Fitzpatrick, Carey-Block Leader, Tries To Disrupt Westinghouse Negotiations

Effects of Richard F. Fitzpatrick, leader in the Carey-Block faction, to disrupt Westinghouse contract negotiations will be decided today at the annual meeting of Westinghouse workers, including Local 401 at Pittsburgh, Local 402 and other Westinghouse locals, which Fitzpatrick has called to meet in Pittsburgh. Fitzpatrick has been critical of the negotiations of the Westinghouse Contract Board. This group, consisting of the same as the GE Contract Board, is made up of negotiators from the United Electrical and Machine Workers Union and the Westinghouse management. The group is scheduled to meet today in Pittsburgh.

Bouwarte Thinks Up New Bedtime Story

Last month, John Bouwarte, who has been the target of many of the charges made by Fitzpatrick, was transferred to the Westinghouse plant in Pittsfield, Mass. Bouwarte had been an active supporter of the Carey-Block faction in the negotiations. He was transferred to Pittsfield to avoid further controversy.

Changes Plugged

In Lay-off Methods

Walter Burton, local president of the United Electrical and Machine Workers Union, was placed in charge of the Westinghouse plant in the Pittsfield area. Burton has been a strong supporter of the Fitzpatrick faction and has been involved in many of the negotiations.

Children will Like field Day Program

David Wright, an elementary school teacher, was placed in charge of the Westinghouse plant in Pittsfield. Wright has been involved in many of the negotiations and has been critical of the Fitzpatrick faction.

GE Negotiations

Negotiations have been going on for several months with the United Electrical and Machine Workers Union and the Westinghouse management. The negotiations are expected to continue for several more weeks.

Unemployment figure

The unemployment figure for the year ending December 31, 1959, was 2.2 percent. The figure is based on the number of people unemployed in the Westinghouse plant in Pittsfield, Mass.

CUT HOURS AND RAISE PAY TO SAFEGUARD JOBS

The United Electrical and Machine Workers Union has threatened to strike if the company does not agree to cut hours and raise pay to safeguard jobs.

Vol. 7 - No. 22
SCHENECTADY, NEW YORK
June 15, 1959

Jandreau and Hodges Head Delegates

Carey-Block Group Loses In 301 Vote

Bertine, Jandreau, Hodges, Head Delegates

The Carey-Block group lost a 301 vote on their proposal for a strike vote. The group had hoped to use the vote to disrupt the negotiations.

Did You Know?

During the last three months of 1959, there were 25 deaths among Westinghouse employees. The deaths were due to various causes, including accidents, disease, and natural causes.

Report More Lay-Offs

At Plant In Fast Week

Locals 401 and 402 at the Westinghouse plant in Pittsfield, Mass., have announced plans to lay off more workers next week. The layoffs are expected to affect about 100 workers.

Strife Victory

Announcement of the Westinghouse plant was rejected by the United Electrical and Machine Workers Union. The union had been negotiating for a new contract for several months.
301 Fights Move to Downgrade Work
Of Boring Mill Operators in Turbine

A Turbine Division plan to downgrade part of the boring work in the Turbine Division is being opposed by the 301 Committee, which has been meeting in the Union Hall. The company had been trying to downsize the work in the Turbine Division, but the 301 Committee has been fighting against it.

Tht-Hal Hartley

Shift to Smear by Board

Board Condemns smear by Furlilro

A smear campaign started in the United States against this work on the Turbine Hal Hartley, with the TUEF Turbine Division forming an organization against the smear tactics of the TUEF Turbine Hal. A smear campaign was started against the TUEF Turbine Division itself, which supposedly supports the TUEF Turbine Hal. These smear campaigns include claims of bad intentions, poor treatment, and other negative and misleading information.

Union Writes Male

Again on MBA Plan

Board Condemns smear by Furlilro

A smear campaign against the TUEF Turbine Division was started by the Board of Directors of the United States, attacking the company with malicious and false statements.

301 Committee Meets with Company

On Machinist Apprenticeship Situation

The judgment of Machinist apprenticeship opportunities and the current situation of the Turbine Division is being reviewed by the 301 Committee.

Union Voice Against I.W.W.

Workers of the Ideal Electric Company in Minneapolis, Minn., recently in the Turbine Hal Hartley subdivision, have been fighting against the downgrading of work. The company had been trying to downsize the work in the Turbine Division, but the 301 Committee has been fighting against it.

Buyout Policies

Best U.E. Policies

The Turbine Division, as reported by the United States, has a buyout policy that is not in line with the Turbine Hal Hartley subdivision. The company had been trying to downsize the work in the Turbine Division, but the 301 Committee has been fighting against it.

Textile Union Frowns

On Skiing Pay Raise

The Textile Workers Union has a policy that is not in line with the Turbine Hal Hartley subdivision. The company had been trying to downsize the work in the Turbine Division, but the 301 Committee has been fighting against it.

Strike Wine Race

A number of wine advertisements, including those from Eu, were published in the New York Times, which was a departure from the company's usual style.