Lynn GE Workers Protest Speed-up

The members of the big GE Lynn Local 261 continuing to voice complaints of the company's treatment of them. At their meeting in April 16 the union found that the workers were not receiving fair wages in comparison to the work they were doing. The union plans to take the company to court if they do not meet their demands.

Board Fights Lay-Offs at Male Meeting

GE workers are being laid-off because the company has produced too much work. The workers are being forced to work extra hours, which is causing them stress and low wages. The union plans to take the company to court if they do not meet their demands.
Still a Chance
To Repeal T-H

Labor has another chance to face down what Tidewater Labor said it would take to prevent the enactment of the Tidewater Labor Bill. This week, the Labor Committee of the House of Representatives passed the bill, which was passed by the House May 5 by a vote of 32 to 28.

Realizing early this week Labor leaders in Congress were not ready to make a deal with the Republicans or other opposition to the bill, they turned to a more effective tactic of opposition. They have called on the House to pass the bill, and the House passed the bill by a vote of 32 to 28.

The House voted down this "provision" and passed the bill, which was then referred to the Appropriations Committee for further action.

MBA in Lay-Off Cases

The MBA has asked the Treasury to remove the restrictions on layoffs that were imposed last week. The Treasury has agreed, but has placed a condition on the layoffs: that they only occur in the first 90 days after the plant closes.

The MBA has also asked for an extension of the lay-off provisions, which were scheduled to expire in 90 days.

Memorial Day Pay

Monday, May 29, will be a non-working holiday throughout the country. The Memorial Day holiday, which is observed on the last Monday in May, is a federal holiday.

Turbine Stewards To Meet Next Week

Executive Board members in the Cleveland District have decided to meet next week to discuss the situation with the District's wiring contractors. The District's wiring contractors have been non-cooperative and have refused to sign a new contract with the District.

Laid-off Workers

A group of laid-off workers has set up a tent on the lot where their plant was located. The group is demanding back pay and benefits for their time out of work.

Plan Survey in S3

Building 52 show stewards met recently to discuss the survey of the plant. They are concerned about the impact of the survey on the workers and the plant's productivity.

Buying Power

High profits aren't spent in the stores, but are sent back to spending the nation's tax dollars in the community. A new study shows that this is true for a variety of reasons. The study found that:

- Profits are spent on goods and services in the community.
- Profits are spent on local businesses.
- Profits are spent on local employees.

Stewards Oppose Higher Bus Fare

Local 1096 stewards have been working with the Metro Transit Authority to oppose the proposed fare increase. They are concerned that this will hurt the city's economy.

Unions Ask Management
To Issue Checks Earlier

Local 1096 has been asking the Metro Transit Authority to issue checks earlier in the month. The union has been requesting this for several months, but the authority has been slow to respond.

To Urge Improved Social Security

Industry can well afford to pay the full cost of Social Security benefits and increased benefits for all workers. Randman, Business Agent, Local 1096, appeared before the Select Committee on Social Security of the House of Representatives, which is considering the Social Security bill.

The union asked for an increase in benefits for all workers, including those who have reached retirement age. The union also asked for an increase in the number of workers covered under Social Security.

While the union is not convinced that the bill will pass, it is hoping that the House will pass it and that the Senate will then pass it.

The union has also asked for an increase in benefits for all workers, including those who have reached retirement age. The union also asked for an increase in the number of workers covered under Social Security.
