Price Committee Goes Into Action

Louis M. Rosenthal, organizer for the Parsons Union, is cooperating actively with Local 36 in plans for obtaining firm products for 361 to sell in its stores. The blowup membership meeting of 361 voted to buy fresh stock in an effort to get sufficient supplies.

At meeting with the 361 executive board to discuss plans for getting sufficient supplies for stores, Rosenthal worked out a cooperative plan with 361 in an effort to get sufficient supplies.

The trip showed the possibility of obtaining鸡蛋和鸡肉 in the near future. Parsons and the committee were voted to get in touch with the Parsons cooperative in Troy, N.Y.

---

ELECTRICAL UNION NEWS
September 29, 1947

Meet Three New Shop Stewards

There are three new shop stewards taking part in the shop. It membership meeting of Local 361 is held in the Electric Co-operative, 361 Main St., by Robert W. Neubauer, Ed. 66. They were sworn in by George Waller, presiding.

---

It Was a Hot Case All the Way Round

Prompt action of Shop Steward H. J. Smith in Edg. 58 saved a worker from a possible injury. As a worker working on a machine, he was hit by a machine on his arm and was taken to the hospital. The worker who was hit was out for several days and is now recovering.

---

Eight Members Added to PAC Committee

The Executive Board has added the following members to the PAC committee: Fred Rosenthal, Henry Friederich, Joseph Reish, Fred Schrader, Walter Sturmer, William Taphorn, George Baur and William Washam. The original members of the PAC committee are: the union president, vice-president, business agent, recording secretary, treasurer and shop steward.

---

Dollar and Sense Reasons
For Supporting PAC Drive

Ten Years at 6% under the Wagner Act

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Year</th>
<th>1937</th>
<th>1947</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1937</td>
<td>6%</td>
<td>6%</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1938</td>
<td>6%</td>
<td>6%</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1939</td>
<td>6%</td>
<td>6%</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1940</td>
<td>6%</td>
<td>6%</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1941</td>
<td>6%</td>
<td>6%</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1942</td>
<td>6%</td>
<td>6%</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1943</td>
<td>6%</td>
<td>6%</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1944</td>
<td>6%</td>
<td>6%</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1945</td>
<td>6%</td>
<td>6%</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1946</td>
<td>6%</td>
<td>6%</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1947</td>
<td>6%</td>
<td>6%</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Three Months under the Taft-Hartley Act

The Executive Board has voted to extend arbitration of the labor dispute.

---

Arbitration Is Asked in Lunch Hour Dispute

The Executive Board has voted to extend arbitration of the labor dispute.

Shop steward, Ray L. Eck, in Edg. 56, was given a warning notice recently because he had a group of workers talking about the future of the company. The workers were members of the union and were told to leave the factory. The company told the workers that they had a right to talk about the future of the company. The workers were told to leave the factory.

---

Three Under the Taft-Hartley Act

Four workers were given warning notices recently because they had a group of workers talking about the future of the company. The workers were members of the union and were told to leave the factory. The company told the workers that they had a right to talk about the future of the company. The workers were told to leave the factory.

Give Me Today To PAC Keep The PAC Dollars Rolling

The Executive Board of Local 361 has called for an intensive campaign for registration and for the collection of voluntary dollar contributions for PAC today and tomorrow.

---

GIVE ME TODAY TO PAC KEEP THE PAC DOLLARS ROLLING

The Executive Board of Local 361 has called for an intensive campaign for registration and for the collection of voluntary dollar contributions for PAC today and tomorrow.

---

The Executive Board of Local 361 has called for an intensive campaign for registration and for the collection of voluntary dollar contributions for PAC today and tomorrow.

---

The Executive Board of Local 361 has called for an intensive campaign for registration and for the collection of voluntary dollar contributions for PAC today and tomorrow.

---

The Executive Board of Local 361 has called for an intensive campaign for registration and for the collection of voluntary dollar contributions for PAC today and tomorrow.

---
Officer Reelected By UE Convention

By a vote of 5,921 to 1,064, the convention re-elected Local 301 secretary-treasurer Albert J. Fitzgibbon as president of the UE. The resolution was made by Local 301 members at the convention.

The convention also elected James Matles as secretary-treasurer and Albert De Vir as local organizer.

The convention held its first meeting at the Empire Hotel in New York City on October 3, 1947.

Local 301 Orders 1,500 Dozen Eggs

Local 301 has ordered 1,500 dozen eggs to be delivered to its members. The eggs will be delivered on October 10, 1947.

Cross-Section of a Turbine Division Meeting last at 39,000. The workers reported that they were working 80 hours a week.

Why PAC?

The PAC is a labor union that represents workers in the turbine division. The union's main goal is to improve working conditions and wages for its members.

Pacse Debates Against T-Law

The Local 301 bargaining committee met with representatives of the Turbine Division to discuss the proposed T-Law. The committee Members are: Albert De Vir, secretary-treasurer; James Matles, local organizer; and Stanley Bishop, treasurer.

Cross-Section of a Turbine Division Meeting last at 39,000. The workers reported that they were working 80 hours a week.

PAC Money

The PAC is a labor union that represents workers in the turbine division. The union's main goal is to improve working conditions and wages for its members.

Pensioners Benefit from Union

The United Steelworkers of America has agreed to provide pension benefits to retired workers in the turbine division.

The resolution was made by Local 301 members at the convention.

The convention held its first meeting at the Empire Hotel in New York City on October 3, 1947.