Helplessness of Craft Unionism

Showed by Defeat of Steamfitters

The AFL steamfitters went back to work Monday after an eight-week strike against the railroad companies.

The AFL steamfitters went back to work Monday after an eight-week strike against the railroad companies.

Electrical Mahoney

Win $50 Prize

Winner of the $50 prize at the drawing at the annual banquet of the Electrical Mahoney was Jay Pigott of Braddock, Pa.  His ticket was drawn by his secretary-treasurer, Thomas J. Mahoney.

IUE-CIO Lawyers Get Fees from Jobless Pay

Nearly all of the 100 members of the IUE-CIO who were on strike in New York last week have been paid for their losses, according to the lawyer who handled their case.

GE-UE Negotiations Are Deadlocked

Toolmakers to Vote in Run-off July 16

There will be a run-off between July 16 and July 21 on the question of whether or not the toolmakers at GE will join the UE or remain with the IUE-CIO.

The IUE-CIO had previously announced that it would hold a run-off election if there were no agreement between the two unions.

Westinghouse Strike

Victory Won by UE

The UE won the Westinghouse Strike. The company had been trying to get the union to accept its offer, but the UE refused to accept it.

Long Overdue Check-off Money Expected Soon

The long overdue check-off money expected by the UE has been received by the UE leaders.

Plant Gate Meeting Here Next Week

The plant gate meeting is scheduled for next week. The meeting will be held on Tuesday at 3 p.m.

Articles:

-GE Strike
-Toolmakers Vote
-Westinghouse Strike
-Long Overdue Check-off Money
-Plant Gate Meeting Here Next Week
GE-UE Negotiations Still Deadlocked

Continued from page one

A new labor agreement was signed in New York last week, but the two sides are still far apart. The biggest sticking point is the issue of cost-of-living adjustments (COLA). The union is demanding a 5% COLA for all employees, while the company is offering a 2% COLA. Other issues include pensions, health care, and job security.

When I started here they told me I would just grow into this job...

GE Releases Profit Figures

Alfred P. Sloan, chairman of General Electric, announced today that the company's third quarter profits had increased by 10% compared to the same period a year ago. This is due to higher sales and lower costs. The company expects to see continued growth in the fourth quarter as well.

CIO Gets a Doze Of Own Legion

A new watering-hole opened near CIO headquarters has been condemned by the union leadership. The club, called the "Drunken Eunuchs," is a favorite hangout for CIO members and their families. The union has filed a formal complaint with the state liquor board.

$1,382 Award Won For Injury to Leg

A worker at the Electrolux plant in Buffalo was awarded $1,382 in workers' compensation benefits after suffering a leg injury on the job. The company had contested the claim, but a judge ruled in favor of the worker.

GFE Profits Go Up, Employment Down

General Electric announced today that its third quarter profits had increased by 10% compared to the same period a year ago. However, employment is down 5% due to automation and cost-cutting measures.

Nice Fat Pensions for GE Officers

The annual pension plan for GE officers is one of the most generous in the industry. Executives are eligible for a pension equal to 50% of their final average compensation, plus a COLA. This plan is one of the reasons why the company is able to attract top talent.

Mr. Blowhard

Do you know what Mr. Blowhard is? He is a character in a popular comic strip. By day, he is a mild-mannered office worker, but by night, he transforms into a superhero who fights crime. Mr. Blowhard is a symbol of the everyday hero, who can rise above the challenges of daily life to make a difference.

Square D Strikes Win Wage, Pension Settlement

After a lengthy strike, workers at Square D have won a settlement that includes wage increases and improved pension benefits. The union had been fighting for better pay and benefits for several years, and finally succeeded in negotiating a fair agreement.

Double Trouble

There are two housing crises in New York City: the homeless and the rising cost of rent. The city is struggling to find a solution to these pressing issues. Some proposals include increasing affordable housing and providing more support for the homeless.

Did You Know?

According to a recent survey, 60% of New Yorkers believe that the city is heading towards bankruptcy. The high cost of living and the lack of affordable housing are major concerns for many residents.

Mr. Blowhard

Mr. Blowhard is a character in a comic strip that teaches children about the importance of being kind. By day, he is a mild-mannered office worker, but by night, he transforms into a superhero who fights crime. Mr. Blowhard is a symbol of the everyday hero, who can rise above the challenges of daily life to make a difference.

EUI Pays Pension In Seniority Case

The United Electrical Workers International Union (EUI) has won a significant victory in a seniority case. The union had been fighting for years to secure fair treatment for its members, and finally succeeded in negotiating a fair agreement.

Inflation Starts in August

The U.S. economy is experiencing a sharp increase in inflation. The Consumer Price Index (CPI) has risen to a 19-month high, and other indicators point to continued upward pressure. The government has announced that it will begin to implement measures to combat inflation in the coming months.

Did You Know?

The average cost of a gallon of gasoline in the U.S. is now $3.50. This is up from $2.50 just a year ago. The increase is due to a combination of factors, including higher oil prices and supply chain disruptions.