Union Wins $34,000 For Injured GE Workers

In the last six or seven years, hundreds of small and large accidents and injuries have occurred at the General Electric Company's noble factories, according to the United Electrical, Radio and Machine Workers of America, AFL-W, in the recently concluded trial of the company's case in the U.S. District Court in New Haven. The money was awarded as a result of a settlement of the case.

The injuries included broken bones, cuts, bruises, and other minor injuries. The settlement was reached after a court hearing, and the company was ordered to pay the workers $34,000 for their injuries.

Union Helps Save Albany Man's Life

Governor Nelson A. Rockefeller, in a gesture of support for the state's industries, has donated $1,000 to the Albany Man's Life Fund. The fund, established to aid workers who have suffered serious injuries or illnesses, is managed by a board of trustees consisting of business and labor leaders.

OPEN DRIVE FOR SECOND TV CHANNEL

A campaign for a second television channel in the Capital District area was launched on September 15 by the U.S. Department of Commerce, in cooperation with the Federal Communications Commission. The campaign is being conducted by the FCC, which is responsible for the regulation of television broadcasting in the United States.

WASHINGTON, D.C. — For the first time this year, the FCC has given permission for a second television channel in the Capital District area. The channel is expected to begin operations early next year.

The FCC's decision follows a long debate over the issue of whether a second television channel should be added to the Capital District area's existing channel.

Pay Talks Go On With Westinghouse

Pay talks are under way between Westinghouse Electric Corporation and its unionized workers, according to reports from the company.

Bad Management Messed Industrial Control Jobs

Bad management and worker dissatisfaction were cited as the main reasons for the decline in the number of industrial control jobs at the Westinghouse Electric Corporation's plant in Schenectady.

Can Pay $6

The wage freeze has been in effect for six months and the United Electrical, Radio and Machine Workers of America, AFL-CIO, has been unable to negotiate a new contract.

Negotiating Committee Makes Bonus and Cost-of-Living Proposals Which Do Not Need Approval Of Wage Board

The General Electric Company has proposed a $40 Christmas bonus and an immediate cost-of-living increase, neither of which would require Wage Stabilization Board approval.

Cost of Living Up 20% Since 1950 Wage Freeze

The cost of living has increased by more than 20 percent since the wage freeze was put in place in 1950, according to figures compiled by the United Electrical, Radio and Machine Workers of America, AFL-CIO.

Xmas Bonus Put To Ge

The U.S. Department of Labor has proposed a 20 percent increase in the cost of living bonus, which would be paid to workers in the Capital District area.
WHAT WILL STEEL GET?

With the steelworkers' key leaders in the negotiations—their representatives from the companies and the union leaders—now in a position to make offers, it appears likely that the steel companies will offer wage increases in the range of 5 to 7 percent. This is in line with the offers made by the companies in the past, and it is expected that the steelworkers will accept these offers. The steel companies are expected to make a counteroffer, and the negotiations will continue until a new contract is reached.

As GE Sees It...

Wages

PROFITS

Things Are Not What They Seem

Says GE's Mr. Boulware In Ad

The above cartoon was inspired by a recent GE ad which pictured wages on a peak and money in a valley, the idea being that wages are higher than they seem and that money is lower than it looks. However, the ad was designed to be misleading.

When wages are plotted against money, the same cartoon is depicted.

In other words, your pay check only seems 2 percent higher than the new income tax went into effect. You only seem to be paying more for more and more everything else.

We can thank Mr. Boulware, GE vice president in charge of Employees and Plant Community Relations, for straightening out your pay check. He says that wages are in fact lower than they seem.

He says that wages are in fact lower than they seem.

He might be an idea to take the Boulware ad that is being sold next year you have to make a profit. It includes a graph which shows living costs up in the past 10 years.

On the company's figures, wages were up 13 percent in 1955.

Mr. Boulware's figures on wages are in fact lower than they seem.

Unless the company's figures are made available by the employees, the wage figures are not available for sale.

Mr. Boulware's figures on wages are in fact lower than they seem.

He says that wages are in fact lower than they seem.

He might be an idea to take the Boulware ad that is being sold next year you have to make a profit. It includes a graph which shows living costs up in the past 10 years.

On the company's figures, wages were up 13 percent in 1955.