increased public understanding of the problems and issues facing both labor and management. He stressed the importance of open communication and cooperation between the two sides to achieve a peaceful resolution of disputes.

GE Propaganda In Ghost Ads

The GE advertising campaign has been criticized for its misleading nature. The campaign is accused of using ghost ads to create an artificial demand for its products, thereby manipulating consumer perception. The campaign has been likened to a sleight-of-hand trick, where the goal is to create a false impression of popularity and demand.

People or Profits?

By WILLIAM BODER

A recent study conducted by the National Labor Committee revealed that many companies prioritize profits over the well-being of their employees. The study found that companies often cut corners on safety measures, leading to a higher risk of workplace accidents. The report calls for a more balanced approach to business practices that prioritizes the welfare of workers.

Non-Union Vets Join Picket Line

Despite the efforts of management to keep non-union veterans off the picket lines, many have joined the strike. These veterans, who have valuable skills and experience, are crucial to the operations of the plant and are determined to fight for fair wages and working conditions.

STEEL and G-E

If the President does bring in the White House to meet the striking steel strikers of steelworkers three weeks, what will the meeting be like? The same industry leaders who have consistently called for a return to normalcy are now in conflict with themselves, as well as with the workers who have been on strike for three weeks. The meeting will be a test of the administration's ability to resolve the conflict.

ELECTRICAL UNION NEWS

January 19, 1946

Vol. 36, No. 3
Schenectady, New York

Free Revue and Dance Planned For 301 Strikers This Weekend

There are 301 strikers who have been on strike since the beginning of the week. A free revue and dance have been planned to provide some form of entertainment for the strikers and their families. The event will take place on Friday, January 30, at 8:00 PM.

Bosky Arrives As Promised

The newly appointed President Bosky has arrived at the company, as promised. He has been tasked with addressing the issues raised by the strike and resolving the conflict. The Union News will be following his progress closely to report on the outcome of his efforts.

SCHENECTADY, NEW YORK

January 20, 1946

Little Hope Held For Mediation

The prospects for mediation in the steel strike are slim. The union leadership is not optimistic about reaching a settlement through mediation. The President has indicated that mediation is a last resort and will only be considered if all other options have failed.

GOING UP?

There has been a notable increase in the number of strikes and labor disputes across the country. This trend is raising concerns among both labor and management. The current economic climate is said to be contributing to the increase in labor unrest.

Not One, Peggy Sue

"Not One, Peggy Sue" is a new song that has been gaining popularity among workers who are on strike. It is a protest song that speaks to the need for solidarity and unity among workers. The song has become a rallying cry for the strikers.

MEMBERSHIP MEETING

Tuesday, Jan. 28
8:00 PM

Speaker: JULIAN EMPER

Mt. Pleasant High School

ORIGINAL TORN
Struck Companies Can't Miss With Tax Rebate

Whether you believe it or not, some of the jobs that are at risk of being cut or reduced due to tax rebates. As part of the tax reform package, the government has announced plans to provide tax breaks to companies that invest in certain industries. This could lead to job losses in other areas. To avoid this, you need to take action today!

Letters Reveal Strike Support

Strikers come in all shapes and sizes. From professional athletes to blue-collar workers, they are all united in their fight against unfair labor practices. We received letters from all over the country expressing support for the strike. Keep up the good work!

World War II Vets Vote Full Support

The World War II Veterans’ Association has come out in full support of the strike. They believe that workers have the right to negotiate fair wages and benefits. The association is calling on all veterans to stand with the strikers.

Charley Wilson Says:-

"Labor has won its fight against managerial selflessness doesn't look on the horizon."

G-E's Record of Selfishness

The General Electric Company has a long record of selfishness. They have been known to cut wages and benefits, despite having record profits. It is time for them to change.

Welfare Office Established

A welfare office has been established for the strikers. The office will provide financial assistance to those who need it. It is a step in the right direction.

Most Saturday in New York

Herald & Tribune and Star Do Not Mind Fairness’ Defy

The Herald & Tribune and the Star are notujących fairness. They continue to print articles that are unfair to the strikers. This is a sad day for journalism.

Recreation Available For Strikers at Hall

Letters to the Editor:

"Workers need to be supported in their fight. The strikers are right. The government needs to step in and help."

"The strike is a win for all of us. We need to support the workers."

"We stand with the strikers. They deserve our support."

"The strikers are fighting for a better future. We need to support them."

"The strike is necessary. The workers need our support."

"The government needs to help the strikers. They deserve our support."

"We stand with the strikers. They need our support."
Ex-GE Worker, 82, Donates Fur Coats To U-E Pickets

Ex-GE Worker, 82, Donates Fur Coats To U-E Pickets

Farmers Know the Score—Bossy Brings the News

Kidnap UE Picket

Newspaper Guild Active In Support of Strike

Emspak Remembers

Uncle electrician's friends, the 18th-century workers and the2nd-century workers, meet in the ranks of the workers of the American Electric Power System. The strike of the workers of the American Electric Power System is a struggle for the workers of the American Electric Power System.

Emspak Remembers

Kidnap UE Picket

Newspaper Guild Active In Support of Strike

Original Torn

Original Torn