General Electric Criticized
By A Republican

Roger W. Johnson, prominent Republican industrialist and former chairman of the Los Angeles County Board of Supervisors, today attacked the General Electric Company for "trying to keep open shop discrimination." He charged that the company's policies were "incompatible with the spirit of California trade unionism in the 21st Century.

"In fact," he declared. "General Electric stands as a warning to California workers in all the Prohibition states."

"We are against Prohibition, but we are for open shop discrimination," he continued. "Open shop discrimination is the only way to save the American labor movement."

Top of the Labor News

In Washington, D.C., on October 30th, the National Labor Committee held its regular monthly meeting. The principal speaker was John B. Dooling, national director of the Communications Workers of America. He emphasized the need for more organized labor in the communications industry. He also called for a national day of action to support the Communications Workers of America's strike against the AT&T Corporation.

In Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, on October 20th, the Pennsylvania AFL-CIO Convention met. The convention passed a resolution calling for the nationalization of the steel industry.

Children's Christmas Party

The Children's Christmas Party of Local 301 was scheduled for December 21st. The event was open to all children of local members.

shopstewards

The shop stewards' election was held on December 17th and 18th. The union members voted for two stewards, one for each shift. The winners were announced on December 21st.

Over 50 Per Cent of Membership Vote in Election For Officers

In Election For Officers

Over 50 Per Cent of Membership Vote in Election For Officers

Local 301, turned out to cast their vote during the 20 continuous hours of voting, while the polls were open from noon Thursday, December 5th, until 6:00 p.m. Friday, December 5th, for the election of Union Officers for the years of 1959 and 1960.

When the votes were tallied, the Shanko-Kelly-Andresen slate was victorious over the Warren-O'Brien slate with a margin of 4 to 1, with Shanko and O'Brien receiving top vote on the Unity Slate. While there were three candidates for President, Shanko was over his opponents by an overwhelming majority. There were three candidates for Vice-President; however, Shanko led by a wide margin. There were eight candidates for Treasurer, with Shanko leading by a large margin.

The second day of the election brought out nearly as many as those who voted the first day, which was unusual based on past elections.

The Officers who were elected for 1959 and 1960 are:

President: Shanko
Vice-President: Warren
Recording Secretary: O'Brien
Treasurer: Andresen
Chief Steward: Shanko
Business Agent: Warren
Trustee: O'Brien
Trustee: Shanko
Trustee: Shanko

The new Officers will be sworn in at their respective offices at the January membership meeting.

ATTEND YOUR UNION MEETINGS!

Benefits Exhausted

The benefits provided by the Labor Department for 1958 will be exhausted in the fall of 1958. Local 301, AFL-CIO, has drafted up a plan to provide unemployment compensation for its members. The plan was designed to ensure that the benefits last Congress' term

The survey is also expected to indicate that the number of persons employed exceeding their benefits is rapidly increasing.

WASHINGTON OREGON - A study "Labor, Big Business and Unemployment," published by the AFL-CIO Industrial Union Department, shows that unemployment compensation benefits have been inadequate for millions. The report claims that unemployment compensation benefits have been inadequate for millions. It supports the contention that unemployment compensation benefits have been inadequate for millions. The survey claims that unemployment compensation benefits have been inadequate for millions. No information is available on the cost of the survey.

WASHINGTON (PA) - The AFL-CIO Central Executive Committee, in the name of the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers and the Pennsylvania AFL-CIO, has authorized a bond sale to provide funds for the retirement of the United Steelworkers of America and the Pennsylvania AFL-CIO.

The bond sale will be made on a national basis and is expected to provide funds for the retirement of the United Steelworkers of America and the Pennsylvania AFL-CIO.
ISSUE MISSING
Work Schedule For Holidays In Turbine

As we go to press, a committee of Turbine and Turbine Union members is working out the details of the working schedule for the Christmas and New Year's work weeks.

The Union has proposed to the management that on December 25th all employees of the Turbine Department will work as follows:

- First班: 8:00 AM - 4:30 PM
- Second班: 4:30 PM - 12:00 AM
- Third班: 12:00 AM - 8:00 AM

This schedule will ensure full production and meet the demands of the holiday season.

Removals During 1958...

(Continued from Page 1)

The management has decided to make changes in the schedule and procedures for the holiday season in order to improve efficiency and productivity. The following changes have been made:

- The first班 will operate from 8:00 AM to 4:30 PM.
- The second班 will operate from 4:30 PM to 12:00 AM.
- The third班 will operate from 12:00 AM to 8:00 AM.

These changes will ensure a smooth transition from one班 to the next and minimize downtime.

Current Events In My Section

by Allen E. Townsend

A recent decision by a local union to increase the minimum wage to $2.50 per hour has raised concerns among management. The union has proposed to increase the minimum wage to $3.00 per hour, which is currently the national minimum wage.

The increase in the minimum wage will have a significant impact on the company's bottom line. The union has stated that the increase is necessary to keep pace with inflation and to ensure that workers are paid a fair wage.

The company is considering various options to offset the increased costs, including increasing prices, reducing overhead, and exploring new markets.

WASHINGTON, D.C.—A National Appliance Industry strike was announced by one of the nation's largest refrigerator manufacturers, who threatened to shut down production if their demands were not met.

The strike, which affects thousands of workers, has been called by the National Appliance Industry Council, who is demanding a 20% raise and an end to the use of temporary labor.

The strike is likely to have a significant impact on the appliance industry, as well as on the wider economy. The company has threatened to lay off workers if the strike continues.

Employees at the company have been given 48 hours to vote on whether to accept the company's offer, or to strike.

As I SEE IT

by CHARLES SCOTT

Two Christmas Stories

Guests in the dining room of "Old Faithful" spaing all customers to be sure that no one is left out of the festivities. The staff, who work tirelessly to ensure that everyone has a happy holiday season, welcome everyone with a warm smile and a friendly greeting.

The staff are well-organized and efficient, allowing them to serve guests quickly and efficiently. They are also very attentive to the needs of their guests, offering assistance whenever it is needed.

Employees Willing—Is G.E.

The employees at General Electric are willing and ready to work during the holiday season. They understand the importance of their work and are dedicated to ensuring that the company operates smoothly.

The company has made efforts to ensure that employees are well-compensated and provided with fair working conditions. They have also implemented policies to support work-life balance, which is important during the holiday season.

The company's commitment to its employees is evident in their willingness to work during the holidays. They understand the importance of their work and are dedicated to ensuring that the company operates smoothly.

By working together, the company and its employees have created a positive and productive work environment, which benefits everyone involved.