Nearly $2000 Raised For March-of-Dimes

With a final tally in already, the Local 391 collection in the shops for the March-of-Dimes drive is expected to pass the $2000 mark.

About 100, in charge of accounting, has asked that all concerns who have contributions to report bring the money to the office of the union office.

President William Stewart's notice, Bills 44 and 50, to the duration list with 504/3. Newstrom's notice, Bills 41 and 58, was rated as $32.96 and Shop Chairman goes back. Bill 305, tallied in 540.25 for third place.

Other donations reported by Tuesday afternoon through various sources were:

W. H. Bredel
Bills 44, 46 and 50
$20.06

D. J. Flower
Bills 27, 31, 35, 86, E, C, 9545
R, 317, 283 and 109

Michael Tufts
Bills 14, 15, 17 and 19
$112.95

D. D. Davis
Bills 7, 8, 10, 11, 12, 17, 18, 20, 21
$108.50

Edward Wilson
Bills 29, 32, 38, 19, 47, 50, 52, 71, 75, 78
$110.75

L. H. Bauer
Bills 29, 42, 50, 89 and 173
$46.50

Alfred Veltz
Bills 23, 25, 44, 47, 71, 75, 78, 86 and 254
$90.05

Stanley Roberts, Shop Chairmen
Bills 60, 62
$50.00

Eugene LeFleche
Bills 42, 32, 100 and 140
$58.50

Anthony Villars
Bills 11, 18 and 196

George Jacoby
Bills 1, 16, 27 and 466
$84.75

Henry Brear
Bills 15, 37, 54, 60, 81, 87, 207, 290
$13.45

Arthur Boege
Bills 29, 32, 38 and 68
$114.50

Charles McCarthy
Electric-Petal Powerhouse, 13, 1672

John James
Bills 19, 29, 26, 33
$43.00

Walter M. Bredel
Bills 70, 75 and 86
$30.00

President Andrew Peterson represents Mills County at the Secretary-County Board-District committee.

Washington Hearing

The National U/I will present testi- mony to the Senate Commerce Com- mittee on Labor and Education at Washington today as a part of the United States Senate's investigation into the effect of the National Defense Program on the economy.

Richard Opens Door

Three workers who thought they would have to work to get recognition of their union claims presented to the company store night before last. A total of $38.85 in wages was paid for the production of songs. "Open the door," said Richard to the manager. "I'll buy you a case of beer at 2 a.m."

Women's Meeting

All women members of Local 391 are invited to attend the women's meeting on Tuesday at 7:00 p.m. Chairman, Fred Boege, will announce the day's work and call for a speaker.

301 on Air

The weekly workers' broadcast of Local 391 is at 10:00 a.m. every Monday on station WXYT.

Contract Negotiations

On Saturday, Local 391 held a meeting between the National Labor Relations Board and the company to discuss the wage scale for the next year. The negotiations were continued until 7:00 p.m. and the final agreement was reached.

Turbine Group To Present Pay Demands Today

A demand by all Turbine Division members for a proper pay increase is being made by the company's personnel department. The meeting will be held at 301 Union hall. The company plank will present its position.

Hits New Attack On Free Speech

President Andrew Peterson of Local 391 has written a letter to Mayor Mills Def Keesh asking him to investigate the source behind the proposed ordinance to prohibit the use of sound trucks and loudspeaker equipment on city streets.

The ordinance was introduced on Monday night by the City Council. The question of the proposed ordinance to prohibit the use of sound trucks and loudspeaker equipment on city streets.

What's The Answer?

The president of the Turbine Division, which meets with the company in Big 4 against the proposal, isscheduled for March 10.

Three workers have recently been suspended from the company stores.

Union Broadcast

Local 391's weekly radio program will be at 11:00 a.m. on Monday morning on station WXYT.
Here's Proof UE Does Real Job for Workers; Saturday Evening Post Picks It for Attack

As new contract negotiations start all over the country, readers will be delighted to find proof that the General Electric Co. has done a yeoman's job in keeping the United Electrical Workers in line. This month, a strike by the United Electrical Workers was the headline of the attack.

CIO and UE Groups Hit Albany Action

The action of Governor Dewey and Republican legislators in trying to get a vote on the CIO by the New York State senate Feb. 15 is likely to be the head of a headline in the Albany State Times. The effort of the CIO to maintain its influence and control over the United Electrical Workers was the subject of a meeting at the Albany State Times.

Turbine Workers to State Demands

(Continued from Page 1)

of the new, permanent organization. Charles E. White, a former CIO Executive Board member, was named v-p president. He retired last December from Ge. In his new position, he will be in charge of the company's power division.

GE Pensioners Organize; Back Union Demand for Higher Pensions

GE pensioners recently organized a pensioners association to support the company's demand for a higher pension. The association was formed by a group of GE pensioners who have been active in the company's pension plan. The group is now looking for more members to help support the pension plan.

Movie Program

The movie program, sponsored by the United Electrical Workers, is scheduled to be shown at the union hall on the second Tuesday of each month. The program features films on labor and social issues. All members are encouraged to attend.