Supervision in 46 Provokes Work Stoppage
By Violation of Agreement and Ultimatum

Continuous failure of supervision to abide by agreements made between the union and the company resulted in a stoppage of work in 46 on Tuesday. Directly provoking the strike was an attempt by Bertrand Jones of Armed Work Shop to worry out a new scale for workmen in the Newsroom. Jones, it was charged, had assembled a group of men in the Newsroom to talk over the stoppage. He claimed that the union had failed to abide by the agreement of the Executive Board and management.

Pay Hikes Won for Group

Local 311’s grievance machinery has forced the company to live up to the contract in two wage rate cases processed at the executive board-management level.

Stewards Get Cards For Eye Glass Plan

World Scribes introducing Local 311 members in the trade union, Frank Optical Co., to a plan to receive eye glasses at a reduced rate, filed their cards last night.

On November 3, 1933, the company's executive committee decided to grant the members of the union in the company the privilege of receiving eye glasses at reduced rates.

In the case of the Frank Optical Co., the company agreed to sell the glasses at a reduced rate of $1.75, which is 25 cents less than the regular price.

The plan has been approved by the union, and the stewards have been instructed to distribute the cards to the members.

Clearing house of all grievances

The clearing house is located in the Newsroom. It is a place where grievances are collected and resolved. The stewards are responsible for collecting grievances and ensuring that they are resolved in a timely manner.
