Place Com. Has Problems

The Placement Committee of the IUE Local 301 has recently come under attack by some members of the union who feel that the committee is not doing a good job.

The committee is responsible for placing unemployed members of the union in new jobs. However, some members feel that the committee is not doing a good job of finding new jobs for the unemployed members.

The committee has responded by saying that they are doing the best they can with the resources they have. However, they are still open to suggestions on how to improve the placement process.

Grievance Procedure

The Grievance Procedure is a process for resolving disputes between a worker and their employer. The procedure is designed to provide a fair and impartial process for resolving grievances.

The Grievance Procedure consists of several steps. First, the worker must file a grievance with their employer. Then, the employer must respond to the grievance. If the employer's response is not satisfactory, the worker can file a formal grievance with the union. The union will then investigate the grievance and attempt to resolve it.

If the union cannot resolve the grievance, it can be taken to a formal hearing. The hearing will be conducted by an impartial arbitrator who will make a decision on the grievance.

National UE Still Trying to Grab

The National Union of Electrical Workers (UE) is still trying to organize workers in the field of electrical contracting. The UE has been trying to organize workers for several years, and they have made some progress.

However, the UE has faced resistance from employers who are opposed to unionization. The UE has also been criticized by some members of the union for being too radical.

Field Day This Sunday, Sept. 12

The Field Day event is an annual event that is held to raise funds for the union's scholarship fund. The event is open to all members of the union and their families.

Activities at the Field Day include a 5K run, a kids' zone, and a free picnic. The event also features live music and food trucks.

Injured Workers Should Note New Procedures in Workmen's Compensation

All injured workers and their employers should note that a new procedure has been instituted in compensation hearings. This new procedure is designed to make the process more efficient and fair.

In the past, compensation hearings were held in court, which could take a long time and be expensive. The new procedure will allow for mediation, which can be faster and less expensive.

Local 301 Dollar Stretcher

The Local 301 Dollar Stretcher is a program that provides financial assistance to members of the union who are experiencing financial difficulties.

The program is funded through contributions from members of the union and other sources. The program provides grants to members who are facing financial difficulties, such as medical bills or housing expenses.

Field Day

The Field Day event is an annual event that is held to raise funds for the union's scholarship fund. The event is open to all members of the union and their families.

Activities at the Field Day include a 5K run, a kids' zone, and a free picnic. The event also features live music and food trucks.

Injured Workers Should Note New Procedures in Workmen's Compensation

All injured workers and their employers should note that a new procedure has been instituted in compensation hearings. This new procedure is designed to make the process more efficient and fair.

In the past, compensation hearings were held in court, which could take a long time and be expensive. The new procedure will allow for mediation, which can be faster and less expensive.

Local 301 Dollar Stretcher

The Local 301 Dollar Stretcher is a program that provides financial assistance to members of the union who are experiencing financial difficulties.

The program is funded through contributions from members of the union and other sources. The program provides grants to members who are facing financial difficulties, such as medical bills or housing expenses.
Letter Writer Charges G.E., Burkhardt
Behind Missouri “Scab Law” Drive

Sir: In an unsigned letter to the St. Louis Post-Dispatch, which described himself as a company "security" employee, he charged that the General Electric Co. and the J. D. Burkhardt Manufacturing Co. are using unfair methods and "scab" law tactics to gain the support of the Missouri State Chamber of Commerce and the National Labor Relations Board.

In his letter to the Post-Dispatch, the writer said he was one of those employees who was excluded from the plant by the company, but he does not know if the Missouri State Chamber of Commerce has any knowledge of the allegations.

The writer said the Missouri State Chamber of Commerce is the "right hand" of the Missouri State Chamber of Commerce and that the "right hand" is the "left hand." He said the Missouri State Chamber of Commerce is the "right hand" of the Missouri State Chamber of Commerce and that the "right hand" is the "left hand."

In his letter to the Post-Dispatch, the writer said he was one of those employees who was excluded from the plant by the company, but he does not know if the Missouri State Chamber of Commerce has any knowledge of the allegations.

The writer said the Missouri State Chamber of Commerce is the "right hand" of the Missouri State Chamber of Commerce and that the "right hand" is the "left hand." He said the Missouri State Chamber of Commerce is the "right hand" of the Missouri State Chamber of Commerce and that the "right hand" is the "left hand."

In his letter to the Post-Dispatch, the writer said he was one of those employees who was excluded from the plant by the company, but he does not know if the Missouri State Chamber of Commerce has any knowledge of the allegations.

The writer said the Missouri State Chamber of Commerce is the "right hand" of the Missouri State Chamber of Commerce and that the "right hand" is the "left hand." He said the Missouri State Chamber of Commerce is the "right hand" of the Missouri State Chamber of Commerce and that the "right hand" is the "left hand."