So the Gazette Said They Were Fighting ! ! !

There are the shop committeemen who were supposed to be "involved in a fist fight recently" according to a Schenectady Gazette story. "According to a Schenectady Gazette story, John Doyle, 301 Board member. The news was a complete surprise to them."

File Photos of the strike at the General Electric Works. "A dozen workers were shot during the GE strikes at Schenectady."

Lost-Time Claims Must Be Made Out Right—That Goes for Giacinto or Anybody Else

Harvey Giacinto's refusal to fill out properly his claim for lost time pay made it necessary recently for the union business office to refuse to accept forms presented until they fulfilled official requirements of Local 301. Leo Jacobson, Executive Secretary set up an approved form in which claims must be submitted in order to be paid. The Board requires that the union business for which a commitment is taken must be described in writing.

"Giacinto did not identify the job on which he claimed he worked these three weeks. I told him the claim couldn't be accepted until he supplied the necessary information. He has not done so. That's the reason he wasn't paid, or that anybody else wouldn't be paid under these circumstances."

CIO Transport Workers Win First Tariff Contract

That agreement of the Brave Iron Co., Schenectady, is now working under a CIO contract as members of the Transport Workers Union, Local 103. They obtained a 20 per cent increase in wages, 30 per cent increase in time on all 24 hours taken in a union shop and a 4-day vacation.
