Company Offer Due In Machinists' Case

The company's offer in the machinists' case was received late last week, after negotiations as well as the machine repair set as the main objective. The machinists, directly involved in the strike, overcame the strike, and as a result, the company decided to make an offer, which was followed by the machinists' agreement.

Workers Oppose 12 Hour Shift

A. C. Stevens, assistant to the executive secretary, was given management's answer yesterday to a proposal about the shift change in the machinists' case. This move is expected to run seven days, and the machinists have rejected the offer.

Turbine Discussion Hits Another Snag

Arrangements for another meeting of the turbine representatives with the management were made. This is expected to occur on Monday, and the meeting failed to reach any agreement.

Veterans Testify in Vacancy Case

Three World War II veterans of Local 67 testified in U.S. District Court in New York City in a case brought against General Electric Co. They are Joseph Donatelli, chairman of the veterans' committee, John Hunsicker, and James Simons.

Softball Team

The Executive Board has authorized the Activities Committee to sponsor a softball team. The club consists of the players who competed in the CWA's championships last year, and they have signed up for the team. Anyone interested should apply to the Activities Committee.

Brother Davis Sick

Brother Davis is ill at home with pneumonia.

Meeting Today On Deadlock in Turbine Dispute

A new meeting of the turbine representatives and the management was arranged. The meeting is expected to occur on Monday, and the dispute is expected to be resolved.

Rotterdam Board Defends Union

The Rotterdam Union Board, 107 passed a resolution opposing efforts to weaken or abolish the Wagner Act and to replace it with an anti-union legislation. The resolution was introduced by Corliss Williams, a member of Local 201, and seconded by President Neil J. Dube, also of Local 201.

GE Makes Offer To Raise Rates Of Machinists

A company offer to raise the rates of the machinists was made. The offer includes an increase in wages, and the rates are expected to be effective May 1. The offer was made to all the machinists at the company, and it is expected to be accepted.

Meeting Monday

A special meeting of the machinists' union will be held on Monday night, April 14, at the union hall. The meeting will discuss the issue of the new rates and the company's proposal.
Organizing Drive
Score Now 353

The Local 353 membership drive has brought in 246 new members this week, a record for the union. The drive is aimed at increasing membership to 1000 by the end of the year.

Company Answer Due
On Third Shift Case

The Local 351 committee is facing a difficult decision in the upcoming meeting. The company has offered a $100,000 settlement to resolve the strike, but the workers are demanding $150,000.

Union to Collect
For Cancer Drive

Local 457 will be collecting donations for the Cancer Drive this week. All donations will be sent to the American Cancer Society.

Rotterdam Board
Defends Unions

The Rotterdam Board has filed a lawsuit against Local 457, claiming that the union is violating antitrust laws.

Meeting Today
On Turbine Case

The hearing on the turbine case will take place today. The company has denied the union's claims, and the union is fighting back. The hearing is expected to be a long one.

They Have Something to Smile About - Union Gets Them Back Pay

The Local 351 union has won back pay for its members after a long fight. The company has been ordered to pay the union members the wages they were owed.

Taking Care of Charlie

President Charles R. Wilson of General Electric is recovering from surgery. He is expected to make a full recovery.

CIO Meeting Postponed

The meeting of the CIO is postponed due to the company's legal action. The union is fighting back, and the meeting is expected to resume in the near future.

Meeting to Discuss:
PUSH THE ORGANIZING DRIVE