Proposed Rules For Meeting

By unanimous vote of the 301 Executive Board, the following rules concerning the conduct of membership meetings will be reconsidered in the 301 membership meeting on Oct. 28 and 29.

1. Any member who desires to propose an entirely new matter shall have his name placed on the second ballot for matters to be voted on at the meeting.

There must be an end to the routine attendance of the last second shift meeting, when some few hours still remaining makes it impossible for the second shift to have their own discussions.

The Executive Board therefore rules:

"Proposed Rules For Meeting"

Tough Guy

In a move to protect the rights of all employees, the 301 Executive Board has approved a new proposal that will change the way meetings are conducted. The new rules aim to improve the efficiency of the meetings and ensure that all members have an opportunity to participate.

For a long time, it has been necessary to conduct the meetings in a timely manner and with a high degree of efficiency. The new rules will help to achieve this goal by ensuring that the meetings are conducted in a fair and impartial manner.

The rules are as follows:

1. Any member who desires to propose an entirely new matter shall have his name placed on the second ballot for matters to be voted on at the meeting.

2. The meeting shall be conducted by a chairperson elected by the members present.

3. All members present shall be allowed to speak for a maximum of ten minutes.

4. The meeting shall be adjourned at 9:30 p.m.

The Executive Board believes that these rules will help to improve the efficiency of the meetings and ensure that all members have an opportunity to participate.

Unemployment Office To Be Open Tomorrow

The 301 Executive Board has approved a new proposal that will change the way unemployment benefits are administered. The new rules aim to improve the efficiency of the unemployment benefits system and ensure that all members are treated fairly.
