Open Saturdays

The 301 office is open Saturdays from 8 a.m. to 5 P.M. for discussion of grievances and settlement with stewards on these problems and for the payment of last time or handling of membership cards or dues notices.

30 Day Limit

Checks issued by Local 301 for benefits must be cashed within 30 days of the date or they will not be paid. The union business office has reported cases where checks were held for long periods before they were cashed.

Parking Conditions Still Bad at Plant

The union is still trying to get suitable management to improve parking conditions at the plant. Many workers still have to find places for their cars and have to rush people out. If this continues the membership there will be a strike.

Randolph Harnett, in charge of the plant's parking facilities, has suggested a new plan for the union to study. The plan involves the use of the members' vehicles for parking purposes and includes the use of parking lots not being used by anyone else.

Statement by Peterson

The following statement to the membership of Local 301 was made by Arthur Peterson, president of the union during 1946 and president for re-election:

"We have been active in maintaining a general degree of unity in the union membership despite differences. We need to extend and maintain the union's program of better working conditions, fairer wage rates, lower food prices, and more and better services to the membership. This is what we need to do in 1947."

"We cannot be active in fighting the battles of the workers if we do not wish to maintain the union's program."

"We are trying to have an extension of the union's program, fairer wage rates, lower food prices, and more and better services to the membership."
