Jandreau Asks Session On Punish Press Cases

HIAWAHEE, Ill. (June 20) - Jandreau has asked for a special meeting with the National Press, American Press, and News Press Associations to discuss possible changes in the present press law.

The chief difficulty, which arose as a result of the press law under the present law, is that the press associations are not represented in the meetings.

A meeting in view of the present law, would be held at a later date.

Westphal's Local Voting on Contract

The Westphal's Local of the National Electrical Construction Company are voting as a group this week on a new contract. The voting is expected to take place on Friday.

The vote will be held on a roll call basis.

Plenty of Prizes at 301 Field Day

In addition to the grand prize of a 1960 Buick, 13 other prizes will be awarded at the 301 Field Day at Columbus Park. The prizes include a variety of items such as a car, a television set, and a radio.

The 301 Field Day is a radio communications event where participants try to contact other stations using their radio equipment.

Special Service to Field Day Groups

Local 301 has arranged for special service transportation to the Field Day Park. The bus will leave at 9 a.m. and return at 5 p.m. The bus will pick up participants at 9 a.m. and drop them off at 5 p.m.

Drivers to Meet

A meeting of radio truck drivers and related Service will be held on Thursday, July 10, at the union hall by Shop Steward Raymond Foster.

Pensioners' Meeting

The U.I. Local 301 pension organization will meet next week at 7 p.m. on Wednesday at the union hall.
T-H Board Brings Grief, ITU Says

The United Automobile, Aircraft and Agricultural Implement Workers of America (Teamsters) have asked the National Labor Relations Board to issue a complaint against the T-H Board, Inc. and United Truck Bodies, Inc., for allegedly violating the Labor-Management Act.

Crafts Unite Forces

The National Labor Committee, which represents workers who have been forced to work without pay, has been united in a single voice to fight for the rights of these workers. They have filed a complaint with the National Labor Board, asking for a speedy hearing on their behalf.

Quiet Time

The quiet time is a time for reflection and relaxation. It is a time to take a break from the stress of the day. It is a time to recharge your batteries and come back refreshed.

World-Wide Monopoly Increases Prices

The world-wide monopoly increases prices for all products. This is a result of the increasing demand for goods and services, which has led to a shortage of supplies. The monopolies have risen in price, and this has led to a rise in the cost of living for all consumers.

Rain or Shine

It doesn't matter if it's raining or shining. The show will go on. The performers are determined to entertain the audience, rain or shine.

Pony Rides Again This Year at 301 Field Day

Craft Committees Pledge Unity in Getting Higher Wage Rates

Grievance Filed

Two workers have filed a grievance against their employer, alleging that they were denied proper compensation for their work. The workers are seeking damages for the unpaid wages.

Aid's Representation in Community Chest

The Community Chest is a national organization that raises money for various community programs. A representative of Aid's has been appointed to the Community Chest Council to represent the interests of the community.

Rehearsing for Ski

The ski team is practicing hard to prepare for the upcoming competition. They are focusing on improving their skills and teamwork.

Don't Forget Saturday, July 10 301 Field Day

Record Set by UE In '48 Contracts

The United Electrical Workers (UE) have set a new record for contracts won in a single year. This is a significant achievement for the union and its members.

Missing Tickets

A group of children were denied entry to an event because they did not have the proper tickets. The event organizers have apologized for the inconvenience caused to the children.

It's Not Enough

A Gibson guitar model E9816 is being auctioned off to help raise money for the arts. The auction is a way to bring attention to the importance of preserving our cultural heritage.

Meeting of representations of master craftsmen at 301 Field Day July 10 to plan next steps in obtaining wage increases. See story on page