Which Program Do the Union Members Favor?—The Union's 8 Point Program—Or—The Co's 8 Prong Point Program

by Paul Hinske

The Union has adopted an 8 Point Program for Income Security, Union Security and Employment Security. This program forms the basis for our proposals to the General Electric.

The workers of today have in their minds a deep and intense feeling of insecurity. The savings worker has a continual worry that his or her job may come to an end, regardless of the size of the company's output or the amount of the hourly earnings.

A great deal of misunderstanding has been taking place concerning the General Electric Company's new 8 Point Program. We urge you to like what you believe that this plan is something new.

The plan sets a standard for all workers and a guide to the management of the General Electric Company in the future. A new form of guaranteed wage has been adopted. There are five classes of guaranteed wage plans in at least ten different have. The classes range from $10 per hour to $15 per hour, with increments of $1 per hour, and the plan is designed to provide for the growth of the company.

Many of the classes have provisions for the payment of benefits in case of temporary or permanent disability. These benefits are designed to help the workers in their time of need.

The 8 Point Program is a plan for the future. It is a plan for the growth of the company and the well-being of the workers. It is a plan for the security of the workers and their families. It is a plan for the future and it is a plan for the present.

3,000 Members Answer Mr. Stevens Report on Special Membership Meeting

Local 301 members packed their auditorium at a special closed membership meeting Monday night to answer Mr. C. A. Stevens' attack on the leadership of our National and Local Union, 3,000 members in effect told Mr. Stevens to run his company and we will run our Union in the usual democratic manner.

In one of the largest membership meetings in Local 301's history it was told Mr. Stevens that he would not attempt to organize the company or the Brotherhood, and that he would not try to force the company to deal with the Union.

The situation at General Electric, which is currently the largest factory in the world, is an example of how democracy can work. The workers, who are the owners of the company, have the right to elect their own leaders and make their own decisions. The company is run by the workers, and they are the ones who benefit from the company's success.

Our 1958 Negotiations

As one of the conditions for signing the agreements with IUE in 1958, we demanded that the company provide for full representation of all employees in the company. The agreements provided for this, and we demanded that the company provide for full representation of all employees in the company. We also demanded that the company provide for full representation of all employees in the company.

The company agreed to provide for full representation of all employees in the company. The agreements provided for this, and we demanded that the company provide for full representation of all employees in the company. We also demanded that the company provide for full representation of all employees in the company.

However, the company refused to provide for full representation of all employees in the company. The agreements provided for this, and we demanded that the company provide for full representation of all employees in the company. We also demanded that the company provide for full representation of all employees in the company.

Mr. Stevens Launches Scare Campaign

We don't know how Mr. Stevens can claim any "hold" if a strike can be broken in the face of all the efforts of all the employers in the country. Mr. Stevens is a master of manipulation and he can make the employers believe that he has the power to control the situation. His "scare campaign" is designed to create a crisis in the industry. He claims that the strike is caused by the "scare campaign." He is trying to divide the employers and create a sense of fear. He is also trying to discredit the unions and their demands. He is using the media to spread his message of fear and uncertainty.

Suarez Answers Hershkowitz —

Statement by Judi R. Barbee, International Vice President, of the Electric Workers Union, on the recent U.S. Department of Labor's findings.

In reply to C. F. Drigler of the Electric Workers Union, Mr. Suarez's remarks about the lack of support for the United Electric Workers Union (UEWU) and the Electric Union (EU) are misleading. The UEWU is a member of the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers (IBEW), whose membership is 1.7 million strong and is affiliated with the AFL-CIO. The EU is a separate organization with a different set of rules and regulations. The UEWU has a strong record of supporting the UEWU in the past.

The UEWU has a long history of fighting for the rights of its members, and it is committed to protecting the jobs and benefits of its members. The UEWU has a strong track record of standing up to employers who try to undermine the rights of its members. It has a strong track record of fighting for the rights of its members, and it is committed to protecting the jobs and benefits of its members.

Richiest American Says Free, Honest Unions —

Our Greatest Bulwark

The richest American, John D. Rockefeller, has said that free, honest unions are our greatest bulwark. He believes that unions are necessary to protect the rights of workers and to ensure fair wages and working conditions. He has always been a strong supporter of unions and has helped to found several important labor organizations.

I have very little patience with the fear and complacency expressed by the safety officers of the present day. I cannot tolerate their belief that the only way to ensure the safety of the workers is to keep them out of the way. I strongly disagree with this view. I believe that the workers themselves are the best judges of the safety conditions in their workplace. They are the ones who live and work in the hazardous environment.

I hope that the workers will stand up for their rights. I believe that they have a right to be safe and that they should be able to work in a safe environment. I believe that they should have the right to form unions and to negotiate for safer working conditions. I believe that they should have the right to speak out about their safety concerns and to push for improvements.

Mr. Stevens is trying to divide the workers and create a sense of fear. He is trying to discredit the unions and their demands. He is using the media to spread his message of fear and uncertainty.

Job Insurance No Downy Brides-to-Be Are Cautioned

Brides-to-be were cautioned today not to let the thrill of a job offer cloud their judgment. Should they accept a job offer, they should carefully consider the offer and make sure it is the right one for them. They should also consider their future plans and make sure the job offer is consistent with those plans.

The decision to accept a job offer is a big one, and it is important to make sure that it is the right one for you. Make sure that the job offer is consistent with your future plans and that it will help you achieve your goals. Make sure that you have all the information you need about the job offer, including the salary, benefits, and work schedule. Make sure that you have a clear understanding of the job responsibilities and that you are comfortable with the job.

Mr. Stevens: Give us a break, not a war

Mr. Stevens' remarks about the need for a war of words is unfortunate. It is important to focus on the issues and to have open and honest discussions. Mr. Stevens is using his position as a union leader to divide the workers and create a sense of fear. He is using the media to spread his message of fear and uncertainty.
