UE Preparing to Win '50 Contract Gains

GE, 'Imitation UE' Delay T-H Hearing

The T-Hearing Labor Board has set June 15th for the hearing after it was dropped on in New York this week, with the General Electric company making no offer by offering long terms on union question. The "imitation UE" was taking full advantage of this to the company's chagrin, signs of which appear, and plant's is excluded from notional strike, though it was in effect for some time. The company declared that the campaign was not in favor of the union, even though it was conducted by the company. The company's refusal to recognize the union was stated to be its genuine aim, but the company's refusal to recognize the union was stated to be its genuine aim, but the company's refusal to recognize the union was stated to be its genuine aim, but the company's refusal to recognize the union was stated to be its genuine aim, but the company's refusal to recognize the union was stated to be its genuine aim.

The hearing was brought on by the union's claim for recognition of the union. The union has been in the building industry for at least ten years, and the company's refusal to recognize the union was stated to be its genuine aim.

The hearing was brought on by the union's claim for recognition of the union. The union has been in the building industry for at least ten years, and the company's refusal to recognize the union was stated to be its genuine aim.

Check-off at Erie

Over 50 per cent of the members of the 10th of the GE locals at Erie, Penn., have signed new GE union cards, and the union has signed a check-off agreement. The union's agreement with GE officials was signed in December. The agreement provides for a 50-cent-a-week check-off, which will be held in the union's office.

Carey Boys Don't Worry About Facts

The past week saw more victories for the UE over the "imitation UE" and the Carey brothers in particular, as the union's efforts were focused on the keeping of the union's gains. The union's efforts were focused on the keeping of the union's gains, and the union's efforts were focused on the keeping of the union's gains. The union's efforts were focused on the keeping of the union's gains, and the union's efforts were focused on the keeping of the union's gains.

500 Attend Conference On Program

How many of the UE delegates from the local and 130 member of the UE in each state, plus the UE in each state, plus the UE in each state, plus the UE in each state, plus the UE in each state, plus the UE in each state, plus the UE in each state, plus the UE in each state, plus the UE in each state, plus the UE in each state, plus the UE in each state, plus the UE in each state, plus the UE in each state.
Carey Contract Claims Strictly Phony

In the center of Shubert's ever-erupting sets, the Celebrate's "Carey" was the highlight of the evening. The audience was thoroughly entertained by the parade of comedians, leading ladies, and other stars who took the stage to pay tribute to the man who had captivated them for years. The celebration ended with a grand finale, featuring a fireworks display over the theater. It was a night to remember, with the audience leaving with smiles on their faces.

Jaddons Protest To GE On Leaves

Business Agent Joe Johnson is a bitter pill to Manager Lewis Jones in his protest against the layoff of 400 employees at the GE plant in Long Island City. Johnson is the representative for the workers and is outraged that the company is layoffing men and women who have been loyal employees for years. He is demanding that the company rehire these workers and give them their jobs back.

Kelly and Machina Speak at Pittsburgh

President William J. Kelly of EIU said the company will not make a decision on the Machina proposal until the workers have had a chance to express their views. Kelly said that the company is committed to the workers and will not make a decision until they have had a chance to express their views.

Turbine Stewards To Meet Tuesday

All Turbine Division stewards were called to a meeting by turbine chairman to discuss the company's decision to lay off 200 employees. The stewards met to discuss their concerns and to express their views on the company's decision.

That Human Touch

The human touch is a vital element in any company's success. It is the extra step that shows the workers that the company cares about them. The company's leadership should be more involved in the workers' lives and take the time to listen to their concerns. This will help to build a stronger relationship between the company and its workers.

Facts on Craft Rates and Bargaining

The union has several goals when it comes to craft rates and bargaining. One of the goals is to ensure that the workers are fairly compensated for their work. The union also wants to ensure that the company is fairly compensated for its work. This will help to ensure that the company and the workers are treated fairly and that both parties are satisfied with the outcome of the negotiations.

11 Members Expelled

For Assaion Actions

The Local 91 stewardship meeting on June 10 delegates unanimously to expel 11 members from the union for involvement in illegal activities and for acting in a manner that is detrimental to the union. The stewards voted to expel these members after reviewing their actions and determining that they are no longer fit to be part of the union.

Enrollment

The IAM was recently informed that the local union had lost 17 members in the last three months. The IAM is concerned about this trend and is working to re-enroll these members. The IAM is also working to increase enrollment in general by improving the membership drive and providing incentives for new members to join the union.