ELECTRICAL UNION NEWS
April 1, 1949

301 Donates $1,000 To Blackstone Strike

A $1,000 donation to the strike fund by the 301 District of the Electrical Workers Union was announced today. The donation was made at a meeting of the union's executive board held in New York City.

301 Asks Action Of Public Officials

(Continued from Page 1)

Amos T. Wilson, president of the Union, said, "We are writing to the President of the United States, to the Secretary of Labor, and to the heads of the major industries, asking them to consider the effects of this strike on the nation's economic stability." He added, "We cannot allow this situation to continue without action from higher authorities."

On Honor Roll

Parr Blueprints

In Memoriam... April 12, 1949

Engine-Lathe Job Is Open

In spite of recent layoffs, management reports that a full capacity is expected at the plant. Applicants are urged to apply. Inquiries should be directed to the personnel director.

Meeting Planned On Work Transfer

A meeting is scheduled for tomorrow evening to discuss the transfer of work from one plant to another. All employees are requested to attend.

GE Safety Campaign

"Take Action Against Overwork," GE's new safety campaign, urges employees to take breaks and work at a reasonable pace. The campaign emphasizes the importance of maintaining a healthy work environment.

Approve UE Wage Policy

The UE Local 301 approved the wage policy recommended by the UE General Executive Board. The policy is designed to provide a fair wage for all members.
Easy to Figure Out

What GE Wants

The only lower how which would naturally result from the G&GE sale which would make it impossible for workers to have any effective power in relation to management is to have the company's power reduced by a reduction in the number of employees. This is the view of those who believe that the only way to make the company's power more effective is to reduce its size.

For the company's power to be effective, it must be able to act. The only way it can act is by having enough employees to do the work.

The company says it needs 20,000 employees to be effective. But the company has only 15,000 employees. This means that the company is not able to act.

The company is not able to act because it does not have enough employees to do the work.

The company does not have enough employees to do the work because it does not have enough money to pay the employees.

The company does not have enough money to pay the employees because it does not have enough customers to buy the products.

The company does not have enough customers to buy the products because it does not have enough money to advertise the products.

The company does not have enough money to advertise the products because it does not have enough money to pay the employees.

The company does not have enough money to pay the employees because it does not have enough customers to buy the products.

The company does not have enough customers to buy the products because it does not have enough money to advertise the products.

The company does not have enough money to advertise the products because it does not have enough money to pay the employees.

The company does not have enough money to pay the employees because it does not have enough customers to buy the products.

The company does not have enough customers to buy the products because it does not have enough money to advertise the products.

The company does not have enough money to advertise the products because it does not have enough money to pay the employees.

The company does not have enough money to pay the employees because it does not have enough customers to buy the products.

The company does not have enough customers to buy the products because it does not have enough money to advertise the products.

The company does not have enough money to advertise the products because it does not have enough money to pay the employees.

The company does not have enough money to pay the employees because it does not have enough customers to buy the products.

The company does not have enough customers to buy the products because it does not have enough money to advertise the products.

The company does not have enough money to advertise the products because it does not have enough money to pay the employees.

The company does not have enough money to pay the employees because it does not have enough customers to buy the products.

The company does not have enough customers to buy the products because it does not have enough money to advertise the products.

The company does not have enough money to advertise the products because it does not have enough money to pay the employees.

The company does not have enough money to pay the employees because it does not have enough customers to buy the products.

The company does not have enough customers to buy the products because it does not have enough money to advertise the products.

The company does not have enough money to advertise the products because it does not have enough money to pay the employees.

The company does not have enough money to pay the employees because it does not have enough customers to buy the products.

The company does not have enough customers to buy the products because it does not have enough money to advertise the products.

The company does not have enough money to advertise the products because it does not have enough money to pay the employees.

The company does not have enough money to pay the employees because it does not have enough customers to buy the products.

The company does not have enough customers to buy the products because it does not have enough money to advertise the products.

The company does not have enough money to advertise the products because it does not have enough money to pay the employees.

The company does not have enough money to pay the employees because it does not have enough customers to buy the products.

The company does not have enough customers to buy the products because it does not have enough money to advertise the products.

The company does not have enough money to advertise the products because it does not have enough money to pay the employees.

The company does not have enough money to pay the employees because it does not have enough customers to buy the products.

The company does not have enough customers to buy the products because it does not have enough money to advertise the products.

The company does not have enough money to advertise the products because it does not have enough money to pay the employees.

The company does not have enough money to pay the employees because it does not have enough customers to buy the products.

The company does not have enough customers to buy the products because it does not have enough money to advertise the products.

The company does not have enough money to advertise the products because it does not have enough money to pay the employees.

The company does not have enough money to pay the employees because it does not have enough customers to buy the products.

The company does not have enough customers to buy the products because it does not have enough money to advertise the products.

The company does not have enough money to advertise the products because it does not have enough money to pay the employees.

The company does not have enough money to pay the employees because it does not have enough customers to buy the products.

The company does not have enough customers to buy the products because it does not have enough money to advertise the products.

The company does not have enough money to advertise the products because it does not have enough money to pay the employees.

The company does not have enough money to pay the employees because it does not have enough customers to buy the products.

The company does not have enough customers to buy the products because it does not have enough money to advertise the products.

The company does not have enough money to advertise the products because it does not have enough money to pay the employees.

The company does not have enough money to pay the employees because it does not have enough customers to buy the products.

The company does not have enough customers to buy the products because it does not have enough money to advertise the products.

The company does not have enough money to advertise the products because it does not have enough money to pay the employees.

The company does not have enough money to pay the employees because it does not have enough customers to buy the products.

The company does not have enough customers to buy the products because it does not have enough money to advertise the products.

The company does not have enough money to advertise the products because it does not have enough money to pay the employees.

The company does not have enough money to pay the employees because it does not have enough customers to buy the products.

The company does not have enough customers to buy the products because it does not have enough money to advertise the products.

The company does not have enough money to advertise the products because it does not have enough money to pay the employees.

The company does not have enough money to pay the employees because it does not have enough customers to buy the products.

The company does not have enough customers to buy the products because it does not have enough money to advertise the products.

The company does not have enough money to advertise the products because it does not have enough money to pay the employees.

The company does not have enough money to pay the employees because it does not have enough customers to buy the products.

The company does not have enough customers to buy the products because it does not have enough money to advertise the products.

The company does not have enough money to advertise the products because it does not have enough money to pay the employees.

The company does not have enough money to pay the employees because it does not have enough customers to buy the products.

The company does not have enough customers to buy the products because it does not have enough money to advertise the products.

The company does not have enough money to advertise the products because it does not have enough money to pay the employees.

The company does not have enough money to pay the employees because it does not have enough customers to buy the products.

The company does not have enough customers to buy the products because it does not have enough money to advertise the products.

The company does not have enough money to advertise the products because it does not have enough money to pay the employees.

The company does not have enough money to pay the employees because it does not have enough customers to buy the products.

The company does not have enough customers to buy the products because it does not have enough money to advertise the products.

The company does not have enough money to advertise the products because it does not have enough money to pay the employees.

The company does not have enough money to pay the employees because it does not have enough customers to buy the products.

The company does not have enough customers to buy the products because it does not have enough money to advertise the products.

The company does not have enough money to advertise the products because it does not have enough money to pay the employees.

The company does not have enough money to pay the employees because it does not have enough customers to buy the products.

The company does not have enough customers to buy the products because it does not have enough money to advertise the products.

The company does not have enough money to advertise the products because it does not have enough money to pay the employees.

The company does not have enough money to pay the employees because it does not have enough customers to buy the products.

The company does not have enough customers to buy the products because it does not have enough money to advertise the products.

The company does not have enough money to advertise the products because it does not have enough money to pay the employees.

The company does not have enough money to pay the employees because it does not have enough customers to buy the products.

The company does not have enough customers to buy the products because it does not have enough money to advertise the products.

The company does not have enough money to advertise the products because it does not have enough money to pay the employees.