Yet, it is true that in the last years of the corporation's existence, it has never again seen the kind of progress that marked its early days.

The story is much the same in the Huron Co. This company is made up of a group of employees who have been organized in a number of plants during the last three years.

Red Enough

The company will never organize itself to compete with the company's prices. But the union will make an effort to keep the workers in line.

What is Needed
