COME TO THE MEETING TO DEFEND THE UNION

NIGHT'S MEETING WILL BE CALLED UPON TO DEFEND THE INTERESTS OF THE WORKERS

AND HERE IS WHAT CAREY AND HIS LOCAL UPRIGHTLY DID FOR YOU

1. Give up the contract. Turn back the clock 14 years and start fighting for a contract.
2. Split the GE workers so the company can do what it pleases.
3. A new union name, and you're a 'fake' if you don't like it.
4. A set of high-priced top officials who have never negotiated a contract, but who will tell the workers what they say and what they think, what contracts they shall have and what they shall strike.
5. The right of members to pay dues makes no decisions.
6. Standardized job rates, progression and transfer rates.
7. Night shift bonus of 10 percent.
8. Smoking privileges on the job.
10. Pensions gradually improved through union pressure.
11. Free expert legal service on workmen's compensation and unemployment insurance.
12. A Grievance Procedure Available To Every Worker Every Day.

WE WILL EXTEND AND ADVANCE THIS PROGRAM BECAUSE IT IS RUN BY THE MEMBERSHIP AND THE OFFICERS TAKE THEIR ORDERS FROM THE MEMBERSHIP CLIQUE.

Flights for UE, the real union. Keep the Carey-Krise-Piccolo stodge away.

COME TO THE MEETINGS: 1st and 3rd shift, 7:30 tonight at the Armory. Second shift 12:15 a.m. at the union hall.

Sponsored by local 70.
Silicosis Dispute Goes to New York

Until last week, the New York office of the American Federation of Steelworkers had been pressing the company to discuss the issue of silicosis. The company, however, has refused to negotiate on the matter, saying that it is a local issue and that it is not in its jurisdiction.

Stewards Shocked at CIO Convention

There was nothing the report of the national CIO convention on July 29 that was surprising to many CIO stewards. The meeting was held at the CIO's Washington headquarters.

Sadie Levitt's Report

"Stewards were shocked at the CIO convention. They said that the CIO's actions were contrary to the interests of the working class. The CIO's continued support of the management was met with loud applause. We need to work together to build a strong labor movement that represents the interests of all workers."

The new Wages and Hours Law increasing the Federal minimum wage was signed into law today. The new law, which takes effect on August 1, will raise the minimum wage to $15 per hour.

Protest at GE

"Although the new wages are a step in the right direction, we must continue to fight for higher wages and better working conditions. The minimum wage is not enough to live on, and we need a living wage to support our families."
