The 150th Fight for American Trade Unionism

The Birth of the Industrial Union

State-Wide Strike Demands More War Work

EXTRA!
Sales Tax Killed

Conference on Rents Called

State C.I.O. Unites for War

"All that harms labor is treason to America. No issue can be drawn between these two. If any man wants to make money, let him do it; if any man wants to make America great and a better land, he is in a fool. There is no America without labor, and to destroy the one is to rob the other."

ABRAHAM LINCOLN

ELECTRICAL UNION NEWS

Vol. 4

SCHENECTADY, N. Y. — JUNE 24, 1932

Page 4

The official opening of the United Steel Workers of America's first convention was held at the Menominee Hotel, Chicago, June 24, 1932. The convention was opened by WM. J. Deutch, the general secretary-treasurer of the organization.

The convention adjourned at 5 a.m. on Friday, June 29, 1932, after approximately 10 hours of discussion.

The convention was addressed by WM. J. Deutch, the general secretary-treasurer of the organization.

The convention adopted the following resolutions:

1. That the convention of the United Steel Workers of America is the only union in the world that is entirely separate from the political party.
2. That the convention of the United Steel Workers of America is the only union in the world that is entirely separate from the political party.
3. That the convention of the United Steel Workers of America is the only union in the world that is entirely separate from the political party.

The convention adjourned at 5 a.m. on Friday, June 29, 1932, after approximately 10 hours of discussion.

The convention was addressed by WM. J. Deutch, the general secretary-treasurer of the organization.

The convention adopted the following resolutions:

1. That the convention of the United Steel Workers of America is the only union in the world that is entirely separate from the political party.
2. That the convention of the United Steel Workers of America is the only union in the world that is entirely separate from the political party.
3. That the convention of the United Steel Workers of America is the only union in the world that is entirely separate from the political party.