301 Protests Hiring Of Daniel Sheehan
Of Daniel Sheehan

By direction of the Executive Board, Local 301, protested to UE Tuesday against the hiring of Daniel P. Sheehan for a high-powered assembly job while many qualified present employees are still reduced in earnings due to unionization. While employed as a（ENTER TEXT）

Here's a Good Example Of Unfair Income Tax

Heck Approves Bill
Hitting Pensioners

Speaker Gerald D. Hark of the An doradta told the UE delegation Mon. day that he favors legislation providing pen sions of non-employment income during the years in which the employee is not earn ing. He said that while the proposed law has many points of view, it would be favorable to any pension program.

The measure, which was introduced by Dale B. Nova, of District 8, is under consideration by the committee.

Stigmatic R. Hanover of Local 301, president of the local union, has been appointed by the UE national board
to the committee on U.S. Wages.

Stigmatic R. Hanover of Local 301,
president of the local union, has been appointed by the UE national board
to the committee on U.S. Wages.

Dance for Gary Waldon

Gary Waldon, the UE national organiza tion's representative in California, is suffering from cancer. The UE national organization will hold a dance to raise money for Waldon. The dance will be held on Saturday night at the local union hall.

Over 500 New Members

The UE national organization has announced the addition of more than 500 new members to the union in the last month. These members were recruited through an aggressive organizing campaign.

Children's Movies Tomorrow

The UE national organization has announced that children's movies will be shown in the local union hall on Saturday afternoon. The movies are free and open to all children.

GE 1947 Profit

The 12th GE meeting Tuesday unanimously adopted the following resolutions:

- "GE has failed to meet its obligations to the members of the General Electric Company in the present contract negotiations."
- "GE is willing to enter into negotiations for the purpose of settling the dispute.

301 Resolution on Contract Negotiations

The local UE meeting Tuesday unanimously adopted the following resolutions:

- "CONTRACT NEGOTIATIONS
- "The members of the General Electric Company are the present contract negotiations."
- "The negotiations are to be conducted in good faith and in accordance with the provisions of the contract.

GE Obstinate On All Major

The UE national organization has announced that negotiations with GE are at a standstill. The union has asked for a meeting with GE officials to discuss the contract negotiations, but GE has refused.

The UE national organization has announced that negotiations with GE are at a standstill. The union has asked for a meeting with GE officials to discuss the contract negotiations, but GE has refused.
Will the Monopolies Bring Price Increases?

The Illinois Natural Gas Company and the Mid-Continent Pipe Line Company have both announced price increases effective March 1. The Monopolies Commission has not been consulted in the matter.

Hardly News

Big Business Papers Back GE Wage Stand

Bloomington, Ill. The March 3 News unfavorably covers the fact that the New York and New York Times favor GE in its opposition to a wage increase for GE workers. And of course these papers support the free enterprise system. The March 3 News also states that the GE workers are asking for a wage increase.

Company Obstinate

On Major Proposals

Although the GE employees are asking for a wage increase, the company is obstinate in its opposition.

Hardly News

In considering the worth of the demand for higher wages, the newspaper "patriotic" in effect, it is revealed that most of the people who have paid in the Railroad Strike have lost.

With respect to signing, the newspaper says, "The signs are not altogether against the strike, and the newspaper in the public interest has been issued. At last week, 76 employees of the Fort Edward works had worked themselves as members of a labor union. The newspaper is in the best interest of the workers to be given some interest in the labor union."

Waterford Local

Bloomington, May 10, 1915. The Waterford News, the local paper in Bloomington, Illinois, reports that the local people are the ones who have paid in the Railroad Strike.

Hardly News

In considering the worth of the demand for higher wages, the newspaper "patriotic" in effect, it is revealed that most of the people who have paid in the Railroad Strike have lost.

With respect to signing, the newspaper says, "The signs are not altogether against the strike, and the newspaper in the public interest has been issued. At last week, 76 employees of the Fort Edward works had worked themselves as members of a labor union. The newspaper is in the best interest of the workers to be given some interest in the labor union."

---

Protest Violations of Civil Liberties

Delegates for the American Civil Liberties Union have arrived in New York City to discuss the violations of civil liberties. The Union is pledged to uphold the rights of all people, regardless of their political affiliations.

Holidays and Recreation

The Union has scheduled a series of holiday events, including picnics, concerts, and other recreational activities. These events are open to all members and their families.

---

March 19, 1915