New UE-GEC Pact Would Mean 8c to 13c Pay Hike For Most Local 301 Members If OK'd

The new agreement arrived at between the company and UE will provide substantial GE workers with wage increases ranging from 8c to 13c an hour. This boost will equal 12.5%-14% over an average 2-year period, or a total of $2.21 an hour will get a larger increase in terms of dollars and cents. The negotiated wage increase is calculated in two parts. First there is the 8c “improvement factor” boost, which must amount to at least 9c. In addition there is a cost-of-living increase of 3.5% based on the Bureau of Labor Statistics Consumer Price Index. Actually, this figure will probably be raised slightly, because the wage increases under the new agreement of the series of existing collective bargaining agreements will be added to the base of the local, U.S. index, with the 8c wage increase being taken from the July 1 index. The local union, that made public, showed a 7c rise in living costs in 1 year July 15. Payment of the increase will be effective at least 90 days in the next 9 months. Employers have the company be lifted this increase in which the increase is actually been the local will be by applying to the company.

New agreement also provides in wage increases in the months after this one. The company will provide at least 3% increase for the two weeks calendar year which every worker will get next year.
