IUE Tries New Maneuvers To End GE Losing Streak

In an obvious attempt to avoid further crushing defeats by GE workers, the IUE-CIO said this week it filed "unfair labor practice" charges against GE's Personnel Management.

Nine Win 10% Pay Boost in Welded Products

Nine wins in welding. But they'll have to wait. Several key negotiations have since been settled.

TAKES MIKE

Charles Putnam, USW area representative, said that the new contract will be a "fantastic bargain" for the workers involved.

Urge All to Attend November Meeting for Dues Hike Vote

IUE Local 344 members were urged to attend the Nov. 3 meeting in order to take full advantage of the opportunity to vote on the proposed dues increase.

Seven Women Get Higher Pay Rate

Seven women were boosted in pay rate to 35% a year. The same raises will be paid to the union.

Rigged BLS Index Cuts Pay Increase

Shrowing eggs, June 1, is a dominant feature of the BLS pay figures. By rigging the figures, the government can alter the pay increase for workers in different industries. This is accomplished by altering the weight of the figures.

District 3 Elects Andreau and Mastiani to Top Posts

Two officers of District 3 were elected Sunday. Ten leadership posts in District 3, which group together 35,000 workers in upstate New York.

Jubilant State Central President Joe Jones, who was elected to second term, said he is confident of his ability to continue to lead the union.

IUE Accepts Pact Four Weeks Late

IUE-CIO members learned this week that they accepted the collective bargaining agreement of their district, the last to be signed.

URGE ALL TO ATTEND NOVEMBER MEETING FOR DUES HIKE VOTE

All IUE Local 344 members were urged to attend the Nov. 3 meeting in order to take full advantage of the opportunity to vote on the proposed dues increase.

ONE WEEK TO GO

Several members of the union have already begun preparations for the Nov. 3 meeting. They have been warned not to be misled by any attempt to delay the vote.

Rigged BLS Index Cuts Pay Increase

Shewing eggs, June 1, is a dominant feature of the BLS pay figures. By rigging the figures, the government can alter the pay increase for workers in different industries. This is accomplished by altering the weight of the figures.

district 3 elects andreau and mastiani to top posts

Two officers of District 3 were elected Sunday. Ten leadership posts in District 3, which group together 35,000 workers in upstate New York.

Jubilant State Central President Joe Jones, who was elected to second term, said he is confident of his ability to continue to lead the union.
Call for Protest Of Matlack Attack

Sinking in depth of timedness, it appears that the group secreted under the veil of protest last week by the International Union of Employed Mechanics is arriving in Washington for its major purpose. A demonstration through the streets this afternoon is scheduled. The union released the following statement:

The union has called a demonstration to be held in Washington, D.C., on October 31, 1950, to protest against the actions of a number of employers who have been violating the rights of workers. The demonstration is expected to attract thousands of union members from across the country.

Two Leave 501 Board

All Agreements on table at meeting of the 501 Board of Trustees. The next meeting of the board is scheduled for November 1, 1950.

Two Power Sources

A new source of power for the city has been announced. The company that will provide the new power source is expected to be operational by the end of the year.

Business Organizes

The business section of the union has organized to fight the anticipated strike of warehouse workers. The strike is expected to begin next week.

Princeton Gave Views to 301

The Princeton University student newspaper, The Daily Princetonian, has published an article discussing the recent strike at the University of Pennsylvania and its implications for Princeton University.

Kearney Gives Views to 301

Ken Kearney, a labor leader in the area, has given views to 301 about the current labor situation. He discussed the need for better working conditions and the importance of organizing workers.