No Time Loss, UE Warns GE

The General Electric Co. has no right to instant time as long as the strikes from the service time of its employees, the General Executive Board of UE has warned the company.

A condition of the strike settlement would be the guarantee there would be no discrimination against the workers. The company's policy of not counting the strike period as marking employment records is close to discrimination, the union charged.

The UE Board made a check-up and could find no case of another company penalizing workers in this way for time lost on a strike.

Chairs Ordered

The last of the general membership meeting of Local 306 voted to purchase 500 steel chairs for use in the hall. The union hadn't bought chairs since it purchased 500 in 1957.

Union Gives $100 To Memorial Home

Local 301 has donated $100 to the Memorial Home for the Veterans of World War II. The organization in charge of the home has started a drive for $50,000 for the purpose of helping Gold Star mothers, wives, sisters, sons and daughters. The union itself is a portion of the Union St. donation to this cause. The $100 gift was voted at the June 14 membership meeting.

What Is PAC?

In view of all the newspaper misrepresentation about PAC, the UE News will publish the following to give the so-called citizens for a few facts. For in-"What Is PAC?"

The Executive Board of Local 301, represented by Robert Wagner, Senator James M. Heed and Congress- man Robert Rauch, "has spent every minute of your time on your costs" to have price controls continued for six months.

The message was sent immediately to produce the present high price of living.

With the United Brotherhood of America, Local 301, wrote half-page newspaper advertisements on the PAC's side. The advertisements are scheduled for July 1, 12 months ago.

Local 301 not only devotes its own regular time to the battle against price controls, but immediately made plans for a special broadcast including speakers from CIO, AFL and (Continued on page 8)

Check Your Pay For Visitors' Day

Many workers were drafted by their foremen to leave their jobs during preparations for the visitors' day at the GE plant. The union offered prize money to all Local 301 members who under the work the element of interest. Workers who missed work for the correctness of the event were paid for average earnings. Workers have been relieved about payment of day rules instead of average earnings.
