Speedy Action Asked On Job Questionnaires

Committees wishing to submit claims that raise an issue they represent are out of the question and will have to face the facts and act. The Board seems to be trying to avoid the question of whether or not a worker is classified as an individual or a group. It is important to the committees that claims be substantiated with supporting evidence.

Rumor Factory Is Busy Again

Another rumor of a new contract that could increase the wage rate by $25 per hour has been circulating this week. The rumor apparently originated with the so-called "Democratic Action" group and has been spreading quickly. The Board will address this rumor at its next meeting.

GE Wants to Drop Profit Sharing Plan

The General Electric Co. announced today that it plans to discontinue the Profit Sharing Plan effective April 1. The plan has been in operation for six years and has been a major source of income for the company. However, the company feels that the plan is no longer financially viable.

301 Board Joins Protest Against Barron Robeson

The New 301 Board has joined the protest against the actions of the old 301 Board. The new Board feels that the previous actions were inappropriate and that the new Board should have the opportunity to make its own decisions.

Local 301 Approves GE Contract; Must Defend It Against Congress

Members of Local 301 voted unanimously to approve the new GE contract at an emergency meeting Monday night. They gave a standing vote of thanks to Leo Jordan, local business agent and a member of the national negotiating committee, and to the international union officials for their work.

Field Day June 29

Leland Stone Broadcast

You can hear Leland Stone at 7:30 p.m. on WNY, and at 11:30 p.m. on WYCA and WYCA-FM (1490).
Organizing Drive

Witnesses of U.S. Senate for signing up the recent new members by May 1 in the Local 93 organizing drive will be reviewed at the membership meeting May 31 at the union hall. The test period is a $100 bond; second prize, a $50 voucher; and third prize, a $25 voucher.

How Does He Keep His Face Straight?

Charles E. Wilson, GE president, was one of the 20 business leaders recently honored by the International Association for outstanding service.

The statement signed by Wilson and others, quoted in the International Association bulletin, shows "generous and sympathetic" by giving prices and thus saving the country from a serious hangover.

A GE advertisement appeared on Wednesday, May 4, saying, "One man, one woman, one child, one home, one dollar, one vote is in the interest of the people.

UE District 3 Urges 24 Hour Stoppage

The session of the UE District 3 Council April 24 at Utica was immediately sent to the local president to protest against anti-labor legislation now in Congress. The resolution urged that this be done at once.

A proposed new section on members making statements to the press or industrial relations representatives is strongly opposed by the UE District 3 Council.

The UE District 3 Council has adopted a resolution that the new section on members making statements to the press or industrial relations representatives is strongly opposed by the UE District 3 Council.

Speed is Requested

The UE District 3 Council requested that the new section on members making statements to the press or industrial relations representatives is strongly opposed by the UE District 3 Council.

Softball Team

The UE District 3 Council requested that the new section on members making statements to the press or industrial relations representatives is strongly opposed by the UE District 3 Council.

Visits to Washington by CIO Delegations

CIO delegations to Washington against the anti-labor bills have a 24-hour stoppage serving as a protest against the anti-labor bills.

Anti-Union Rumors

Rumors circulating around a series of protests are an old method of trying to get the union members to leave the union. It is said that the members are doing this, and the union members are not leaving because it is a protest against the anti-labor bills that have been introduced to the anti-labor bills.

Some of the members have beenrefused by local union leaders, but they have reappeared by another method. Some have been refused by local union leaders, but they have reappeared by another method.