WHY WE ARE SUPPORTING GENERAL WILLIAM HASKELL IN THE COMING ELECTION FOR LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR

The membership of the Board of the National Civilian Defense, General William Haskell, who is the head of the Civilian Defense organization, is now being asked to support General Haskell in the election for Lieutenant Governor of the State of New Jersey.

We are asking our members to support General Haskell because he is the most qualified man for the position. He is a man of experience, has had a long and successful career in the Civilian Defense organization, and he is a man who has always been loyal to the Civilian Defense organization.

In conclusion, we are asking our members to support General Haskell for Lieutenant Governor because he is the most qualified man for the position and we believe he will do a better job than any other candidate.

ON SHOP STEWARDS

Shop Stewards are elected by the workers at an assembly line or by a group of workers at a plant. They are elected to represent the workers in their dealings with management. They are responsible for seeing that the workers' rights are protected and that the workers' grievances are handled fairly.

The first step in electing a Shop Steward is to hold a meeting of the workers to discuss the election. The meeting is usually held at the end of the day, or during a scheduled break. The workers are given the opportunity to speak and to vote for the person they want to be the Shop Steward.

After the election, the Shop Steward is responsible for representing the workers' interests to the management. They are responsible for negotiating with the management on issues such as wages, hours, and working conditions.

The Shop Steward is also responsible for keeping the workers informed about the company's policies and procedures. They are responsible for ensuring that the workers are aware of their rights and that they are treated fairly.

The Shop Steward is an important figure in the workplace, and it is important that they are elected by the workers. They are responsible for representing the workers' interests, and they are the link between the workers and the management.

ELECTRICAL...UNION...NEWS

This is the show of the season, and you can't afford to miss it! The show has everything you've been waiting for: action, adventure, and suspense. The storyline is gripping, and the acting is top-notch. This is a show that you won't want to miss.

The show is about a group of young people who are trying to save the world. They are up against a powerful villain who is threatening to destroy everything they hold dear. The young people band together to fight the villain and save the world.

The show is on this Sunday at 9 PM, and it's not to be missed. Make sure to tune in and catch every minute of this exciting show.