SAFEGUARD JOBS THROUGH THE 35 HOUR WORK WEEK

301 Unemployed Map Active Program

100 unemployed workers are engaged in a program of employment, sponsored by the UE, that provides temporary work for unemployed workers.

Downs Resigns Post, Board Names White

Downs, President of the UE, has resigned his position. The Board of Directors has appointed White as the new President.

Civil Rights

Meeting With Male

The union's executive board of Local 301 was scheduled to meet immediately after the call to the White House by Male.

Mole's Boulware Letter

Gill last week (the letter is anonymous) in the hands of the employees by layoffs. Despairing and short of personnel, the union is forced to take action.

Unemployed to Meet

There will be a meeting for unemployed workers at 9:30 to discuss the situation.

September 2, 1949

The Voice of Local 301

Schenectady, N.Y.

UE, R.S.A., M.W.A.

C.I.O.

Upstate UE Program Planned To Back Contract Demands

A meeting of 301 delegates from the UE and Washington's labor councils was held last week to discuss contract demands. The meeting was attended by delegates from twenty UE locals throughout the State.

301 Wins Again in Arbitration

Local 301 and the national UE again won another outstanding arbitration award. The arbitrator ruled that the company had violated the contract and ordered it to pay back wages.

Daily Work Plan

The daily work plan for the UE local 301 includes:

- Meeting with Mole
- Boulware letter
- Unemployed meeting

The UE local 301 is working towards a better working environment and improved wages for its members.
Real Nice!

301 Board Protests GE Friday Inventory
Despite a protest by the 301 Board last week, the company has said it will continue to take inventory this week on Friday, Sept. 28.

Acting for the board, House Ways and Means Committee's Harry O. Brown,文字不完整，无法继续

Selling a Lie

Spilling the beans on what the company’s plans are. The company is planning to sell off its inventory this week, and employees are being told that this is to comply with anti-trust regulations.

17,000 on Strike At Goodrich Plants
About 17,000 members of the United Rubber Workers, CIO, went on strike at Goodrich plants Oct. 12, the company said. The company has called in the National Labor Relations Board to investigate.

Update UE Meeting
(Continued from Page 3)
UE has the key for the strike to succeed and that is a strong resolve to continue to work for better conditions.

Mal's Letter

MAL'S LETTER

The most important thing that the union people can do to win the blowdown is to educate the public about the situation.

Factory Employment Declines in State

New York state's industrial production was down for the fifth consecutive month, according to a report issued Aug. 21 by the National Industrial Conference Board.

3,120 Awarded For Hand Injury

A worker's compensation award of $3,120 was paid to a worker who sustained a hand injury. The award went to a worker who lost a hand in a machine.

The Reason Prices Remain High

Why have prices stayed high? Industry has managed to keep prices up by not producing enough, thus creating a shortage in the market.

Political Action

This resolution on political action was adopted at the conference and is now being presented to the board for consideration.

U.S. Again Tones Down Unemployment Figures

In spite of criticism by some labor leaders, the government has not yet succeeded in significantly reducing unemployment figures.

10 Cent Raise

A 10 cent raise at Dependable Products Company, New York, was the first of the month for the workers, according to a report issued Aug. 21 by the National Industrial Conference Board.

Pensions' Meeting

The latest meeting of the pension committee will meet on Wednesday, Sept. 7, at the union hall.

Sloppy Typing

OFFICIAL NATIONAL UNION NEWS

P.S. We regret the error on the previous page. The correct number of members is 3,120, not 3,120 as indicated.

ATTENTION THE UNION MEETING

301 Board Protests GE Friday Inventory
Despite a protest by the 301 Board last week, the company has said it will continue to take inventory this week on Friday, Sept. 28.

Acting for the board, House Ways and Means Committee's Harry O. Brown,文字不完整，无法继续

Selling a Lie

Spilling the beans on what the company’s plans are. The company is planning to sell off its inventory this week, and employees are being told that this is to comply with anti-trust regulations.

17,000 on Strike At Goodrich Plants
About 17,000 members of the United Rubber Workers, CIO, went on strike at Goodrich plants Oct. 12, the company said. The company has called in the National Labor Relations Board to investigate.

Update UE Meeting
(Continued from Page 3)
UE has the key for the strike to succeed and that is a strong resolve to continue to work for better conditions.

Mal's Letter

MAL'S LETTER

The most important thing that the union people can do to win the blowdown is to educate the public about the situation.

Factory Employment Declines in State

New York state's industrial production was down for the fifth consecutive month, according to a report issued Aug. 21 by the National Industrial Conference Board.

3,120 Awarded For Hand Injury

A worker's compensation award of $3,120 was paid to a worker who sustained a hand injury. The award went to a worker who lost a hand in a machine.

The Reason Prices Remain High

Why have prices stayed high? Industry has managed to keep prices up by not producing enough, thus creating a shortage in the market.

Political Action

This resolution on political action was adopted at the conference and is now being presented to the board for consideration.

U.S. Again Tones Down Unemployment Figures

In spite of criticism by some labor leaders, the government has not yet succeeded in significantly reducing unemployment figures.

10 Cent Raise

A 10 cent raise at Dependable Products Company, New York, was the first of the month for the workers, according to a report issued Aug. 21 by the National Industrial Conference Board.

Pensions' Meeting

The latest meeting of the pension committee will meet on Wednesday, Sept. 7, at the union hall.